

UNIT: Education, Internal Program

PROGRAM: Kindergarten and After school Tuition Program

REPORT'S DATE: March 2013

IN CHARGE OF REPORTING: Gnem Touch

I. MONTHLY REPORT SUMMARY:

A. MAIN HIGHLIGHTS:

- We had the opportunity to coordinate 92 Grade School and Kindergarten kids to attend a movie and exhibition at Bophana Center.
- External volunteer teams provided toys and sweets to 200 children in the morning session from each center. Volunteers also donated 1000 Kg of rice to RKF in Cambodia.
- Cooperated with Social Work Team to register three vulnerable Grade Class children to join RKF Program. Two children attended Grade Classes at KM6 House Center and one child attended the Family House Center class.
- Cooperated with Social Work Team to identify and complete first stage registration for 23 kindergarteners from Psar Touch and Doeum Kvet communities to join the kindergarten program at Family House. We plan to undertake family assessments to recruit 15 of these children to open a new class on 8th April 2013.
- We moved the Grade Classes from the old Central Office to the new Central Office near the Family House Center.

B. MAIN CHALLENGES:

- The Casefiles Unit needs more time to check Application Forms for all applicants registered to join the Kindergarten Program.
- There were 16 children (F =7) who were absent for a whole month for difference reasons. For example: S. S.-F, O. S.-M, C. K. moved house to live in difference places, whilst B. S.-M promised that he will return after Khmer New Year. Finally, our Social Work Team are still processing some of these cases as they are struggling to communicate with families and children involved, for example; C. R.'s cause.

- There were 39 children (F= 21) absent for more than three days and the Social Work Team have struggled to communicate with their families. In detail, there were 15 cases at Blum House, one case at Compassion House, eight cases at Family House, three cases at KM6, and 12 cases at the Central Office Center.

C. NEXT'S MONTH PLAN:

- Open a new kindergarten class with 15 kindergarteners at the Family Center on 8th April 2013.
- Coordinate and send 27 Grade School and 21 Kindergarten children from KM6 to see a movie at Bophana Center.
- Coordinate and reinforce teachers to apply content from state school books effectively and efficiently.
- Organize 100 English and Grade School students for an internal football completion from 29th April 2012 to 13 May 2013.
- Coordinate Teachers to train two full time kindergarten teacher's assistants in pedagogy and positive child discipline.
