

Temple Sholom

594 N Bridge Street, Bridgewater NJ

MEET...Rabbi Dan Selsberg, his wife Karen and their three young sons recently joined us from Ontario, Canada, where the rabbi is credited with turning around the temple and being an exceptional leader for ten years. Rabbi Selsberg is known for engaging and serious classes, relevant and humorous sermons, and an ability to connect with people across the synagogue community, from children to seniors, and from long-time temple-goers to blended families searching for their place in the Jewish community.

MEET... Cantor Vadim Yucht brought his amazing voice, musical talent, and warm heart to Temple Sholom in 2014. Most recently the Cantor of the Morristown Jewish Center, Cantor Yucht was born in the Ukraine, became a cantor while living in Israel, and later received an M.A. in Jewish Education at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. In his short time here, he has formed an adult choir, a youth band and seamlessly weaves both traditional and modern tunes into our services.

Temple Sholom is an inclusive and egalitarian Conservative congregation of 400 families located five minutes from Bridgewater Commons Mall. We are a community of singles, seniors, young, blended, and traditional families -- everyone is welcome.
