we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,

in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 1:15-17, 21-26

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred and twenty people) and said, 'Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus— for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.' So one of the men who have accompanied us throughout the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.' So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, 'Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.' And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

John 17:6-19

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said, "Father, I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth."

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon

The Venerable Ralph Leavitt

The Nicene Creed

Let us confess our faith, as we say,

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory

to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son
he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic
and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Confession and Absolution

Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
he welcomes sinners
and invites them to his table.
Let us confess our sins,
confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us,

that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Announcements

Welcome to the Parish of the Resurrection, St. Andrew and St. Mark.
Please join us for coffee and conversation at the back of the church
after the 10am service.

GOOD NEWS! Excerpt from the Bishop's letter read in church last Sunday May 6th: "I am pleased to announce that I have appointed The Reverend Grace Pritchard Burson as Incumbent of the Parish of the Resurrection, St. Andrew & St. Mark, Dorval, effective August 1, 2018. The Rev. Grace Pritchard Burson was born and raised in New Haven, CT, USA, and holds degrees from Williams College and Yale University. She was ordained in 2008 and has served two Episcopal congregations and one Lutheran parish in New Hampshire. She is passionate about worship, preaching, and Christian formation, about inviting all God's people to live into their vocation as disciples of Jesus, and about participating in the rebirth of God's church for the 21st century and beyond. When she's not wearing a clerical collar, she may be found digging in the garden, singing in choruses, riding horses, reading novels, or watching BBC costume dramas. She is also a certified birth doula (a professional support person who helps with the emotional, physical and informational aspects of pregnancy, birth and postpartum). She has lived in England and Germany, and along with her 10- year-old son, Peter, is looking forward to exploring Montreal! A date for Grace's induction in the parish will be set in the near future and I look forward to being with you on that day for a service of new ministry."

Bishop's Blessings Beyond the Diocese This summer four members of our diocese will travel to our Partnership Diocese of Masasi. Bishop Mary Irwin-Gibson will be accompanied by her husband Mark, Beth Reed, Chair of the Partnership Committee and the Rev'd Victor David Mbuyi-Bipungu. The members of our Montreal PWRDF Committee are working with our Diocesan Partnerships Committee to help raise at $5000 to send with our bishop, to provide small gifts for the many parishes, schools and orphanages that she will visit. Some families in the Diocese of Masasi live on less than a dollar a day, and the church is one of the biggest providers of social and economic supports to meet basic needs. Critical needs include:

- Food, school fees and school uniforms for children
- Repairs for church structures and priests' homes
- Sandals and shoes for priests who walk from parish to parish
- Medical and hygiene supplies for nursing stations
- Fees and books for Seminarians
- Books and supplies for the new Bible School in Masasi that will be officially opened by Bishop Mary.

If every parish in our Diocese contributes to this project Bishop's Blessings Beyond the Diocese, it will be possible to reach our target, or more, for sending our blessings with Bishop Mary.

There are many ways to raise funds! A cupcake sale, a silent auction during coffee time, a soup lunch after church, or just a free-will donation basket at every church gathering, deanery meeting, or Sunday service are some of the ways to make Mission in Masasi possible. Please be generous! Just as our God is so generous! We also encourage individuals to write personal prayers to send with Bishop Mary, to be shared with the communities she visits. The name of the author and parish should be included. More information can be found on the notice board in the front entrance.
