2011 Results

Tuesday, Sept. 7

Plainfield Central 3, Rolling Meadows 0: Tyler Gill had two goals and Josh Rosenbaum had one for the Wildcats (6-0). Edgar Chavez starred on defense in front of goalie Tyler Badertscher. Steven Kay was the lone star for Rolling Meadows (2-5-1) with a solid performance in the back.

Morton 2, Lake Zurich 1; PK: Pepsi Showdown: Overtime pays for Morton in shootout victory against Lake Zurich

Geneva 1, Fenwick 0: Brady Wahl's goal in the 73rd minute off a Seamus Kaminski assist was enough for the Vikings. Pat Niedbala had the shutout.

Lincoln-Way East 3, Lane 2, 2OT: Andy Young, Zoran Arsenovic and Jon Lavin had goals for the Griffins, while Anthony Cetera assisted on two of the goals.

Wheaton South 3, Maine South 2: Danny Burns (two) and George Doran scored for the Tigers, who scored in the first minute of overtime on a Alec Brazeau throw-in to Doran.

Downers North 4, Young 2: The Trojans (6-0-1) led the entire way. Paul Hogan (eight goals) scored two goals and assisted on one of Azmi Sharif's (five goals) two goals. Cornell McCullom and Matt Snidal scored for the Dolphins.

Lyons 4, Oswego 0: Horacio Sanchez and Kyle Kurfirst had a goal and two assists, while Elliot Borge and David Ellis also scored for the Lions. Luis Gallardo and Fernando Chaves had solid performances for Oswego (0-3-1).

Loyola 3, West Chicago 2: Obinna Onyeaghaly had two goals for the Ramblers (1-3-3), while Cris Pastouvic added the other.

Larkin 1, Wheaton Academy 0, PK: Larkin goalie Santiago Guerrero had six saves to help his team win in the shootout 4-3.

Metea Valley 3, Providence 0: Jojo Schmidt, Zack Baval and Ryan Solomon found the back of the net. Chris Freeman had one assist, while Derek Carothers made three saves for the shutout. The Celtics fell to 2-6.

Marist 6, Mount Carmel 2: Leo Dignan and Pat Hehir had two goals apiece for the RedHawks (3-2-1). Mike Collevy and Dillon Olson had a goal and one assist, while Frank Brown had seven saves in goal for Marist. Gonzalo Martinez had one goal for Mount Carmel.

Bartlett 4, New Trier 2: Erick Kennebeck, Fabio Aiello, Joey Morgan and Tommy Russo had goals for Bartlett (3-0), while Russo and Marino Zaccaro handed out assists. Alex Busch had eight saves in goal, including a momentum-changing save on a second-half breakaway. Andrew Cahill and Phillippe Boury tallied for the host Trevians.

Oak Park 2, Glenbrook South 1 PK: Luke Harrison had the lone goal for the Titans, while Marcus Machado scored for the Huskies.

Libertyville 2, Streamwood 1

St. Viator 2, Kelly 0: Bill Krawzak and Jack Horvath scored for the Lions on assists from Nick Abel. St. Viator goalie Scott Faul left the match five minutes into the game after injuring his shoulder.

Thursday, Sept. 9

Jesuit (Calif) 2, Neuqua Valley 1

Plainfield Central 1, Morton 0: Josh Rosenbaum's goal on a penalty kick powered the Wildcats (6-0) to the upset of No. 1 seed Morton (5-1-1). Plainfield Central is now 2-0 in pool play.

Lake Zurich 1, Rolling Meadows 0: Colin Rathe's second goal in as many tournament games helped the Bears (4-2) capture the home win. The senior's goal came on a penalty kick to help Lake Zurich improve to 1-1 in pool play. Carter Gibson, Declan Delaney and Josh Galvin were the three stars for Rolling Meadows (2-6-1), which dropped to 0-2 in the Pepsi Showdown.

Fenwick 1, Lane 0: Soccer | Alberts' goal lifts Fenwick over Lane

Geneva 2, Lincoln-Way East 1: For the second consecutive game, the Vikings (3-3-1) scored the game winner in the 70th minute. This time, Andrew Walton's goal off a Brady Wahl assist was the difference. Wahl also scored, while Craig

Hancock had one assist. Geneva is now 2-0 in pool play. Anthony Cetera had the Griffins' lone goal in the 74th minute, as they fell to 1-1 in pool play.

Downers North 3, Wheaton South 2 PK: The Trojans (7-0-1) rallied from a two-goal first-half road deficit thanks to two goals from Jake Mousel, who now has three goals this season. Paul Hogan, AJ Jeffries, Reid Melton and Stu Melton scored in the shootout for Downers North, which is now 2-0 in pool play. Goalie Matt Paprocki made two saves in the shootout to seal the come-from-behind win.

Maine South 1, Young 0: An own-goal cost the Dolphins and dropped them to 2-6 this season and 0-2 in tourney action. Ben Hannon was credited with the goal for Maine South. Matt Graca posted the shutout for the Hawks (2-4-2), who are now 1-1 in pool play.

West Chicago 1, Oswego 0 PK: West Chicago won on its seventh shooter in the shootout to improve to 1-1 in tournament play. Oswego fell to 0-4-1 overall and 0-2 in Pepsi Showdown action despite strong performances from goalie Luis Gallardo and midfielder Nate Kyes.

Lyons 3, Loyola 2: Horacio Sanchez had two goals and now has three in two tournament games, helping the Lions improve to 5-0-2 overall and 2-0 in pool play. Brett Heimerdinger scored the other goal, while Kyle Kurfirst, David Ellis and Peter Gabrek had assists. Charles West and Cris Pastovic scored for Loyola (1-4-3), which led at the half. Cody Busic starred in the back for the Ramblers, who are now 1-1 in pool play.

Larkin 4, Metea Valley 3 2OT: Erik Rodriguez (two), Tony Hernandez and Josue Medina tallied for Larkin (5-1-1), while Santiago Guerrero stopped six shots in goal. Larkin is now 2-0 in the Pepsi Showdown, having won both of its games in extra sessions. Ryan Solomon (two), Chris Freeman (goal) and Zack Bavol (two assists) were the offensive stars for Metea Valley, which is 1-1 in tourney action.

Providence 3, Wheaton Academy 1: The Celtics (3-6) stunned host Wheaton Academy behind goals from Brandon Picciolini, Mike Soucie and Max Picard. Brian Cichon had one assist for Providence, which is 1-1 in pool play.

After falling to Larkin in a shootout on Tuesday, the Warriors are now 0-2 in the Pepsi Showdown.

Bartlett 1, Marist 0: Alex Busch made three big saves early to help Bartlett improve to 4-0 overall and 2-0 in Pepsi Showdown action. Off a Charlie Sordini assist, Tony Paredes tallied the game's lone goal.

Oak Park 2, Streamwood 0: North Carolina-bound Sam Euler posted his third shutout of the year, and Thomas Lamm had both goals to help the Huskies improve to 4-0-2. Corey O'Donnell also played a key role in the win.

Jose Resendiz had nine saves in a losing effort for Streamwood (1-10), which is 0-2 in pool play.

St. Charles North 1, St. Viator 0: The North Stars improved to 2-0 in tournament play thanks to Connor Lefelstein's goal off a Noah Anthony assist. Garrett Creasor had the shutout in goal for St. Charles North (8-0-2). Despite the strong play of Jack Simpson, Dan Loizzi, Troy Wheeler and Matt Morsches, the Lions fell to 3-2-1 and 1-1 in the Pepsi Showdown.
