

A Spirituality and Awakening meeting hosted by St Bride's Liverpool

Ray Simpson

Spirituality in the city

Ray Simpson is the Founding Guardian of the international Community of Aidan and Hilda and its principal tutor and liturgist. He has been an urban parish priest and is author of over thirty books on spirituality. Ray lives on the island of Lindisfarne where the Community facilitates a new emergence of Christian Celtic spirituality, one which is able to renew and refresh established churches or help give rise to fresh expressions of church community. He has a particular interest in urban spirituality and will explore this in this meeting.
