The city of Rawlins has many allusions to its history, leaders, and events. The town was named for Thomas Jefferson, a member of the Lewis and Clark expedition, in honor of his support of the expedition. The town was founded in 1866, and the first school was built in 1870. The courthouse was completed in 1873, and the first electric lights were installed in 1890. The town has a rich history of firefighting and the use of water for its needs. The town was also a center for the mining industry, with silver, gold, and coal being mined in the area. The town has a long tradition of horse racing, and the Rawlins racetrack was one of the most famous in the country. The town has also been home to many famous people, including the noted writer Willa Cather, who lived in Rawlins during her youth. The town has a rich tradition of music, with the Rawlins Rodeo being one of the most famous in the country. The town has a long tradition of baseball, with the Rawlins Rodeo being one of the most famous in the country. The town has a rich tradition of music, with the Rawlins Rodeo being one of the most famous in the country. The town has a long tradition of baseball, with the Rawlins Rodeo being one of the most famous in the country.