We know that social-emotional learning (SEL) empowers students with abilities that directly impact not only their academic lives, but their success and happiness as adults. Figuring out how and when to teach and assess SEL skills, however, can be challenging, and this group aims to support teachers in their work with students.

Consultation Group for Educators

Join our monthly on-line consultation group to get direct feedback and support on individual student support needs.

Second Saturdays of the month (starts Sept. 12, 2020) at 10:30 am PST

$40 per session
$140 for 4 months
$270 for 9 months

For more information or to sign-up, email melanie@thecenterforconnection.org or visit www.centerforconnection.org/support