

GCN Treasurer

Responsibilities for the elected official will entail;

- Managing the GCN's finances and assets in accordance with the Constitution.
- Managing the day-to-day details of the GCN's financial accounts.
- Maintaining the GCN's bank accounts and records of its assets and liabilities and for ensuring these are available for inspection at the order of the GCN Council or other Official Statutory and Regulatory bodies which have a legal right to access.
- The production of Annual and other Accounts and Returns of a financial nature as required by the Council or other Official Statutory and Regulatory bodies.
- Reporting to and advising the GCN Council on financial and other statutory and legal matters as necessary.
- The Treasurer shall act as President on all occasions where the President and Vice-President are not present.

A qualified accountant is preferred especially if they have experience with business and legal matters however all applications will be given consideration.