

Collaborating Through Diversity - HOW TO LEVERAGE THE DIVERSITY IN YOUR ORGANIZATION!

It's 2016! Your company is made up of people from different generations, different nationalities, different backgrounds, and they may have different values, interests and expertise. You may even deliver your service(s) to your customers differently. Have you ever considered how you could leverage that diversity? Have you ever considered how the uniqueness in your organization gives your company an edge? Yes, there's lots to learn but the results are amazing.

Paul Houle offers an interactive presentation where diversity rules. He gives companies insight into how their internal differences are an advantage and how those differences allow them to create a myriad of unique outcomes that will give them the edge in today's world.

Often referred to as "an interactive MBTI" – Paul's Collaborating Through Diversity program shows people how important diversity is in the realization of a vibrant and creative organization.

You captured the interest of every person in the room. Who needs coffee in the morning when Paul is around!

— Ontario Real Estate Association

Consistently voted as "highlight of event" – Paul's action packed keynote is an incredible experience for any audience who want to have greater appreciation for the diversity in their organization.

What you will learn:

Attendees will:

- discover how to create a more supportive work environment
- develop a better appreciation for their co-workers
- develop a better understanding of their individual differences
- learn more about how differing personalities interact

This is a high-energy presentation that is extremely interactive and that will have your audience "in the zone" while they are laughing and learning.

"Paul's presentation demonstrate so many truisms that we can all bring to our work and personal lives: that steady and progressive skills development can produce results; that a disparate group of people with diverse backgrounds can come together; and that music is joyful and uplifting!"

Need a concurrent session? Not only is Paul a dynamic keynote speaker, but his concurrent sessions are ones the attendees will be talking about long after the conference is over. Ask about complimentary topics in 60 minutes to half-day format.

Paul Houle is a rare and fascinating mix of a classical and world music musician and corporate speaker. Over the last 35 years, he has performed on stages all over the world in a wide variety of musical settings and has done work for radio, television and Hollywood films. On faculty at the Royal Conservatory of Music for 20 years, he was executive director and founder of the RCM World Music Centre and artistic director and conductor of the RCM Percussion Ensembles program.

Realizing his experience with musical teams could help people work better together, he began offering programs to corporations using the power of interactive music making infused with his key insights in 1989.

A talented musician and facilitator, Paul's charismatic and relaxed presentation style puts every audience member at ease while they absorb the powerful and relevant insights he has to share. Through stories, patience, humour and a keen sense of seizing the moment, he takes audiences from "There's no way we can do that!" to "Wow! I can't believe how great we are!", proving to them that they can do the impossible if they really know how to collaborate better.

He has worked for many of the world's best brands including: Royal Bank of Canada, Goodyear, Heineken, FedEx, Telus, PwC, many federal and provincial ministries, municipal governments, associations, universities and colleges.
