About Kirin
According to Chinese legend, a Kirin is a mythical creature similar to a Unicorn. They are very gentle and rank second among the 'Four Benevolent Animals' of ancient China, along with the Chinese dragon, the tortoise, and the phoenix. The Kirin likes to help good people, especially those who do good deeds. Thus, it is also called the benevolent creature. The Kirin protects and blesses those who host its statue, and can boost the host's career, solve dangers, fend off demons, and bring prosperity.
