

DAMARIS DUSCIUC

PORTLAND, OR

A passionate designer with a love for print, art, branding, and telling new stories in creative ways. Believes design should be used for education & exploration. Seeks to motivate, connect, and inspire others through creating meaningful work.

EXPERIENCE

GRAPHIC DESIGNER - ENERGYSEC

Portland, OR - 04/2015 - present

Sole graphic designer on creative team tasked with promoting EnergySec's training courses for computer security and awareness through use of brand implementation, typographic treatment, and motion graphics.

GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERN - PERCEPTIONS

Portland, OR - 10/2014 - 05/2015

Joint-responsibility of designing and implementing a unified design for a 240-page book and matching CD package. Pitched ideas to editorial team and worked with staff members and printers to create unified design.

AWARDS

Lemman Family Scholarship - Portland State University, 2017-2018

Mock Scholarship - Portland State University, 2017-2018

President's Equal Access Scholarship - Portland State University, 2017-2018

Talent Grants - Mt. Hood Community College, Perceptions: Magazine of The Arts, 2014-2015

EDUCATION

Portland State University, 2016-present

Mt. Hood Community College, 2012-2015
AAS: Graphic Design. CPCC: Graphic Design

SKILLS

Adobe CC:

Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Dreamweaver, Lightroom, Premiere Pro, After Effects

Web Development:

HTML, CSS, jQuery, Brackets, Tumblr, Squarespace, MySQL, WordPress, Cyberduck

Project management:

Word, Excel, Acrobat, Powerpoint, Research, Writing, Editing

971.340.7186
deardamaris.com
ddusciuc@pdx.edu