Geriatric Care Manager (Master’s Level)

Lenox Hill Neighborhood House, widely recognized as one of New York’s premier human services providers, is a 128-year-old settlement house that provides an extensive array of effective and integrated services—social, educational, legal, health, housing, mental health, nutritional and fitness—which significantly improve the lives of 16,000 people in need each year, ages 3 to 103, on the East Side of Manhattan. Our clients include older adults, homeless and formerly homeless adults, children and families, recent immigrants, disabled persons, adult learners and more. Our Geriatric Care Management Program provides comprehensive care management services to thousands of frail and homebound older adults on Manhattan’s East Side. The Geriatric Care Manager will help us to serve the ever-growing population of homebound older adults on the East Side and will join our supportive working environment that links case managers, social workers, lawyers and other providers together in our efforts to support the frailest members of our community.

Responsibilities:

- Complete strengths-based in-home assessments with homebound and frail older adults to facilitate their aging safely in place
- Collaborate with family members and caregivers to assess needs for appropriate interventions and necessary assistance
- Provide interventions and assistance such as applying for government benefits and other financial programs to increase economic security, advocating for the clients’ medical, mental health, housing-related and other needs, assisting with budgeting, providing supportive counseling as needed and coordinating in-house and community resource referrals
- Create and follow up with comprehensive care plans with the goal of improved outcomes and quality of life
- Timely maintain and input accurate case records into our electronic case management database
- Work collaboratively with Neighborhood House staff from a variety of departments and disciplines as well as our community-based and government partners
- Complete all other responsibilities and duties as assigned

Qualifications:
The successful applicant must possess excellent interpersonal skills and strong computer skills, as well as experience in the field of human services, particularly related to older adults. The person should be committed to working with older adults to improve their quality of life. The person must have great communication and listening skills, be a team player and possess the ability to interact with a variety of stakeholders. Master’s in social work or related field required; applicable licensure a plus. Fluency in Spanish is ideal. This is a 1199SEIU union position with competitive salary and a comprehensive benefits package.

To Apply:
Applicants should send a cover letter, resume and references list to socialworker@lenoxhill.org. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the position is filled. No telephone calls please.
