

St Bride's

Creative / Progressive / Inclusive

Ray Simpson, Founding Guardian of the international Community of Aidan and Hilda, from the holy island of Lindisfarne, will be joining us at St Bride's from Sunday 17th to Wednesday 20th April 2016.

During that time we will be meeting to pray with him and explore ideas about spirituality and community together.

Ray Simpson is Founding Guardian of the international Community of Aidan and Hilda www.aidanandhilda.org, its principal liturgist and tutor of its Celtic Christian Studies programmes. He has ministered in urban, multi-racial and new missional areas. He has authored over thirty books on Celtic and general spirituality, including The Cowshed Revolution, which applies new monastic and fresh expressions of church to the world situation, and Houses of Prayer, which highlights examples of houses of prayer in the Bible, the early Church and contemporary life.

He lives near the Community's retreat house and library on the Holy Island of Lindisfarne, which is known as the cradle of Christianity to English-speaking people.

All are welcome to any or all of the services, prayers, meals and walk. If you would like further information then please contact:
