Creating a Fidelity Scale for Gestalt Therapy: Editor’s Erratum

Madeleine Fogarty, Sunil Bhar, Stephen Theiler and Leanne O’Shea.

This article was published in the Gestalt Journal of Australia and New Zealand, 2015, Vol 11 No 2, pp. 39 -54, attributed to a sole author, Madeleine Fogarty; omitting acknowledgement of the co-authors: Sunil Bhar, Stephen Theiler and Leanne O’Shea, who are supervisors for the project. The editor apologises for the oversight.

Biographies follow:

Madeleine Fogarty, MA, Dip Ed, Adv Dip Gestalt Therapy, Grad Dip Psych (Hons), lives (with her large and beautiful family) in Melbourne, Australia where she has been working as a psychotherapist and supervisor in private practice for the last 17 years. Madeleine is currently undertaking her PhD in Psychology at Swinburne University of Technology on the development of a fidelity scale for Gestalt. Madeleine is a clinical member of GANZ, PACFA and a scientific board member for research at the EAGT. Address for correspondence: mfogarty@swin.edu.au or madeleine@madeleinefogarty.com.

Sunil Bhar, PhD, is an Associate Professor at Swinburne University of Technology, and a supervisor of this project. Sunil is Chair of the Department of Psychological Sciences, and convenes the Clinical Psychology Programs at the university. Sunil has maintained a clinical practice for the last 20 years, and has integrated his clinical experience into his teaching and research. Email: SBHAR@swin.edu.au.

Stephen Theiler, PhD, is an Associate Professor in the Department of Psychological Sciences, Swinburne University of Technology and a supervisor of this project. Stephen is Deputy Director of Swinburne Psychology Clinic and a member of the Australian Psychological Society and is a counselling and clinical psychologist. Email: stheiler@swin.edu.au.

Leanne O’Shea, M.Sc, DPsych is a Faculty member of Gestalt Therapy...
Australia, and a supervisor of this project. She maintains a private practice in Melbourne and teaches Gestalt therapy both locally and internationally. Email: leanne.oshea@gmail.com.