FUN & EASY SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES

Try these activities with your 3-year-old—a great way to have fun together and support your child’s social-emotional development.

Tell your child a simple story about something she did that was funny or interesting. See if your child can tell a different story about herself.

Draw simple pictures of faces that show happy, sad, excited, or silly expressions. Cut them out and glue them on a Popsicle stick or pencil. Let your child act out the different feelings with the puppets.

Give your child directions that have at least two steps when you and he are cooking, dressing, or cleaning. Say, “Put that pan in the sink, and then pick up the red spoon.”

At dinner time, let family members talk about their day. Help your child tell about her day. Say, “Latoya and I went to the park today. Latoya, tell your sister what you did at the park.”

Tell your child a favorite story, such as the Three Little Pigs or Goldilocks and the Three Bears. See if your child can tell you how the animals felt in the story.

Tell silly jokes with your child. Simple “What am I?” riddles are also fun. Have a good time and laugh with your child.

Play games that involve following simple rules, such as Mother May I and Red Light, Green Light.

Create a pretend argument between stuffed animals or dolls. Talk with your child about what happened, feelings, and how best to work out problems when they come up.
