New season starts October 6th!

It’s the beginning of a new season and all of us at Portland Chamber Music are super excited to share our fall program with you. We have some fun and interesting music planned, including popular composers such as Beethoven and Mozart.

We are also rehearsing some new pieces written by an eclectic group of composers. You can look forward to hearing the vocal music of American composers John Work and Samuel Barber, as well as the piano trios of Armenian composer, Arno Babajanian, and Mel Bonis, the prolific female French composer.

PCM’s continued outreach to communities in need.

As you know, Portland Chamber Music exists to serve communities in need. With that in mind, we are pleased to announce our upcoming performance at the Larch Correction Center in Washington. The Center is a minimum-security facility that houses roughly 500 inmates, most of whom have never been exposed to classical music. We are hopeful that our music will lift their spirits.

Support Our Mission!

Did you know that for as little as $10 a month, you can become a PCM sustaining donor? This season we will be holding a raffle for our sustaining donors. Some of the raffle prizes include a two-night stay in a B & B in Astoria, dinner for two at a Portland restaurant, and a set of violin or voice lessons. Winners will be announced at the end of the year.

Looking for other ways to support us? Please consider placing an ad in our fall program, or make a one time donation of any amount that works for you. Because of your support we are able to continue our mission to bring quality classical music to neighborhoods throughout the Portland Metro area.

Thank you, and we look forward to seeing you soon!
