Ever wonder how The Gathering got started? In 1982, a priest, a lawyer and an accountant were walking down the street when they encountered someone looking for a hot meal. After the encounter, the three individuals were inspired to open a soup and sandwich kitchen which has since grown into what it is today. A thriving operation with 4 meal sites across the city of Milwaukee.

“The first Executive Director of The Gathering did not seem to be such a daunting task. Being a woman wasn’t such a concern either even in the 1980’s. Even though I didn’t have any staff, a $25,000 grant from the Milwaukee Foundation to pay for everything including my salary, the first year, and closet office at the Episcopal Diocese of Milwaukee with no equipment other than a desk, it seemed like my dream job...No book could teach me what I learned [at The Gathering]. For it was listening and living in community with hundreds of volunteers and guests that taught me that we weren’t any Angels, only human beings who had the luck to find out what true humanity was. Is there anything in life better than that?"

- Michelle Mooney, First Executive Director

“Hunger in America is so huge and complicated that any one person can quickly despair. The Gathering breaks down both the problem and the solution into bite sized pieces (pun intended): one meal at a time, one person at a time, one day at a time. When you work with The Gathering you know you are making a difference...I treasured my years leading this organization because I see The Gathering’s work as one way the kingdom of God breaks through the mess we humans have made. Every meal, every interaction, every shared despair, every sign of hope testifies to the goodness we can be...”

-Ginny Schrag, Second Executive Director

“My tenure at The Gathering has not been dull; to say the least! From the need to relocate our downtown facility within 3 months of my arrival, to the pandemic, to the move of our Southside location in the midst of the pandemic, to our new partnerships and longtime friends of The Gathering, and to our planning to reopening with a hybrid of our dine-in, grab and go meal service, life has been less than dull! We adopted the phrase, "roll with the punches" as we have needed make modifications on a moment’s notice, all while keeping our eyes on the prize – our mission – to provide food and associated services to those who would otherwise go without. I often tell folks that my job is a selfish job, because at the end of every day I feel blessed and appreciated – by our meal guests and my colleagues.”

- Lyn Hildenbrand, Current Executive Director.
April is Volunteer Appreciation Month and this one goes out to the courageous, selfless volunteers continuing to see us through this pandemic. To the Breakfast volunteers, the people who get out of bed before the sun rises, Monday–Friday. For the Dinner volunteers, the individuals who are so loyal they know almost every guest’s name by heart. For the Saturday Lunch volunteers, who run all operations, from coordinating to cooking and serving, across four locations. Thank you.

Thank you, Volunteers!

Covid-19 and Re-Opening Plans
We’re two years into the COVID-19 pandemic and, at our meal sites, we’ve been maintaining our Emergency COVID-19 Response first implemented in March 2020. Our protocols are reviewed on a monthly basis and adjusted, if needed. As of April 2022, in effort to keep Gathering staff, volunteers and meal guests healthy, The Gathering is still requiring masks to be worn on-site, regardless of vaccination status. Beginning this fall we will implement a hybrid style of serving our guests with both dine in and carry out meals. Please make sure to subscribe to our e-newsletter, via our website, to receive further updates on our reopening plans. All updates will be posted to www.thegatheringwis.org.
