

Directions to St Michael in the City

Our Address is:

St Michael in the City, Upper Pitt Street, Liverpool L1 5DB. But your satnav will probably send you the wrong way, THERE IS NO ACCESS BY CAR FROM DUKE STREET, only from St James Street. Note it is a 1960's building so doesn't look like a 'traditional' church.

Directions by Car/Taxi:

Travelling from the junction* of Great George Street & Parliament St (south side of Anglican Cathedral) turn down St James Street (Wedding Shop on the corner) toward the City Centre/John Lewis Carpark, pass St Vincent's Church then the Chung Wah Supermarket on your right. Take second right after the Chung Wah into Cornwallis Street, continue ahead then turn left into Upper Pitt Street and you will see the car park and the Church behind black and gold railings on your right.

Travelling from the Dock Road, turn away from the river at traffic lights by Police Headquarters towards John Lewis Carpark (Liver St): at next lights turn right up Park Lane to the mini roundabout, take first exit which is St. James Street, then first left into Cornwallis Street, then as above.

On foot from Bold Street/Duke Street/Berry Street/Chinatown:

From the top of Bold Street, turn left onto Colquitt Street (Soul cafe on corner) continue to Duke Street, cross that road then walk through the new "East Village" and out of the back of the Community College. Turn right then left around the Grenville St. student accommodation. Walk along Kent Street, past blue hoarding then turn left into Upper Pitt Street, St Michael's immediately on your left.

From Berry Street, go through the Chinese Arch along Nelson Street, continue along the side of the square, past the Health centre, next street is Upper Pitt Street, turn right continue walking (2 mins) past bollards and you will see St Michael's church on your right.

By public transport:

Nearest station is Liverpool Central at the bottom of Bold Street (8 – 10 mins walk). Bus 27 goes along St James St. Buses 82 or 86 stop on Berry St. (5 mins walk), or the Paradise Street Bus Station is beside the John Lewis Carpark.
