ABOUT ME

Hey there, I'm Brittany! I looove pizza and tacos, all the true crime podcasts, and I'm obsessed with my husband and I's house of animals (two rambunctious dogs and two sweet kitties).

I can't remember a time when I wasn't in love with design, whether it be color, letters, layout, anything! I was doodling on things constantly as a child, and I always had to hand-make greeting cards for family and friends. That love for colors, typography and design has stuck with me, all the way from childhood through college and into adulthood, and now I own my dream business where I get to create beautiful things for wonderful people who love art.
