

HOMESCHOOLING & COLLEGE PREPARATION TESTING

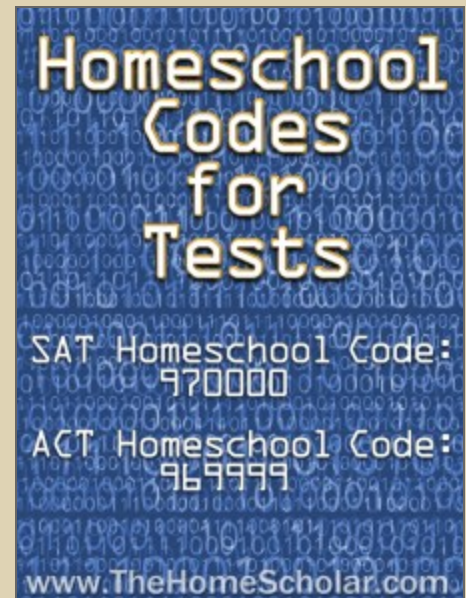

PSAT Testing and Homeschoolers:

- ◆ Homeschooled students must contact a principal or counselor at the local public school to make arrangements for PSAT testing.
- ◆ Testing occurs in mid-October, so arrangements need to be made well in advance (it is suggested to make the arrangements by the previous June).
- ◆ On test day, enter Arizona's homeschool code in the "School Code" section. The code is: 990399.
- ◆ Test results will be mailed directly to your home address.
- ◆ Contact information for the school district that you live in can be accessed on our website at: <http://www.maricopa.gov/schools> or by calling our office (602) 506-3866.

SAT Testing and Homeschoolers:

- ◆ College Board is the company responsible for all SAT testing.
- ◆ SAT registration can be done without school involvement. Registrations can be completed online or by mail.
- ◆ Most SAT testing centers are located at the local public high schools in various locations. A list of locations can be obtained by contacting College Board at the contact information below.
- ◆ The universal homeschool code for the SAT test is listed in the Registration Booklet and on the web during online registration.
- ◆ Scores are sent to the address provided on the Registration Form. Scores can also be received by phone as well.
- ◆ Contact information for College Board:

<http://www.collegeboard.com> Phoenix (866) 756-7346

ACT Testing and Homeschoolers:

- ◆ ACT registration can be done without school involvement. Registrations can be completed online or by mail.
- ◆ The universal homeschool code for the ACT test is 969-999 and must be entered when registering for the test.
- ◆ Scores are sent to your home address as it was entered on the registration form.
- ◆ Contact information for ACT:

<http://www.actstudent.org> phone: (319) 337-1270

The above information has been compiled based on information supplied by College Board and ACT. Other requirements may be applicable other than what is listed in this document. For more information or if you have question in addition to what has been provided, please contact the testing company or local school district to get the necessary information . Its is not the responsibility of the Maricopa County Education Service Agency to provide complete college preparation testing information.