NEW YEAR'S SOLOLOQUY
AND PRAYER

C. P. Bollman

Another year has gone, rolled swift away;
And still the circling sphere which we call earth
Tells of a day each time the sun appears;
Thus from duration without end we clip
Small parts and call them hours, days, and years.
But Nature, in her mighty sweep, reckons not
Of fractions thus so small, but lives in the Eternal NOW, with God himself who made
All things by power of his word alone,
And who the end from the beginning saw;
For, being infinite, he comprehends
Alike infinity of time and space,
And knows our every thought, yea, knows before
That thought is born of our weak mind!
Nor does this even half the truth unfold;
With him is no beginning and no end!
We stagger at this thought, we only half
Can think! Amazed we grope in darkness all—
The finite never can the Infinite
Contain, nor grasp the things as far removed From us as East from West, as North from South!
Lord, awed by thought of majesty divine,
I humbly bow my knee before thy throne:
Help me throughout this year of grace still free,
To place my hand confidingly in thine,
To live and walk with thee from day to day;
For how can I, imperfect and unwise,
Choose my own path, or live my life alone?

— The Watchman.
PREFACE

This is the twenty-second issue of the denominational Year Book. As this cause develops from year to year, changes in the general directory are necessary to indicate the growth of the various departments of work. During the past year many changes have occurred, a number of new organizations, conferences, and missions have been effected, and new fields entered, so that the total force of workers enlisted has been considerably increased. The extent of this work is clearly shown by the following pages, which indicate that in every continent, in every clime, and in almost every important country, this cause has representatives, laborers, and facilities for heralding the message which it bears to the world. Truly the sun never sets on this work. The present standing and development of this work, as to organizations and institutions, are indicated below, with the increase noted during 1912: —

The changes in territorial lines are so frequent that it is impossible to issue maps to indicate conference and mission boundary lines that remain in effect for any considerable time. Such maps have therefore been omitted in this issue.

An interesting feature of this issue is the historical summary, by a study of which one may obtain a comprehensive statement of the important events occurring in connection with the development of this cause during the past seventy years, while the statistical tables enable one to find almost any important statistical item regarding this work for the past fifty years.

Directories may be found on the following pages: —

Conferences ........................................ 5-149
Institutions ....................................... 150-202
Laborers ............................................. 203-230
Historical and Statistical Summaries ............. 231-280
Fundamental Principles and General Conference Constitution ... 281-289

For reference to any particular division, see the index, pages 290-294.

HISTORICAL SUMMARY OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

GIVING A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF

The Rise and Progress of the Denomination, together with Historical Data Regarding the Organizations and Institutions Connected Therewith.

ARRANGED IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER.

In attempting to collate matter from the records indicating the rise and progress of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, there are two obstacles which at first seem insurmountable: First, to determine what shall be selected from all the mass of periodic literature, of Conference proceedings, of editorial production, of the record of missionary effort, which have appeared during the past seventy years, and issued in various forms, in different parts of the country, and by many persons; and, second, after having begun the work of selecting the statements of the men who assisted in making the history what it is, the next and greater difficulty is to confine the selections within the limits of the space which may be used for this purpose, and still retain much of interest regarding the rise of the work in obscurity and poverty; of the hardships endured by the leaders and pioneers in this work; of its slow yet constant growth; of the battles waged regarding its concrete organization, and later the organization of its various departments; of the beautiful and harmonious doctrines that are clearly set forth in the publications issued; of the spread of the work to other lands; and of the ultimate triumph of the message, which has even been the goal before those who have been engaged in the work of the people brought out by the third angel's message.

In the following pages will be found one form of evidence as to the progress of this cause in the facts and figures cited. This cause, however, lives not in any figures, but in the hearts of its believers. But these figures furnish a source of gratification, indicating that the triumph of the message is near.

"We hold that the great movement upon the second advent question, which commenced with the writings and public lectures of William Miller, has been, in its leading features, in fulfilment of prophecy. Consistent with this view, we also hold that in the providence of God Mr. Miller was raised up to do a specific work."—James White, in Introduction to "Life of William Miller."

FIRST ANGEL'S MESSAGE.

William Miller embraced Christianity in September, 1816, and began immediately an exhaustive study of the Scriptures.

In 1818 he reached the conclusion that the second coming of Christ would take place about the year 1843. This view was based on the vision or prophecy recorded and explained in the eighth and ninth chapters of Daniel.

After arriving at this startling conclusion, Mr. Miller spent five years more in a careful and thorough study of the whole question. This gave him unshaken confidence in the evidences and proofs upon which his conclusion was based.

1831: On the first Sunday in August, 1831, as nearly as can be determined, Mr. Miller preached his first sermon on the second coming of Christ, and the end of the world.

1832: His first written statement, announcing the coming of the Lord at the close of the 2300 years, in 1843, was a series of sixteen articles printed in the Vermont Telegraph, of Brandon, Vt., beginning May 15, 1832. His first pamphlet, giving an exposition of the prophecies and other Scriptures relating to the second advent, was printed in March, 1833. In the spring of 1836 he published at Troy, N. Y., his course of sixteen lectures in pamphlet form.

1833: September 14, Wm. Miller was granted a ministerial license from the Baptist Church.

1838: About the first of March, 1838, Josiah Litch, of Lowell, Mass., a Methodist minister and an able writer and speaker, embraced the views taught by William Miller, and began to proclaim them by voice and pen. He immediately issued a pamphlet of forty-eight pages entitled "The Midnight Cry." In June, he published a book of 204 pages, entitled "The Probability of the Second Coming of Christ, about A. D. 1843."

1839: During the first part of December, 1839, Joshua V. Himes, of Boston, Mass., joined William Miller and Josiah Litch in the proclamation of the Advent message. On taking his stand with Mr. Miller, he declared that "doors should be opened in every city in the Union, and the warning should go to the ends of the earth."

1840: On the 20th of March, 1840, J. V. Himes began, in Boston, Mass., the publication of the Signs of the Times. "The paper thus started was published for two years as a semimonthly," and then continued as a weekly.

The first "General Conference of Second Advent Believers" was convened in the Chardon Street Chapel, in Boston, Mass., October 15, 1840, and continued two days. The proceedings, together with the lectures delivered on the occasion, were published, and widely circulated.

1841: The second "General Conference of Advent Believers" was held in Lowell, Mass., June 15-17, 1841.

The third "General Conference of Christians expecting the advent of the Lord," was called to meet in Portland, Me., October 12, 1841, by "Josiah Litch, Henry Jones, D. I. Robinson, Wm. Miller, J. V. Himes, Committee."

Between that date and February 8, 1842, seven similar conferences were held in the New England States.

1842: "The Signs of the Times has not less than 50,000 readers." "More than 60,000 copies of various books and tracts have been issued from our establishment, and spread through the world in the four quarters of the globe, and the islands of the sea." "From three to four hundred ministers of the gospel are now engaged in giving the midnight cry."—Signs of the Times, March 15, 1842.

In the latter part of November, 1842, J. V. Himes began the publication, in New York City, of a daily paper, entitled The Midnight Cry; it was principally under the editorial supervision of N. Southard. Twenty-four numbers were published, and ten thousand copies of each number circulated.

During the summer of 1842, series of tent meetings, with immense congregations, were held in Eastern Canada, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey. "It was a movement which shook the nation."

The winter of 1842 was spent by Elders Miller, Himes, Storrs, and others in a course of lectures in New York City. "The interest continued to increase beyond all expectation."

In December, 1842, Josiah Litch and A. Hale began public services in Philadelphia, under the most encouraging circumstances.

"In a manner too rapid to record, the Advent cause went forward during that winter."

1843: Different ministers conducted meetings in the South and West, going as far as Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Cincinnati, Ohio. Many public laborers were brought into the faith, and began its proclamation. Papers devoted to the Advent cause were published in Cincinnati, Eastern Canada, Philadelphia, and Washington.

THE SECOND ANGEL'S MESSAGE.

"Call to Remembrance the Former Days."

"It is good to obey this injunction of the apostle, and call to remembrance the past experience in the Advent cause. Those who believe it to be the cause of God, should not reject the means that has made it a separate cause. . . . We say that the original faith is that which has made us a separate people. If we had never heard the judgment hour cry, which was based on definite time, we never should have been led to bear a testimony which, being rejected by our own brethren, made it necessary for us to separate from the churches. If the Advent people had closed their ears to the cry of the second angel (Rev. 14: 8), they would, as a general thing, have remained in the churches to this day. . . . And where would be the Advent cause, as it is called by some who reject the very means that has made it a separate cause?—It would not be in existence. . . . And if the Advent people who are now a separate people, had not heeded the cry of the second angel, but had remained in the different churches, they would probably have no more interest in the coming of the Lord than those now have who stayed in the church. . . . We say that the Advent cause owes its existence to the first and second angels' messages of Revelation 14. Then why talk of the Advent cause being the cause of God, and at the same time call the means that gave it birth a mistake?"—James White, in Review and Herald of Jan. 13, 1852.

"When we commenced the work of giving the 'midnight cry' with Brother Miller in 1840, he had been lecturing nine years. During that time he stood almost alone. . . . He made no attempt to convert men to a sect, or party, in religion. Hence he labored among all parties and sects, without interfering with their organizations or discipline. . . . Most of the ministers and churches that opened their doors to us, and our brethren who were proclaiming the Advent doctrine, co-operated with us until the last year. The ministry and membership who availed themselves of our labors, but had not sincerely embraced the doctrine, saw that they must either go with the doctrine, and preach and maintain it, or in the crisis which was right upon them they would have difficulty with the decided and determined believers. They therefore decided against the doctrine, and determined, some by one policy and some by another, to suppress the subject. This placed our brethren and sisters among them in a most trying position. Most of them loved their former privileges and enjoyments, and when the 'meat in due season' was withheld from them, and the siren song of 'peace and safety' was resounded in their ears from Sabbath to Sabbath, they were soon weaned from their party predilections, and arose in the majesty of their strength, shook off the yoke, and raised the cry, 'Come out of her, my people.' This state of things placed us in a trying position: 1. Because we were near the end of our prophetic time, in which we expected the Lord would gather all his people in one; 2. We had always preached a different doctrine, and now that the circumstances had changed, it would be regarded as dishonest in us, if we should unite in the cry of separation and breaking up of churches that had received us and our message. We therefore hesitated, and continued to act on our first position, until the church and ministry carried the matter so far, that we were obliged in the fear of God to take a position of defense for the truth and down-trodden children of God.—Joshua V. Himes, written at McConnellsville, Ohio, Aug. 29, 1844, and printed in the Advent Herald; quoted in the Review and Herald of Jan. 13, 1852.

1844: In 1844, Josiah Litch, writing upon the work that had been accomplished up to that time, in disseminating the doctrine of the second coming of Christ, said: "Within the last six years publications treating on the subject have been sent to nearly every English and American missionary station on the globe. . . . The Advent books have been greatly multiplied within the last four years. . . . The first and most important work published was Mr. Miller's Lectures. That volume may be regarded as the seed from which all the rest have germinated."

"The works of Miller, Ward, Hale, Bliss, Fitch, Storrs, Brown, Hervey, Cook, Whiting, Starkweather, Hawley, Litch, Fleming, Cox, Sabine, etc., constitute the Second Advent Library, and exhibit the views which have been presented to the public by the lecturers. Other sheets and pamphlets have been published."

"No cause of a moral or religious character, probably, ever made so rapid advance as the cause of Adventism." From the Review and Herald, published during April and May, 1856, at Battle Creek, Mich., being a republication from the Advent Shield, in 1844.

Oct. 22, 1844, marked the close of the 2300 years and the beginning of the cleansing of the sanctuary, or the judgment hour. On this day occurred the great disappointment of Revelation 10.

Of his labors and the visible results up to 1844, Mr. Miller wrote:

"I labored extensively in all the New England and Middle States, in Ohio, Michigan, Maryland, the District of Columbia, and in Canada, East and West, giving about four thousand lectures in something like five hundred different towns."

"I should think that about two hundred ministers embraced my views, in all the different parts of the United States and Canada; and that there have been about five hundred public lecturers." "In nearly a thousand places, Advent congregations have been raised up, numbering, as nearly as I can estimate, some fifty thousand believers. On recalling to mind the several places of my labors, I can reckon up about six thousand instances of conversion from nature's darkness to God's marvelous light, the result of my personal labors alone; and I should judge the number to be much greater." "In all my labors I never had the desire or thought to establish any separate interest from that of existing denominations, or to benefit one at the expense of another."—Wm. Miller, in "Life of Wm. Miller," pp. 360, 361.

"The Adventists were of all churches, and they had no idea of forming another church. After 'the time' passed, there was great confusion, and the majority were strongly opposed to any organization, holding that it was inconsistent with the perfect liberty of the gospel."—James White, in note to "Supplement to Experience and Views," p. 12; republished in "Early Writings."

THE THIRD ANGEL'S MESSAGE.

1840: "In March, 1840, William Miller visited Portland, Me., and gave his first course of lectures on the second coming of Christ. . . . I attended these meetings."—Mrs. E. G. White, in "Life Sketches," p. 136.

1842: "In June, 1842, Mr. Miller gave his second course of lectures in the Casco Street [Methodist] church, in Portland. I felt it a great privilege to attend these lectures."—Idem., p. 148.

Elder James White attended the Advent camp-meeting in October, 1842, in Exeter, Me., and immediately prepared to go out into the great harvest-field, and do what he could in sounding the warning.

1843: About May, 1843, Elder James White was ordained, by "ministers of the Christian denomination," of which he was a member.

1844: "The Sabbath was first introduced to the attention of the Adventist people at Washington, N. H. A faithful Seventh-day Baptist sister, Mrs. Rachel D. Preston, from the State of New York, having removed to this place, brought with her the Sabbath of the Lord. Here she became interested in the doctrine of the glorious advent of the Saviour at hand. Being instructed in this subject by the Adventist people, she in turn instructed them in the commandments of God, and as early as 1844 nearly the entire church in that place, consisting of about forty persons, became observers of the Sabbath of the Lord. The oldest body of Sabbath-keepers among Seventh-day Adventists is therefore at Washington, N. H."—J. N. Andrews, in "History of the Sabbath," p. 506.

"From this place, several Adventist ministers received the Sabbath truth during the year 1844. One of these was Elder T. M. Preble, who has the honor of first bringing this great truth before the Adventists through the medium of the press. His essay was dated February 13, 1845," written at East Weare, N. H., and appeared in the Hope of Israel, of February 28, 1845, published at Portland, Me. This article was reprinted in the Review and Herald, August 23, 1870. The article was rewritten by Elder Preble in March, 1845, and published in tract form, and was printed in the Review of December 21, 1869.—Idem, p. 506.
“Within a few months, many persons began to observe the Sabbath as the result of the light thus shed on their pathway. Elder J. B. Cook, a man of decided talent as a preacher and a writer, was one of these early converts to the Sabbath. Elders Preble and Cook . . . were called in the providence of God to fill an important place in the work of Sabbath reform. But both of them, while preaching and writing in its behalf, committed the fatal error of making it of no practical importance. . . . After two or three years of this kind of Sabbath observance, each of these men apostatized from it, and thenceforward used what influence they possessed in warring against the fourth commandment. The larger part of those who embraced the Sabbath from their labors were not sufficiently impressed with its importance to become settled and grounded in its weighty evidences, and after a brief period they also turned back from its observance.”—Idem, p. 507.

“Elder Preble's first article in behalf of the Sabbath was the means of calling the attention of our venerable brother, Joseph Bates, to this divine institution. He soon became convinced of its obligation, and at once began to observe it.” The subject of the heavenly sanctuary began about this time to interest many Adventists, and especially Elder Bates. He was one of the first to see that the central object of that sanctuary is the ark of God. He also called attention to the proclamation of the third angel relative to God's commandments.”—Idem, p. 508.

1845: In 1845 occurred the first vision given to Mrs. E. G. White (whose name at that time was Ellen G. Harmon), and was first published in 1846. It was published later in “Experience and Views,” and may be found on pp. 9-15 of “Early Writings.”

1846: “While on a visit to New Bedford, Mass., in 1846, I became acquainted with Elder Joseph Bates. . . . Elder Bates was keeping the Sabbath, and urged its importance. I did not feel its importance, and thought that Elder Bates erred in dwelling upon the fourth commandment more than upon the other nine. But the Lord gave me a view of the heavenly sanctuary. . . . I was shown that the third angel proclaiming the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus represents the people who receive this message and raise the voice of warning to the world, to keep the commandments of God and his law as the apple of the eye, and that in response to this warning many would embrace the Sabbath of the Lord.”—Mrs. E. G. White, in “Life Sketches,” pp. 236, 237.

“In the autumn of 1846 we began to observe the Bible Sabbath, and to teach and defend it.”—Mrs. E. G. White, in “Testimonies to the Church,” Vol. I, p. 75.

PUBLISHING WORK BEGUN.

The first document ever printed by any person connected with this denomination was a two-page leaflet written by Ellen G. Harmon (who, on August 30, 1846, was married to James White), addressed “To the Remnant Scattered Abroad,” and bearing date of April 6, 1846. Two hundred fifty copies were issued, the expense of which was borne by James White and H. S. Gurney.

The second publication was a tract of 40 pages, entitled, "The Opening Heavens," by Joseph Bates. The preface of this tract is dated May 8, 1846.

In the autumn of 1846 Joseph Bates published a pamphlet of 48 pages, under the title "The Seventh-Day Sabbath a Perpetual Sign." This appears to have been printed in the month of August.

In the month of April, 1847, Joseph Bates published a tract of 80 pages, entitled "Second Advent Way-Marks and High Heaps."

The first tract published by James White contained 24 pages, and was entitled "A Word to the Little Flock." The preface was dated May 30, 1847.

The next document of which we have any knowledge is a one-page sheet about 10 by 16 inches, addressed "To Those who are Receiving the Seal of the Living God." It is signed by E. G. White, Topsham, Me., January 30, 1849.

1847: The year 1847 was spent by the three leaders in the third angel’s message, Elder Joseph Bates, Elder James White, and Mrs. E. G. White, in instructing and encouraging the scattered companies of Advent believers.

FIRST GENERAL MEETING OF SABBATH-KEEPERS.

1848: The first general meeting of Sabbath-keepers was held at the home of S. T. Belden, April 20 and 21, 1848, at Rocky Hill, eight miles from Middletown, Conn., with about thirty present.

The second similar meeting was held in Volney, N. Y., August, 1848, in a barn belonging to D. Arnold, and was attended by about thirty-five. "There were hardly two agreed." Here the work of uniting the brethren on the great truths connected with the message of the third angel commenced.

PUBLICATION OF PAPER BEGUN.

1849: In July, 1849, James White began the publication of a paper called the Present Truth, at Middletown, Conn. This paper was published semimonthly, four numbers being issued in Middletown, from July to September, 1849. The fifth and sixth numbers were issued in Oswego, N. Y., in December, 1849; the seventh and eighth numbers in Oswego, in March, 1850; the ninth and tenth numbers in Oswego during April and May, 1850; the eleventh number in Paris, Me., in November, 1850. The Present Truth was then discontinued. Total pages, 88; size of printed page, 5 x 8 inches.

A general meeting was held at Paris, Me., September 14, and attended by J. N. Andrews, who, it appears, then publicly took his stand on the truth.

A conference was held at Oswego, November 3. "We then decided that it was our duty to labor in the State of New York. My husband felt a burden upon him to write and publish. We rented a house in Oswego, borrowed furniture from our brethren, and commenced housekeeping. There my husband wrote, published, and preached."—Mrs. E. G. White, in "Life Sketches," page 265.

1850: In November, 1850, the Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was published in Paris, Me., with Joseph Bates, S. W. Rhodes,
J. N. Andrews, and James White as publishing committee. "Terms—Gratis, except the reader desires to aid in its publication."

The term "second advent" used to designate special work and message.

1851: "During the eight months [Nov., 1850, to June, 1851] of the publishing of the Review, eight new names were added to the list of ministers who gave themselves more or less to preaching the truth of the third angel's message. Among these were S. W. Rhodes, Hiram Edson, F. Wheeler, E. P. Butler, and J. N. Andrews."—"Rise and Progress," p. 159.

From November, 1850, to June 9, 1851, thirteen numbers of the paper were issued in Paris, Me., with the title, Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald. The last issue states: "It seems duty to suspend the publication of the paper for a few weeks, to attend the Conferences at Camden and Milton, N. Y., and visit other places as the way may open."

August 5, 1851, from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., appeared the first number of the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, as Vol. 2, No. 1, with James White as editor, and Joseph Bates, Hiram Edson, and J. N. Andrews as publishing committee.

Annie R. Smith took her stand for the truth, and in August connected with the Review office as a worker, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., chiefly as a proofreader. "For three years she labored faithfully and effectively, for board and clothing only. At the end of this period, consumption had marked her for its victim."

From the above date to March 23, 1852, fourteen numbers were issued semimonthly. The last number contains the report of the first conference called to consider the publishing work, held at Ballston, N. Y., March 12-15, 1852, at which it was voted that the Review and Herald should be published at Rochester, N. Y. The first issue from that place bears date of May 6, 1852, being No. 1 of Volume 3.

August, 1851, "Experiences and Views," first published at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

REMOVAL TO ROCHESTER, N. Y.

1852: May 6, 1852, the first number of Vol. 3 of the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was printed in Rochester, N. Y., on a Washington hand-press, with type owned by Seventh-day Adventists, the total cost of press and material being $652.93, and the contributions for that purpose being $655.84.

No. 1, Vol. 1, of the Youth's Instructor appeared in August, 1852.

The first general meeting held at Rochester, N. Y., after the removal of the printing plant there, was called by G. W. Holt, "in behalf of the brethren," and met at 124 Mount Hope Ave,
HISTORICAL SUMMARY.

September 25 and 26, 1852. This meeting was attended by the following ministers: S. W. Rhodes, J. N. Andrews, Ira Wyman, W. S. Ingraham, G. W. Holt. At that meeting J. N. Loughborough took his stand upon the truth, and kept the following Sabbath, October 7. His first contribution to the Review and Herald bears date of October 25, and appears in the issue of that paper the 28th.

"For want of room it has been necessary to move our office from one of the rooms of our 'own hired house,' to South St. Paul Street, Stone's Block, No. 21, Third floor."—Review and Herald, Oct. 14, 1852.

An important series of articles on the Sabbath question was written by J. N. Andrews, and issued in the Review and Herald from May to August, 1852.

Elder U. Smith observed the first Sabbath in December, 1852. Connected with the Review Office in Rochester, N. Y., May 3, 1853. 1853: "With the opening of Vol. 4, [May 26, 1853] appeared a slight semblance of a price for the publications, in these words: 'To those wishing to pay, $1 for a volume of twenty-six numbers.' With the issuing of the sixth number of this volume, the Review began to be published as a weekly, and from that date, August 4, its influence greatly increased. It was in the columns of this volume that a treatise on the evidences of our faith was published, which was afterward put into pamphlet form, and sold at ten cents per copy, being the first book upon which a price was fixed. It was that most excellent pamphlet, 'The Signs of the Times,' written by Elder James White, which, under God, has been the means of converting scores, if not hundreds, to the truth. The first article appeared August 11, 1853, in No. 7 of the Review."—J. N. Loughborough, in "Rise and Progress," p. 193.

A conference of believers was convened at 109 Monroe St., Rochester, N. Y., July 16-19, attended by James White, Joseph Bates, W. S. Ingraham, J. N. Andrews, J. B. Frisbie, G. W. Holt, H. W. Lawrence. "The principal object of this meeting was to consider the interest of the church of Christ, our present duty as a people, and the best plans to advance the cause of truth." "The subject of the best plan to circulate our publications was introduced, and after remarks were made on the subject, a committee was chosen to prepare a report." This report covered two points, namely, the sale of tracts at first cost, instead of being distributed gratuitously, as had been the case; and, second, that the Review and Herald should be published weekly.—Review and Herald, August 4, 1853.

1854: The first tent-meeting held under the proclamation of the third angel's message was conducted by Elders J. N. Loughborough and M. E. Cornell. The tent was pitched on the southeast corner of Tompkins and Van Buren Streets, Battle Creek, Mich., and meetings begun June 10, and closed June 12, 1854.

A conference was held at 109 Monroe St., Rochester, N. Y., June 23-26. Reports rendered indicated the rapid spread of the message, especially in the West. Among the decisions arrived at was the change in price of the Review and Herald from $1.50 to $1.00 per year. Publishing Committee of the Review and Herald changed to J. N. Andrews, R. F. Cottrell, and Uriah Smith, with Jas. White as editor.—Review and Herald, July 4, 1854.
240 HISTORICAL SUMMARY.

REMOVAL OF REVIEW AND HERALD OFFICE TO BATTLE CREEK, MICH.

1855: "September 23, 1855, a meeting of those interested in establishing the Advent Review office in Michigan, was held at Battle Creek, when Elder J. B. Frisbie was chosen chairman, and A. A. Dodge secretary, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

1. That the Advent Review office still remain the property of the church.
2. That the Advent Review office be moved to Battle Creek, Mich.
3. That a Financial Committee of three be chosen, whose duty it shall be to move the office, and publish the Advent Review.
4. That D. R. Palmer of Jackson, Henry Lyon and Cyrenius Smith of Battle Creek, be the Financial Committee.
5. That the Committee call on the church at large to send in their free-will offerings to defray the expenses of moving the Advent Review office, and to replenish the office with those things necessary in editing and publishing the Advent Review.
6. That the Committee proposes through the Advent Review a plan on which the editorial department of the Advent Review shall be conducted, requesting those interested, in the several States, to speak out on the subject by letter to the Committee—either to adopt, amend, or reject the plan and suggest another—and that, if necessary, the Committee call a meeting of delegates from different parts of the field to choose an editor, or editors, to conduct the Advent Review.
7. That the doings of this meeting be published in the Advent Review."—From the Review and Herald, Oct. 2, 1855.

In the Review and Herald of October 16 appeared an article signed by Henry Lyon, Cyrenius Smith, and D. R. Palmer, containing the following statements: —

"At a meeting held in Battle Creek, Sept. 23, 1855, we were chosen a Financial Committee, to move the office to this State, and to publish the Advent Review. . . . We shall, Providence permitting, move the office, and commence the publication of the Review weekly this fall. Four brethren have purchased a building lot, and are erecting a building suitable for the printing office, editor's room, etc. The expenses of moving the office, including boxing up press, type, etc., freight from Rochester to Battle Creek, and a loss on some things not movable, and others not worth moving (which will have to be got new at Battle Creek), will be about $200. The friends of the cause are now invited to send in their free-will offerings to this amount, for the above-named object, to Henry Lyon, Battle Creek, Mich.

BUSINESS PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE AT BATTLE CREEK, MICH.

"Brethren assembled in Conference at Battle Creek, Nov. 16, 1855, according to appointment in Review of October 16. Elder Joseph Bates was chosen chairman. Letters from different parts of the field relative to the business of the meeting were read. All were in harmony with the proposals heretofore made in the Review. In the business transactions of this Conference, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

1. That a committee be appointed to investigate the financial condition of the Review office.

2. That Henry Lyon, David Hewett, and Wm. M. Smith, of Battle Creek, be that committee.

3. That this Conference sanction the proceedings of the previous Conference of Sept. 23, 1855, and that the committee then chosen hold in trust the press for the benefit of the church.

4. That Uriah Smith be resident editor of the Advent Review.

6. That after the investigation of the affairs of the Review office, the financial committee pay Brother White for materials which he has placed in the office above what was first donated, and call on the church for the amount, that he may be able to meet the debts he has incurred in placing this material in the office.

7. That Brother White be subject to the advice of the financial or publishing committee, in the management of the publication and sale of books.

Death of Annie R. Smith, July 26, 1855.

1856: The business meeting of a special Conference was held May 26, 1856, convened upon the call of J. B. Frisbie and James White, at Battle Creek, Mich., and in behalf of the Battle Creek church. Ministers present: Jas. White, Joseph Bates, J. Byington, J. Hart. J. H. Waggoner, and others. Joseph Bates chosen Moderator, and U. Smith, Secretary.
Important decisions: That tents should be sent into new fields and sustained, and that they should be manned by volunteers. That "Brethren C. S. Glover, J. P. Kellogg, D. R. Palmer, C. Smith, and J. R. Lewis be a Tent Committee to whom all tent operations in this State [Michigan] should be referred; that J. P. Kellogg be tent treasurer for this State.

"A history of the publishing of the present truth from the commencement was related by Brother White; and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: —

That the church receive the books from Brother White; that, on account of ill health, and upon his request, Henry Lyon be released as one of the Publishing Committee of the Advent Review, and that Brother J. P. Kellogg, of Battle Creek, be chosen in his place; that the Publishing Committee of the Review be also the committee which shall have charge of the Church Book Fund.

Arrangements made for the payment of the debts incurred in the publication of Vol. 7 of the Review and the removal of the office from Rochester, N. Y., to Battle Creek, Mich.; an increased circulation of the Review recommended; "that James White, J. H. Waggoner, and U. Smith be a committee of three, to prepare a tract on the subject of the Sabbath, to be printed in German;" "that Brother J. H. Waggoner address the Church at large in behalf of the Conference."—Review and Herald, May 29, 1856.

The name of S. N. Haskell first appears in the Review of Jan. 31, 1856.

1857: A conference was called by J. P. Kellogg, James White, and C. Smith, to convene in Battle Creek church April 10, 1857. On the 12th the business proceedings were held. Joseph Bates was chosen Chairman, and U. Smith, Secretary.

"The points to come before the Conference for consideration were not numerous." "Resolved that a power press be obtained for the Review office," the purchasing of which was referred to the Publishing Committee.

The committee appointed to prepare a tract on the Sabbath question for Germans were urged to publish the same.

"The subject of a meeting house in Battle Creek, sufficiently large to accommodate such conferences as it will probably be necessary to convene from time to time at this place, was next considered. The necessity for this was very sensibly felt by most of those present. It was therefore —

"Resolved, That a house that will conveniently seat about three or four hundred people, is much needed in this place, and should be erected as soon as possible."—Review and Herald, April 16, 1857.

In the Review and Herald of July 23, 1857, James White wrote that about "ten years ago we published the first number of the little sheet called Present Truth. Then Sabbath-keepers who were looking for the second coming of Christ numbered about one hundred. We sent the first number of the Present Truth to all that we could hope would read it, and took them to the postoffice in a carpet bag. The few believers were generally poor, and but three among them who publicly taught the truth, and two of them could not give themselves wholly to the work for want of means."

"Probably it will require from $2500 to $3000 to purchase the power press, and put it in motion. Of this sum $1700 have been pledged, in sums of $100 each, by seventeen persons, eleven of them in this State.”—Review and Herald, May 7, 1857.

The business session of an important Conference was held Nov. 9, 1857, at Battle Creek, Mich., Joseph Bates, Chairman; Uriah Smith, Secretary.

“The attention of the Conference was first called to the subject of the meeting house [in Battle Creek]. The report of the building committee was read, by which it appears that the whole cost of the house is $881.39.” Approval was expressed regarding the purchase of the press and engine for producing publications “like the leaves of autumn.” “The only question that remains is, Will the church act their part in their circulation?”

“Third subject brought before the meeting was the publication of the paper and the book business. These have heretofore been kept separate and distinct. . . . It was—

“Resolved, That the publication of the Review and Herald, and of the books be united as one concern.”

“Resolved, That a Committee of Revision be appointed, through whose hands all matter designed for publication in book form shall pass, and under whose sanction it shall be issued; by which means an individual responsibility in the publication of books will be avoided, and confidence be placed in whatever shall be thus published, as the voice of the body.

“Resolved, That Brethren J. H. Waggoner, James White, and J. B. Frisbie be this committee.”

1858: A conference was called by James White, J. N. Loughborough, and J. B. J. White, U. Smith, and C. Smith were appointed as a committee on publication of works in foreign languages.—Review and Herald, May 27, 1858.

There was held in Battle Creek, Mich., in the month of April, 1858 a Bible class, conducted by Elder J. N. Andrews, whose object was to learn what the Scriptures teach concerning the support of the ministry. This effort resulted in the suggestion to our people of the plan called “Systematic Benevolence,” on the tithing principle.

ORGANIZATION OF CHURCHES.

A Conference was held in Battle Creek, Mich., October 5 and 6, seven ministers being present.

"The first business presented was the organization of churches. Brother [J. N.] Loughborough said: 'I consider it proper and necessary to consider here the organization of churches, as the subject has been agitated among us, especially for the last six months; and in order to bring the matter before the meeting, I move that we consider the proper manner of organizing churches.' Seconded by Brother [Jas.] White. Carried. Brother White then presented the following resolution:

"Resolved, That this Conference recommend the following church covenant: We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together, as a church, taking the name, Seventh-day Adventists, covenanting to keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus Christ."

"Resolved, That we recommend to the churches in the State of Michigan to unite in one Conference, with the name of The Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Adopted."

The following officers were named: Joseph Bates, Chairman; U. Smith, Secretary; Conference Committee, J. N. Loughborough, Moses Hull, and M. E. Cornell.

"Resolved, That the first session of the Michigan State Conference of Seventh-day Adventists be held at Monterey, Mich., Oct. 5-8, 1862. Adopted."

Annual ministerial credentials provided, also certificates of ordination.

1862: During the early part of 1862 the question of the permanent organization of a General Conference was agitated, and articles in favor of such organization published in the Review and Herald.

The Michigan Conference and the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association having been organized during 1861, and sessions of these organizations called to meet at Monterey, Michigan, October 4 and 5, 1862, there was no session of the General Conference as such during this year. However, in the proceedings of the Michigan Conference just referred to, matters of a general nature were brought in, inasmuch as this was the first State Conference that had been organized.
“Moved by Brother Loughborough that the next State Conference be held at Battle Creek, Mich., October 2-5, 1863. Carried.

“Resolved, That we invite the several State Conferences to meet with us, by delegate, in general conference, at our next annual Conference. Adopted.”—Review and Herald, October 14, 1862.

“It is the opinion of several brethren, whose judgment we have reason to respect, that the best time for a General Conference would be the last of May next, or the first of June, instead of next October.”—James White, in Review and Herald, March 10, 1863.

For three or four years previous to this time there had been considerable discussion going on regarding the question of organization of a General Conference and of State Conferences. Accordingly, the next May (1863), the General Conference was formally organized, although for a number of years it had been doing work in a practical way.

ORGANIZATION OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

1863: The organization of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists was effected at a meeting held in Battle Creek, Mich., May 20-23, 1863. This meeting was called by James White, J. N. Loughborough, and John Byington.

The following duly elected delegates were present, representing the States named: —

Wisconsin: Isaac Sanborn.

Minnesota: Washington Morse.

A constitution of nine articles was adopted; no By-laws were passed.

In defining the duty of the Executive Committee, Article 5 says: “They shall take the special supervision of all missionary labor, and as a missionary board shall have the power to decide where such labor is needed, and who shall go as missionaries to perform the same.”

The basis of representation by delegates from State Conferences was made as follows: —

“Each State Conference shall be entitled to one delegate in the General Conference, and one additional delegate for every twenty delegates in the State Conference.”

At the same Conference a constitution was adopted for State Conferences, the delegate representation provided being as follows: —

“Each church to the number of twenty members or under shall be entitled to one delegate, and one delegate for every additional fifteen members."

According to this arrangement the basis of representation at the General Conference was one delegate for the State Conference, and one additional delegate for every 350 members of the State Conference.

The committee on nominations reported as follows: Pres., James White; Sec., Uriah Smith; Treas., E. S. Walker; Ex. Com., James White, John Byington, J. N. Loughborough.

Although unanimously elected president, James White declined to serve, and John Byington was elected in his place.

The nominations for Secretary and Treasurer were ratified. J. N. Andrews and G. W. Amadon were chosen to act with the President as members of the Executive Committee.

It was voted to publish a new prophetic chart, and also a chart of the ten commandments suitable for public lectures.

1910: November 28 the General Conference Committee voted that, beginning with Jan. 1, 1911, a sustentation fund be provided “for the support of sick and aged laborers and the widows and children of deceased laborers,” said fund to be made up of five per cent of the tithe receipts of each local and Union Conference, and of the General Conference. Surplus funds above $5,000 appropriated annually to missions.

1911: Biennial council of the General Conference Committee held in Friedensau, Germany, July 4-15, 1911, attended by thirty-one representatives from outside of Europe, and 122 European representatives. At this meeting it was recommended that an average of fifteen cents per week per member be raised as a general fund for missions, to include “all donations to missions.”

A special report covering work conducted by the denomination in non-Christian and non-Protestant countries for 1911, indicates that the denomination was conducting work in forty-seven non-Protestant countries, and twenty non-Christian lands, supporting laborers in these lands who speak seventy-three different languages and dialects, and issuing publications in sixty-four different languages for circulation in the countries designated. The total number of foreign missionaries was 586, and of native helpers, 974, a total force of 1,560. There were 140 main stations, 145 sub-stations; 413 churches, with 17,565 adherents; 13 training-schools, having an enrolment of 724; 192 schools and out-schools, with an enrolment of 6,730. Total foreign teachers numbered 103, and native teachers,
268. HISTORICAL SUMMARY.

262. The number added in 1911 was 2,679, or a gain of 22.74 per cent. The income from the mission fields for 1911, was $135,234.87, and the amount added thereto by the home base, was $357,587.73.

The progress made in entering these fields may be illustrated thus: Beginning with 1886, when work was first undertaken in a non-Protestant land, the next decade saw the opening of work in 17 different countries, or 25.38 per cent of all the countries that have been entered; during the next decade, from 1896—1905, work was begun in 29 countries, or 43.28 per cent of all; during the six years following, to 1911, 21 other countries have been entered, or 31.34 per cent of all. Thus work in 50 new countries has been begun during the past sixteen years, or 74.62 per cent of all that have been entered since 1886. Total adherents in the 67 countries constituted 15.74 per cent of total communicants. Including work in Christian lands, there were 85 countries in which work was conducted at the close of 1911, the communicants in Christian lands constituting 84.26 per cent of total.

1912: Central European and Danube Union Conferences organized in Europe. During this year ninety-seven additional laborers were sent to foreign fields, and the following increase was made in organizations: Conferences, 10; missions, 10; schools, 2; publishing houses, 1; new languages in which publications were issued, 1; (see page 189 for list of languages in which denominational publications are now issued).

DELEGATE REPRESENTATION.

The basis of delegate representation in the General Conference from the time of its organization in 1863 to the twenty-third annual session, held October 30 to November 20, 1884, was as follows:

"Each State conference shall be entitled to one delegate in the General Conference, and one additional delegate for every twenty delegates in the State Conference . . . provided, that the delegates in such States be elected according to the following ratio, to wit: Each church to the number of twenty members or under shall be entitled to one delegate, and one delegate for every additional fifteen members."

The basis of delegate representation in the General Conference from the twenty-third annual session held in 1884, to the twenty-eighth annual session, held October 18 to November 5, 1889, was as follows:

"Each State shall be entitled to one delegate in the General Conference, without regard to numbers, and one additional delegate for every three hundred church members in the Conference."

At the twenty-eighth session held in 1889, this was amended to read "One additional delegate for every 400 church members in the Conference."

At the thirty-second session held February 19 to March 6, 1897, this was amended by substituting 500 in the place of 400.

At the thirty-fourth session held in 1901, a further amendment was made, substituting 1,000 in the place of 500.

At the thirty-seventh session held in 1909, this was changed to one delegate for each Union Conference or Mission and each local Conference, and "an additional delegate for each 500 of its membership."

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

By the late Uriah Smith.

Seventh-day Adventists have no creed but the Bible; but they hold to certain well-defined points of faith, for which they feel prepared to give a reason "to every man that asketh" them. The following propositions may be taken as a summary of the principal features of their religious faith, upon which there is, so far as is known, entire unanimity throughout the body. They believe:

1. That there is one God, a personal, spiritual being, the Creator of all things, omnipotent, omniscient, and eternal; infinite in wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness, truth, and mercy; unchangeable, and everywhere present by his representative, the Holy Spirit. Ps. 139: 7.

2. That there is one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Eternal Father, the one by whom he created all things, and by whom they do consist; that he took on him the nature of the seed of Abraham for the redemption of our fallen race; that he dwelt among men, full of grace and truth, lived our example, died our sacrifice, was raised for our justification, ascended on high to be our only mediator in the sanctuary in heaven, where through the merits of his shed blood, he secures the pardon and forgiveness of the sins of all those who persistently come to him; and as the closing portion of his work as priest, before he takes his throne as king, he will make the great atonement for the sins of all such, and their sins will then be blotted out (Acts 3: 19) and borne away from the sanctuary, as shown in the service of the Levitical priesthood, which foreshadowed and prefigured the ministry of our Lord in heaven. See Leviticus 16; Heb. 8: 4, 5; 9: 6, 7.

3. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain a full revelation of his will to man, and are the only infallible rule of faith and practise.

4. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church, to follow faith and repentance,—an ordinance by which we commemorate the resurrection of Christ, as by this act we show our faith in his burial and resurrection, and through that, in the resurrection of all the saints at the last day; and that no other mode more fitly represents these facts than that which the Scriptures prescribe, namely, immersion. Rom. 6: 3-5; Col. 2: 12.

5. That the new birth comprises the entire change necessary to fit us for the kingdom of God, and consists of two parts: First, a moral change wrought by conversion and a Christian life (John 5: 3); second, a physical change at the second coming of Christ, whereby, if dead, we are raised incorruptible, and if living, are changed to immortality in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. Luke 20: 36; 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52.

6. That prophecy is a part of God's revelation to man; that it is included in that Scripture which is profitable for instruction (2 Tim. 3: 16); that it is designed for us and our children (Deut. 29: 29); that so far from being enshrouded in impenetrable mystery, it is that which especially constitutes the word of God a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Ps. 119: 105; 2 Peter 1: 19); that a blessing is pronounced upon those who study it (Rev. 1: 1-3); and that, consequently, it is to be understood by the people of God sufficiently to show them their position in the world's history and the special duties required at their hands.
7. That the world's history from specified dates in the past, the rise and fall of empires, and the chronological succession of events down to the setting up of God's everlasting kingdom, are outlined in numerous great chains of prophecy; and that these prophecies are now all fulfilled except the closing scenes.

8. That the doctrine of the world's conversion and a temporal millennium is a fable of these last days, calculated to lull men into a state of carnal security, and cause them to be overtaken by the great day of the Lord as by a thief in the night (1 Thess. 5: 3); that the second coming of Christ is to precede, not follow, the millennium; for until the Lord appears, the papal power, with all its abominations, is to continue (2 Thess. 2: 8), the wheat and the tares grow together (Matt. 13: 29, 30, 39), and evil men and seducers wax worse and worse, as the Word of God declares. 2 Tim. 3: 1, 13.

9. That the mistake of Adventists in 1844 pertained to the nature of the event then to transpire, not to the time; that no prophetic period is given to reach to the second advent, but that the longest one, the two thousand and three hundred days of Dan. 8: 14, terminated in 1844, and brought us to an event called the cleansing of the sanctuary. See Note 1.

10. That the sanctuary of the new covenant is the tabernacle of God in heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which our Lord, as great high priest, is minister; that this sanctuary is the antitype of the Mosaic tabernacle, and that the priestly work of our Lord, connected therewith, is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation (Heb. 8: 1-5, etc.); that this, and not the earth, is the sanctuary to be cleansed at the end of the two thousand and three hundred days, what is termed its cleansing being in this case, as in the type, simply the entrance of the high priest into the most holy place, to finish the round of service connected therewith by making the atonement and removing from the sanctuary the sins of believers (Acts 3: 19), and occupies a brief but indefinite space in the second apartment (Leviticus 16; Heb. 9: 22, 23); and that this work in the antitype, beginning in 1844, consists in actually blotting out the sins of believers (Acts 4: 19), and occupies a brief but indefinite space of time, at the conclusion of which the work of mercy for the world will be finished, and the second advent of Christ will take place.

11. That God's moral requirements are the same upon all men in all dispensations; that these are summarily contained in the commandments spoken by Jehovah from Sinai, engraven on the tables of stone, and deposited in the ark, which was in consequence called the "ark of the covenant," or testament (Num. 10: 33; Heb. 9: 4, etc.); that this law is immutable and perpetual, being a transcript of the tables deposited in the ark in the true sanctuary on high, which is also, for the same reason, called the ark of God's testament; for under the sounding of the seventh trumpet we are told that "the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament." Rev. 11: 19.

12. That the fourth commandment of this law requires that we devote the seventh day of each week, commonly called Saturday, to abstinence from our own labor, and to the performance of sacred and religious duties; that this is the only weekly Sabbath known to the Bible, being the day that was set apart before Paradise was lost (Gen. 2: 2, 3), and which will be observed in Paradise restored (Isa. 66: 22, 23); that the facts upon which the Sabbath institution is based con-
FINE IT TO THE SEVENTH DAY, AS THEY ARE NOT TRUE OF ANY OTHER DAY, AND THAT THE TERMS JEWISH SABBATH, AS APPLIED TO THE SEVENTH DAY, AND CHRISTIAN SABBATH, AS APPLIED TO THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK, ARE NAMES OF HUMAN INVENTION, UNSCRIPTURAL IN FACT, AND FALSE IN MEANING.

13. That as the man of sin, the papacy, has thought to change times and laws (the law of God, Dan. 7: 25), and has misused almost all Christendom in regard to the fourth commandment, we find a prophecy of reform in this respect to be wrought among believers just before the coming of Christ. Isa. 56: 1, 2; 1 Peter 1: 5; Rev. 14: 12, etc.

14. That the followers of Christ should be a peculiar people, not following the maxims, nor conforming to the ways, of the world; not loving its pleasures nor countenancing its follies; inasmuch as the apostle says that “whosoever therefore will be” in this sense, “a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (James 4: 4); and Christ says that we can not have two masters, or, at the same time, serve God and mammon. Matt. 6: 24.

15. That the Scriptures insist upon plainness and modesty of attire as a prominent mark of discipleship in those who profess to be the followers of Him who was “meek and lowly in heart;” that the wearing of gold, pearls, and costly array, or anything designed merely to adorn the person and foster the pride of the natural heart, is to be discarded, according to such scriptures as 1 Tim. 2: 9, 10; 1 Peter 3: 3, 4.

16. That means for the support of evangelical work among men should be contributed from love to God and love of souls, not raised by church lotteries, or occasions designed to contribute to the fun-loving, appetite-indulging propensities of the sinner, such as fairs, festivals, crazy socials, etc., which are a disgrace to the professed church of Christ; that the proportion of one's income required in former dispensation can be no less under the gospel; that it is the same as Abraham (whose children we are, if we are Christ's. Gal. 3: 29) paid to Melchisedec (type of Christ) when he gave him a tenth of all (Heb. 7: 1-4); the tithe is the Lord's (Lev. 27: 30); and this tenth of one's income is also to be supplemented by offerings from those who are able, for the support of the gospel. 2 Cor. 9: 6; Mal. 3: 8, 10.

17. That as the natural or carnal heart is at enmity with God and his law, this enmity can be subdued only by a radical transformation of the affections, the exchange of unholy for holy principles; that this transformation follows repentance and faith, is the special work of the Holy Spirit, and constitutes regeneration, or conversion.

18. That as all have violated the law of God, and can not of themselves render obedience to his just requirements, we are dependent on Christ, first, for justification from our past offenses, and, secondly, for grace whereby to render acceptable obedience to his holy law in time to come.

19. That the Spirit of God was promised to manifest itself in the church through certain gifts, enumerated especially in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4; that these gifts are not designed to supersede, or take the place of, the Bible, which is sufficient to make us wise unto salvation, any more than the Bible can take the place of the Holy Spirit; that, in specifying the various channels of its operations, that Spirit has simply made provision for its own existence and presence with the people of God to the end of time to lead to an understanding of that word which it had inspired, to convince of sin, and to work a transformation in the heart and life; and that those who deny to the Spirit its place and operation, do plainly deny that part of the Bible which assigns to it this work and position.
20. That God, in accordance with his uniform dealings with the race, sends forth a proclamation of the approach of the second advent of Christ; and that this work is symbolized by the three messages of Revelation 14, the last one bringing to view the work of reform on the law of God, that his people may acquire a complete readiness for that event.

21. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary (see proposition 10), synchronizing with the time of the proclamation of the third message (Rev. 14: 9,10), is a time of investigative judgment, first, with reference to the dead, and secondly, at the close of probation, with reference to the living, to determine who of the myriads now sleeping in the dust of the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of translation,—points which must be determined before the Lord appears.

22. That the grave, whither we all tend, expressed by the Hebrew word "sheol" and the Greek word "hades," is a place, or condition, in which there is no work, device, wisdom, nor knowledge. Eccl. 9: 10.

23. That the state to which we are reduced by death is one of silence, inactivity, and entire unconsciousness. Ps. 146: 4; Eccl. 9: 5, 6; Dan. 12: 2.

24. That out of this prison-house of the grave, mankind are to be brought by a bodily resurrection, the righteous having part in the first resurrection, which takes place at the second coming of Christ; the wicked in the second resurrection, which takes place in a thousand years thereafter. Rev. 20: 4-6.

25. That at the last trump, the living righteous are to be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, and that the risen righteous are to be caught up to meet the Lord in the air, so forever to be with the Lord. 1 Thess. 4: 16, 17; 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52.

26. That these immortalized ones are then taken to heaven, to the New Jerusalem, the Father's house, in which there are many mansions (John 14: 1-3), where they reign with Christ a thousand years, judging the world and fallen angels, that is, apportioning the punishment to be executed upon them at the close of the one thousand years (Rev. 20: 4; 1 Cor. 6: 2, 3); that during this time the earth lies in a desolate, chaotic condition (Jer. 4: 23-27), described, as in the beginning, by the Greek term "abussos" (bottomless pit, Septuagint of Gen. 1: 2); and that here Satan is confined during the thousand years (Rev. 20: 1, 2), and here finally destroyed (Rev. 20: 10; Mal. 4: 1); the theater of the ruin he has wrought in the universe being appropriately made for a time his gloomy prison-house, and then the place of his final execution.

27. That at the end of the thousand years the Lord descends with his people and the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21: 2), the wicked dead are raised, and come up on the surface of the yet unrenewed earth, and gather about the city, the camp of the saints (Rev. 20: 9), and fire comes down from God out of heaven and devours them. They are then consumed, root and branch (Mal. 4: 1), becoming as though they had not been (Obadiah 15, 16). In this everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord (2 Thess. 1: 9), the wicked meet the "everlasting punishment" threatened against them (Matt. 25: 46), which is everlasting death. Rom. 6: 23; Rev. 20: 14, 15. This is the perdition of ungodly men, the fire which consumes them being the fire for which "the heavens and the earth, which are now, . . . are kept in store," which shall melt even the elements with its intensity, and purge the earth from the deepest stains of the curse of sin. 2 Peter 3: 7-12.
28. That new heavens and a new earth shall spring by the power of God from the ashes of the old, and this renewed earth with the New Jerusalem for its metropolis and capital shall be the eternal inheritance of the saints, the place where the righteous shall evermore dwell. 2 Peter 3: 13; Ps. 37: 11, 29; Matt. 5: 5.

NOTE 1, REGARDING PROPOSITION 9.—The Adventists of 1844 expected that the end of the world would come in that year, because they held that certain prophecies would then transpire, which they believed reached to the coming of the Lord. Chief among these was the prophecy of Dan. 8: 13, 14, which says that at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days (years) the sanctuary should be cleansed. They believed that the earth was the sanctuary then to be cleansed, and that its cleansing was to be accomplished with fire, which would accompany the manifestation of the Lord from heaven. From these premises, the conclusion seemed inevitable that when the 2300 years ended, in 1844, the Lord would come.

But the day passed, and no Saviour appeared. Suspended between hope and fear, and waiting until every plausible allowance for possible inaccuracies of reckoning, and variations of time was exhausted, it became at length apparent that a great mistake had been made, and that the mistake must be on one or both of the following points: either, first, the period of the 2300 days did not end at that time, and they had made a mistake in supposing that they would terminate in that year; or, secondly, the cleansing of the sanctuary was not to be the burning of the earth at the second coming of Christ, and hence they had made a mistake in expecting such an event at that time. While there was a possibility that they had made a mistake on both these points, it was certain that they had made a mistake on one of them; and either one would be sufficient to account for the fact that the Lord did not then appear.

A movement which had enlisted the whole interest of thousands upon thousands, and thrilled their hearts with enthusiastic hope, was not to be abandoned, especially by its more conservative and sincere adherents, without earnest thought and reflection. The whole field of evidence was therefore carefully resurveyed. It soon became apparent that two methods were being adopted to account for the fact that the Lord did not come when he was expected, and to explain the consequent disappointment.

One class, at a rash bound, reached the conclusion that they had made a mistake in the time, and that the prophetic periods had not expired. This was, of course, to abandon the whole previous movement, with all its accompanying manifestations of divine power; for if the time was wrong, everything was wrong.

Another class, impressed with the fact that God had given too much evidence concerning the movement to allow them to abandon it, carefully reviewed the evidence on every point. The result with them was a clearer conviction of the strength and harmony of the argument on chronology. They saw no ground to change their views upon the reckoning of the time, but felt more convinced than ever that the 2300 days were correctly applied, and that they terminated at the time appointed in 1844. Thus they became satisfied that the error lay in their previous views of the subject of the sanctuary and its cleansing, and that they had made a mistake in supposing that the earth would be burned at the end of the 2300 days, because the prophecy said that then the “sanctuary” should “be cleansed.”

This brings us to note the difference between Seventh-day Adventists and those called First-day Adventists, as respects chronology. The latter, believing that the prophetic periods were given to make known the time of Christ's coming, and that they have not yet ended, are held to one of two conclusions: either that all that is said in the Bible about these periods is so much of revelation unrevealed, or else that the time of Christ’s coming is to be known. The first conclusion, as consistent believers in the Bible, they can not adopt, and hence their continual efforts to readjust the prophetic periods, and fix upon some new time for Christ to come. From this has arisen, in these later years, all the fantastic time-setting which has very naturally disgusted the world, and worse than this, has brought a stigma of reproach upon all prophetical study. On the other hand, Seventh-day Adventists set no time. While they believe that the prophetic periods are to be understood, they believe also that these periods have been correctly interpreted, and have all terminated; so that now there is no data from which to reason respecting a definite time for their Lord to come.

Seventh-day Adventist preachers demand the best in tents. We know that to be a fact. CARNIE-GOUDIE Tents are used by more S. D. A. conferences than any other make. The reason they are so widely used is because they answer every tent question satisfactorily.

Note these points where Carnie-Goudie tents excel

- Canvas — Mount Vernon Army and our own rain-test ducks — the best made.
- Rope — Pure unoiled Manila Hemp — made to our order.
- Thread — Special quality of almost double ordinary strength.
- Workmanship — Sailors and Seamers with the "know how" of long experience.
- Pitch — Cut extra high — to stand wind and rain.

Now if you are going to buy tents for meetings this summer, you want the best value you can procure — you want a tent that will stand the practical tests of wind and rain. The CARNIE-GOUDIE S. D. A. Tents are such tents.
