CALL FOR PAPERS!

The International Graduate Historical Studies Conference will host “Real and Imagined Borders: People, Place, Time” at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, April 6 - 7, 2018.

We invite graduate students from across the social sciences and the humanities to submit proposals for papers or panels that adopt an interdisciplinary or transnational approach, but we are also seeking papers or panels that approach historical topics in more traditional ways. All submissions must be based on original research. In keeping with the theme of the conference, individual papers will be organized into panels that cross spatial, temporal, and disciplinary boundaries.

Send abstract (250-350 words) and a short curriculum vita as an attachment to histconf@cmich.edu. Preference will be given to papers and panels received during the early submission period which ends December 17, 2017. The final deadline for submission is February 11, 2018. The IGHSC will present cash prizes for the best papers in several categories. For more information visit us at www.ighsc.info.
