

1. Study number: NL – information still missing!

2. Study title:

A comparative study on Danish, Norwegian and Dutch war children (Dutch part)

3. Dates of data collection

4. Principal investigator(s)

Stein Ugelvik Larsen, Department of Comparative Politics, Norway,

Elna Johnsen, WCIP, Norway,

Ingvill C. Mochmann, GESIS-ZA, Cologne, Germany,

Arne Øland, DKBF, Denmark

Monika Diedrichs, Nederlands Instituut voor Oorlogsdocumentatie (NIOD),
Amsterdam, The Netherlands

5. Data collector(s)

6. Content

The aim of the survey was to analyse the life chances and developments of Dutch children fathered by German soldiers and Dutch women during the occupation of the Netherlands 1940-1945. The survey includes 250 questions and covers topics such as social structure, health, places of living, childhood and adolescence, identity, questions about biological mother and father, own family, social integration.

7. Population and sampling procedure

8. Method

Survey was carried out by means of written questionnaire including both standardised and open-ended questions which were completed by the respondents themselves

9. Dimension of data set

10. Publications

11. Other acknowledgements

related to survey carried out in Norway and Denmark by the same principal investigators.

12. Degree of accessibility

13. Links

<http://www.childrenbornofwar.org>

14. Information provided by: