

LEADERS NEED TO COLLABORATE TOO. - HOW TO CONDUCT YOUR TEAM TO ACHIEVE YOUR VISION!

Leadership can be complicated especially when your managers need to bring a team together to realize challenging and time sensitive goals. Do your leaders know how to walk the delicate balance between confidence and humility? Do they know how to mentor with trust and constructive criticism? Do they know how to build confidence and motivate?

Paul's has developed an amazing presentation that allows your people to experience and examine leadership in action. Imagine having to take a group of people who have been given tools that they have never worked with before and getting them to realize an goal that they think is impossible. Paul does just this with your group using a solid vision of the outcomes combined with the perfect mix of patience, encouragement, confidence building, constructive criticism, motivation and trust.

Typically reviewed as "highlight of the conference" - Leaders need to collaborate too! gives leaders tips, tools and techniques on how work with teams to get the best out of them.

Paul Houle is a rare and fascinating mix of a classical and world music musician and corporate speaker. Over the last 35 years, he has performed on stages all over the world in a wide variety of musical settings and has done work for radio, television and Hollywood films. On faculty at the Royal Conservatory of Music for 20 years, he was executive director and founder of the RCM World Music Centre and artistic director and conductor of the RCM Percussion Ensembles program.

Realizing his experience with musical teams could help people work better together, he began offering programs to corporations using the power of interactive music making infused with his key insights in 1989.

A talented musician and facilitator, Paul's charismatic and relaxed presentation style puts every audience member at ease while they absorb the powerful and relevant insights he has to share. Through stories, patience, humour and a keen sense of seizing the moment, he takes audiences from "There's no way we can do that!" to "Wow! I can't believe how great we are!", proving to them that they can do the impossible if they really know how to collaborate better.

He has worked for many of the world's best brands including: Royal Bank of Canada, Goodyear, Heineken, FedEx, Telus, PwC, many federal and provincial ministries, municipal governments, associations, universities and colleges.
