Welcome to St. Andrew's. We believe that God loves everyone regardless of culture, religion, gender identity, orientation, financial status, or physical and intellectual ability. We welcome you here today and invite you to join us for some refreshments and conversation in our Hall following the service.

Welcome to the Shoreline Chorus directed by Ann-Marie MacDairmid. The choir have travelled from the Georgian Bay area to lead the music for today's church service. The Emerald Stream was composed by Seth Houston on his seventeenth birthday while paddling a canoe. He was on a month-long canoe trip with his father in northern Canada. The music that would become Emerald Stream flowed to the rhythm of his paddle. This piece draws inspiration from the 'shape-note' singing tradition that flourished in New England from 1780 to 1820.

Thank you to our ushers this morning; Alan Cleghorn, Janet Cleghorn, Linda Dickson, Ryan Sebert, Robert & Amy Johnston, Liam Johnston, Emma Johnston, Ian McGee, Catharine Smith, David Smith and Doreen Stroud.

Thank you to our Greeters this morning, Stephen and Michael Eadie, Fred, Robert and Thomas Martin, Charlie Longhran and Owen Hintermayer

Thank you to our Beadle this morning, Jan Ashton

Thank you to our coffee servers today.

A huge thank you to everyone who volunteered to prepare and serve coffee this past winter and spring. Your service was appreciated. During the summer months lemonade is served at the garden entrance. This starts next Sunday June 24th. Please let me know if you are available to prepare and serve the lemonade. It is prepared in the kitchenette off the Heather Room. It works best if two people volunteer as it lightens the load. Thank you. Debbie Johnson Home phone : 519-578-9796 Cell phone number: 519-590-8963.

Gas and Grocery cards are available for purchase today in Iona Hall or in front of the Chapel. They are also available in the church office during the week. Thank you for your support of this Women's Association program. Fairtrade products will also be available for purchase in Iona Hall. Purchases of Fairtrade products help to cover the costs of our coffee each Sunday and provide fair prices for the workers and their families.

Noon Hour Concerts continue this Wednesday, June 20 from 12:15-12:45 with musicians Debra Lacoste (trumpet) and Ann-Marie MacDairmid (organ) A light lunch is available in the foyer from 11:30.a.m

Calling all Bridge Players—Marilyn McMillan and Tom Frederick are the new convenors of the Church’s ‘Get-to-Know-somebody-New’ Bridge Club. We are looking for players who know the game but want to play it just for fun -- ‘cause we are certainly not a serious group. We are now planning our next season’s schedule. Please give us a call if you would like to join in on this fellowship activity— 519-880-8814.

Save this date! Please mark your calendars for Monday, October 1, 2018. The WA will be hosting their annual dinner meeting that evening. We are in the process of arranging for a member of the Waterloo Regional Police Service to speak to us about Fraud and Identity Theft. We believe this is a subject that is of interest to everyone. Please reserve the date now, and watch the bulletin in September for an opportunity to sign up.

Envelope number 342. If you are the owner of this givings envelope, please contact the office to let us know who you are.

Taxi Scrips – If there is anyone who uses a taxi service to get to and from church please be advised that a generous member has provided taxi scrips for your use. If you would like to enquire about them please check at the main office.

Summer is Coming. Pack your bags!

Stop by the Book Corner any Sunday in June and make your selection of books for children or adults and enjoy reading all summer long. All items will go out on an “all summer checkout”, due back September 9th. We will even provide you with a book bag to keep your reading organized and for easy access. The Book Corner volunteers hope to see you soon.

Sunday Smile: What a Card!

Father’s Day was near when I brought my three-year-old son, Tyler, to the card store. Inside, I showed him the cards for dads and told him to pick one. When I looked back, Tyler was picking up one card after another, opening them up and quickly shoving them back into slots, every which way. “Tyler, what are you doing?” I asked. “Haven’t you found a nice card for Daddy yet?” “No,” he replied. “I’m looking for one with money in it.”
