

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ###

Art takes Manhattan Fair 2018

Where: The old Robert Miller Gallery 524 W 26th, Chelsea, New York, NY 10001

When: March 8th to 11th, 2018. Armory Arts Week 2018

Opening reception: 8th March, 6-9pm

Enjoy our monumental street projections, performances, live music, and the finest art at our opening reception. Get a ticket or donate to the Grace Institute and leave with an original Domingo Zapata masterpiece. This charitable drawing among ticketed attendees will be held thanks to our generous sponsors from the American Marketing Association and Morgan Stanley.

We'll gladly share a toast of champagne with you and world-famous artists such as BAFTAS Awards' favorite artist Lincoln Townley, Palma d'Oro at the Biennale Montecarlo 2016 Somsak Chaituch, Russian Fine Arts Academy's Gold Medal Angel Orensanz, or George H. Lewis whose paintings rest in the private collections of President Bill Clinton and David Rockefeller Jr.

The fifth edition of Art takes Manhattan brings the finest art worldwide to the heart of Manhattan. The fair covers the 22,700 sq ft of the old Robert Miller Gallery at 524 W 26th Street opening on the evening of March 8th and closing its doors on Sunday March 11th. One block from Gagosian and side by side with Galerie Lelong, our New York Landmark site is an unavoidable meeting point for the Armory Arts Week.

About Domingo Zapata - Artist benefactor

Domingo Zapata is a Spanish-American artist born in Palma de Mallorca, Spain. Currently, Zapata maintains studios in his Gramercy Park townhouse in New York City, the Design District in Miami, and Hollywood. In these private ateliers he produces Neo-Expressionist paintings as well as sculpture. He paints in both oil and acrylic, often incorporating mixed-media, collage and graffiti.

This year the artist is preparing a poignant, commemorative mural for the lobby of Freedom Tower in Manhattan. The piece will be unveiled as part of the building's opening ceremony and remain on permanent display. Additional commissions include a panel for the newly restored Colosseum in Rome as well as the lobby of the landmark Plaza Hotel in New York.

About Morgan Stanley

Morgan Stanley mobilizes capital to help governments, corporations, institutions and individuals around the world achieve their financial goals. For over 75 years, the firm's reputation for using innovative thinking to solve complex problems has been well earned and rarely matched. A consistent industry leader throughout decades of dramatic change in modern finance, Morgan Stanley will continue to break new ground in advising, serving and providing new opportunities for its clients.

About the American Marketing Association

Now in its 81st year, the American Marketing Association (AMA) is one of the oldest and largest marketing industry associations with over 30,000 members across the globe. AMA's New York Chapter includes roughly 9,000 highly engaged marketers from the tri-state area, of which almost 700 are active chapter members and volunteers. Each year, AMA New York hosts more than 20 events, including the Marketing Hall of Fame annual induction ceremony, bringing together top marketing professionals from across the country to share ideas on the latest marketing trends and to network with peers.

About the Grace Institute

The nonprofit Grace Institute empowers low-income women in the New York area to achieve employment and economic self-sufficiency by providing job-skills training, counseling, placement services and continuous learning opportunities that lead to upwardly mobile employment.

Grace Institute is one of only three workforce development programs in NYC focused solely on women, and is unique in its commitment to identifying and training for middle skill jobs. Grace Institute has been providing administrative professional training, and job placement assistance for women in the New York City area for over 118 years.
