OVERVIEW

HBBA is a Homewood-Brushton community based nonprofit business association that was conceptualized in May of 2014 by a small group of business owners to address the needs and concerns of Homewood-Brushton business owners. It is expected that each year the HBBA will continue to grow in membership consisting of businesses of all types of industries that are housed within the Homewood-Brushton community. HBBA will become the voice and advocate for Homewood-Brushton Business Owners. The association will provide to its membership - education, training, business development mentor programs and networking activities.

The HBBA enables the next generation of Businesses to compete successfully in Pittsburgh's resurgent regional economy by connecting members to innovating and regional business development resources. Business owners benefit from HBBA access to technical assistance, capital, grant programs, legal support services, trade secrets and more.

The HBBA is organizing to take advantage of specific gaps in the different business industries. The gaps that exist in the shortage of qualified Minority male and female owned companies needed to fulfill government funded and private projects with MW/BE (Minority And Women Business Enterprises) and DBE (Disadvantaged Business Enterprises) goals within and outside Homewood-Brushton.

Membership Value:

Advocacy

As an advocate for Homewood-Brushton Businesses, the HBBA actively monitors legal issues at the Federal, State and Local levels. The HBBA acts as the eyes and ears of its members, and regularly reports to its membership on key issues affecting Business operations i.e. taxes, licensing, certifications, etc, in a range of different industries.

Education, Training and Mentorship

One of the HBBA's primary objectives is identify and provide education and training that will help businesses identify needs, define and develop products and services, map out keys to competitive success, build business relationships, stay on task by creating and implementing business plans, and provide support and mentoring for ongoing operations and growth. Experienced, mature business owners and entrepreneurs will mentor start-ups, passing on skills, sustainability strategies, and the profit-making mentality. The education and training programs will be designed to enhance the competitive viability of Homewood-Brushton businesses.

Business Briefings to Business Opportunities, Notifications & Referrals - Corporate Partners Program

The HBBA feels that contracting opportunities for Homewood-Brushton Businesses will increase through a cooperative working relationship with City of Pittsburgh major corporations and organizations committed to the growth and expansion of Homewood-Brushton businesses. Such relations will be developed to exist within the HBBA's Corporate Partners Program (CPP). The CPP will be an integral part of the services provided to our membership and our interrelated activities assist the CPP representatives in the design of ideas, establishment of workshops and seminars, and the formulation of operable compliance programs.
