

Parent Report Card

- Dad (Mom) shows that he (she) loves me _____
- Dad (Mom) is fair in his (her) decisions _____
- Dad (Mom) is interested in my feelings _____
- Dad (Mom) admits when he (she) is wrong _____
- Dad (Mom) spends enough time with me _____
- Dad (Mom) controls his (her) anger and words _____
- Dad (Mom) listens to what I say _____
- Dad (Mom) is fun _____
- Dad (Mom) trusts me _____
- Dad (Mom) respects me _____
- Dad (Mom) enjoys being with me _____
- Dad (Mom) provides spiritual leadership _____
- Dad (Mom) makes me a priority in his (her) life _____
- Overall Grade _____

On a scale of 1 to 10 (10 is best), what kind of relationship do you want with Dad (Mom)? _____

On the same scale, where are you today in your relationship with Dad (Mom)? _____

If your Dad (Mom) could do three things to raise his (her) grade to a 10, what would they be?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

In Deuteronomy 6:4-7, God instructs parents to teach children about following him. In what three areas of your spiritual walk would you like you dad or mom to help?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

This approach opens the door for great conversations. But be careful when using this process. This isn't a time to defend your position; you can only ask questions to clarify a response. Remember: "Do not embitter your children, or they will become discouraged" (Colossians 3:21).