Public Transport in Stirling

Stirling is located in the heart of Scotland with fast and reliable rail and coach services from Glasgow, Edinburgh and beyond. These are complimented with a comprehensive local bus service network, to meet the needs of residents, visitors and business.

If you need to use your car but want to avoid City Centre parking, why not make use of our excellent Park and Ride services. Two Park and Ride bus services run to the City Centre every 12 minutes, using 'easy access' buses.

Park and Ride Bus Prices are:

Adult: £1.20 return

Child: 60p return, under 5's travel free

National Entitlement Card concessionary rates apply

A Park & Ride facility for 215 cars is available at Springkerse, the second Park & Ride facility for 200 cars operates from Castleview. To find the sites using an in-car satellite navigation system, enter the postcode FK7 7TL (Springkerse) or FK9 4TW (Castleview) as your destination points.

For further information on Park and Ride in Stirling visit: www.stirling.gov.uk

Car Park Guidance System

If on occasions it is necessary to bring your car into Stirling City Centre our Variable Message Sign system gives advance information to motorists about current availability in the multi-storey car parks. The map overleaf indicates the location of all public car parks in Stirling and the extent of the on-street pay and display controls within the City.
