LIC Community Field-Trips + In-Home Workshops / Free pick-up and drop-off

MOSHI® Winter Recess Camp Philosophy & Art

Philo-artistic workshops 5-9 years old / February 19-23 / 9am-3pm / $75 per day, $350 per week

www.moshi-philo.org / 617-803-4463 / 5-43 48th avenue, Long Island City

---

What is MOSHI?

MOSHI is a witty moustache that teaches children how to philosophize and express their ideas in artistic ways. The objectives of MOSHI is to develop critical and creative thinking. Indeed thinking critically is a tool to develop a child’s creativity!

MOSHI is a nonprofit organization with indoor and outdoor operations in Paris, Boston and NYC: museums, schools, libraries, public gardens, festivals, parks. Since its launch more than 4,500 children have enjoyed philosophizing and creating arts. MOSHI’s innovative methodology is proudly endorsed by UNESCO.

---

Daily Schedule

8:30-9am: pick-up in Long Island City

9-11:30am: in-home MOSHI philo-artistic workshops related to the field-trip comic-book drawing, mask-making, stop-motion animation films, painting, sculpture, dance, theater

11:30-12pm: lunch (provided by parents)

12-2:30pm: local field trips to cultural places with artistic activities and philosophical games Museum of Moving Image, MOMA PS1, Noguchi Museum, Socrates Sculpture Park, Williamsburg Street-Art

2:30-3pm: drop-off in Long Island City

3-6pm: after-care service (extra fees)

---

Bio

Caroline Murgue, a French anthropologist with a solid experience with children in Europe, Asia, America created MOSHI in 2015. MOSHI has conducted hundreds of workshops and partnered with various public institutions including Boston Public Library and Lycée Français de New York.