RE: Becca Colehower Recommendation

Political campaigns are stressful, difficult and challenging; yet at the same time, energizing and invigorating. What makes the difference in these campaigns, is the quality of talent we recruit to help us tell the story of how we are different, and how we are the right candidate for the job.

I recently won my election to Greenville City Council. Thanks, Becca.

Becca was a significant part in helping us win this election. Becca was charged with the challenge of positioning me in a positive light. She was highly involved in the social media efforts to get the message out. She was instrumental in creating our graphic presence to encourage voters, especially younger ones, to get out and vote, and to vote for me.

Becca was a pleasure work with, and will be a benefit to any future employer.

Don't miss the opportunity to put her on your team,
