FULL GUIDE

WELCOME

In keeping within the tradition of past festival presentations the 2018 Brisbane International Jazz Festival features spectacular jazz artists and composers from around the world together with mind blowing Brisbane legends.

This digital program guide of festival highlights is only the beginning of your discovery to the many jazz adventures happening from May 31 to June 5 including free gigs, workshop and jam sessions. Visit our website calendar at bijf.com.au for a complete listing.

I wish to sincerely thank all the wonderful souls, sponsors and supporters who make this annual party happen especially Brisbane City Council, Kawai Australia, Real Productions, Sai Karlen Design, JMI, Brisbane Marketing, BEMAC, Queensland Conservatorium, Harris Black Chartered Accountants, Mish Photography, Jazz Queensland and our media sponsors 4ZZZ and Scenstr.

Without your generous assistance BIJF wouldn't exist.

Lynette Irwin

Artistic Director, BIJF

A portrait of Gretchen Parlato, a woman with dark hair pulled back, looking slightly to the left. She is wearing a garment with large, vibrant peacock feathers. The background is a solid, warm red color.

Gretchen Parlato flor (USA)

Renowned for technical brilliance and a crystalline voice, LA born vocalist Gretchen Parlato fuses jazz with undertones of Brazilian and African beats displaying the unique and seductive vocal style she has perfected.

KNOWER (USA)

ft. Rai Thistlethwayte, Sam Wilkes, Jacob Mann

KNOWER are a searing hot music group from Los Angeles spearheading a new musical movement. The LA duo represent the best of drummer-producer Louis Cole and singer Genevieve Artadi. Currently touring their fourth album 'Life' [2016], they opened for The Red Hot Chili Peppers in 2017 and continue to take over with their hard-hitting funk, cool chords, deep melodies and funky vocals into an incredibly imaginative off-world experience.

SAM ANNING

SEXTET (VIC)

Originally from Fremantle WA, Sam Anning has become an internationally sought after bassist. Sam was an indispensable fixture on the Western Australian jazz scene until relocating to Melbourne, and eventually New York.

He has performed with masters of jazz including Joe Lovano, Charlie Haden, Kenny Werner, Sheila Jordan, Bernie McGann, and Gretchen Parlato. He has been a finalist for the Freedman Fellowship and Melbourne Music Prize, nominated for ARIA and AIR awards, received the Bell Award for Young Jazz Musician of the Year, and won the 2015 National Jazz Award.

ENTHUSIASTIC MUSICIAN'S ORCHESTRA

(QLD, NSW, VIC)

World Premiers by composer's Rafael Karlen and Louise Denson

Featured artists James Sherlock (guitar) and Diana Tolmie (saxophone)

*The Enthusiastic Musician's Orchestra (EMO) is Brisbane's premier vehicle for the composition and performance of new and exciting music for large jazz ensemble. With all the bluster and bombast of a classic big band as well as the subtlety and refinement of a modern jazz orchestra, EMO is driven to *swing!

APPIAN WAY (QLD)

ft. Zac Hurren Band

A Jazz graduate of the Queensland Conservatorium, Griffith University, Zac Hurren is a magnificent tenor saxophonist who has performed with many OZ legends including Dale Barlow, Katie Noonan, Sam Anning Paul Grabowsky and John Hoffman to name just a few.

In 2009 Zac won the National Jazz Award and in 2012 was a Freedman Fellowship finalist. A truly unique and distinctly Australian saxophonist, composer and improviser.
