▼ Antiques
1	Bible	Wonderful, well-worn, aged, fragile, leather-bound survivor: "The New Illuminated Holy Bible - Self-Pronouncing - with Marginal References, Concordance, Maps and Numerous Helps" ©1898 American Bible House . Needs a good home.	No
2	Book	An exceptionally rare antique with both historical and religious significance: "Woman in Sacred History - a Series of Sketches Drawn from Scriptural, Historical, and Legendary Sources" by Harriet Beecher Stowe. This first British edition, published in London in 1874, contains 176 gilt-edged pages of text with 15 beautiful chromo-lithographs all firmly bound between embossed blue cloth-covered boards with gilt devices. Reasonable shelf wear and moderate foxing as expected in a volume of this vintage. One of this auction's true treasured rarities deserving of a place of honor in any home, church, or literary collection.	Yes
3	Book	"Anti-Slavery Days" by James Freeman Clarke © 1884 R. Worthington . Really nice ex-library copy of second edition (first in 1883) of this very important historical perspective on the American abolitionist movement. A must for the American history buff. Navy blue cloth boards with gold lettering. Chipping at toe and heel of spine as expected, otherwise very clean and tight.	No
4	Book	"Letters to Elder Daughters, Married and Unmarried" by Helen Ekin Starrett ©1888 A. C. McClurg and Co. Fascinating glimpse into Victorian family life and philosophy from a woman's point of view. Modern reprints are readily available, but originals like this are very scarce and pricey. Blue cloth covered boards are nearly detached but binding is still sound.	No

5	Book	"Life of Colonel David Crockett, the original humorist and irrepressible backwoodsman" © 1865 by Porter & Coates . Autobiography (originally published in 1834) with chapter added including Crockett's service and death at the Alamo. Bright green & black embossed cloth-covered boards with gold highlights. Chipping at spine extremities, otherwise firm, straight binding, clean interior, with no marks, foxing, tears, or other faults. A remarkably well preserved and scarce volume. Best example we know of. None offered on ebay, few at abebooks.com and none this nice. Definitely one of this auction's highlights. Auction estimate $75-$125. Low reserve.	Yes
6	Book	"Uncle Wiggily's Travels" by Howard R. Garis ©1913 by A. L. Burt Co. Very early edition in remarkably good shape.	No
7	Bottle	Very nice turn-of-century beer bottle from Welz & Zerweck High Ground Brewery of Brooklyn, NY. Established in 1857, the brewery closed its doors in 1920 in response to prohibition. Clean, aqua color, crisply embossed, tooled lip, bubbles. Really a nice example from a by-gone era.	No
8	Crib	Very old wooden baby crib. Marvelous patina. "New" plywood floor. NOT RECOMMENDED FOR USE BY INFANT. DECORATIVE ONLY.	No
9	Dress Form	Perfect Fit "Adjust-O-Matic" dress form. 1940's vintage? On cast iron base. Has taken a few knocks over the decades but still stands complete and proud.	No
10	Indian Clubs	Nine (9) assorted Indian clubs. Quite old and worn. Unusual decorator pieces.	No
11	Luncheon Set	Lovely lime green depression glass luncheon set in "Hostess" pattern (ca. 1930) by the Federal Glass Company of Columbus Ohio. Includes 11 8" plates, 9 teacups, 10 saucers, and 1 creamer.	No
12	Magazine Art - NY	Lot of three (3) original pages from Harper's Weekly & Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper featuring engravings - some hand-colored - of New York related events: Tenement fire, 1888; Horticulture, 1883; Clamming off Staten Island, 1869 (corner damage).	No
13	Magazine Art - LI	Lot of four (4) original pages from Harper's Weekly & Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper featuring engravings - some hand-colored - of Long Island related events: Storm off the Sound, 1885; Fishing for Moss-bunkers off Long Island, 1882; Long Island Sound excursion, 1878; The Rockaway Hunt Club, 1885. Antiques, art, & local history in one package.	No
14	Magazine Photography	Lot of three (3) original pages from Harper's Weekly (?) featuring early 20th century photographs of Long Island related people and events: Teddy Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland at the 1903 St. Louis Worlds Fair; National Bobsled Carnival, Huntington, LI, 1908; International Automobile Race of 1904 in Westbury. Antiques, art, & local history in one package.	No

15	Piano Stool	Victorian era wooden (walnut?) piano stool with cast iron screw height adjustment, ornately turned legs, heavily patinated brass bird's-claw-on-glass-ball feet. Mechanism by The Charles Parker Co. of Meriden, CT. This survivor sustained some damage, but has been functionally repaired many years ago. We believe a more substantial yet aesthetic repair could be done easily to preserve its working life while leaving the existing 100 year old patina undisturbed. Who will adopt this lonesome waif?	No
16	Printer's Type Drawer	Typesetter's type drawer. Very popular item with myriad uses. Be creative...	No
17	Scale	Vintage Hanson kitchen scale. "University Model No. 1475" from the 1950's. Loads of decorator patina and still works!	No
18	Sewing Machine	Vintage Singer electric sewing machine in cabinet. Machine appears sound - cabinet in rough shape. Age uncertain, working condition unknown. Decorator item? Parts machine? Up to you.	No
19	Spoons	A rare complete set of all 12 of the 1939 NY World's Fair commemorative spoons issued in high quality silver plate on nickel-silver base by Wm. Rogers Co. - each in pristine condition and with it's original tissue wrapper COA. The handles show the Trylon and Perisphere while each bowl features a different exhibit or building. Included are Administration, Aviation, Textile, Georgian Section in Court of the United States, Consumer Interests, United States Government, Marine Transportation, New York City, Hall of Medicine and Public Health, New York State Amphitheatre, Railroad Transportation, & Food Exhibition. Identical set sold recently on line for $240.00. Bonus: 12 more 1939 NY World's Fair spoons without the bowl engravings. Immaculate condition except for one missing COA tissue wrapper. That's 12 spoons to cherish and 12 to use -- a singularly scarce opportunity. Very low reserve!	Yes
