The Art Edit...

Indian ink combined with dreamy watercolour backgrounds complement the art works. Strong powerful women with a touch of vulnerability are shown in the pieces she's currently working on. Featured piece is a 100 x 100cm artwork of this latest series. Follow @love_art_eve on Instagram, email eva@loveartve.com or visit www.evamiedema.com

2. ANGELA K. NASVESHUK's paintings are inspired by the freedom felt in the salty seabreeze, the surge of excitement when surfers ride 'first light,' and the midsummer night's glow of an evening coastal walk. Part of the sold out 'Savoring Summer' collection, "Higgins Vibe" was created to capture the summertime nostalgia found on the edges of coastal Maine. View www.AKNstudioart.com and follow @AKNstudioart on Instagram to find out more.

3. LAUREN BAKER is a British artist who exhibits an abstract and contemporary collection of seascapes, exploring the beauty and serenity of the ocean. Capitalising on soft, harmonious palettes with splashes of vibrancy and subtle textures, she creates a collection that is mindful, placid in tone but uplifting at the same time. For more information, visit www.laurenbakerdesigns.co.uk or alternatively, follow @laurenbaker_art on Instagram.

4. ABIGAIL MICHAELA is committed to make every house a home by creating quality artwork to add sophistication to your living space. This portrait was intricately painted using various layers of acrylic paint. Visit www.abigailmichaela.com and follow @abigailmichaela.uk on Instagram for more of their original artwork.

5. VERONICA FUCHS is a self-taught artist, born in Sweden in 1993. She works mostly with acrylics and draws inspiration from nature. Shown here is 'När allt står still'. To view her work, visit konst.se/veronicafuchs or follow @veronicafuchs.art on Instagram.

6. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

7. Berkshire-based artist, JEANNE-LOUISE MOYS explores the emotive physicality of paint. Drawing inspiration from nature and dance, her favourite subjects include seascapes, river scenes, flowers and dancers. She creates expressive textures with brushes, palette knives and other repurposed 'tools'. View her work on jeannelouisart.co.uk or search @jeannelouisart and @blue_ballet_art on Instagram.

8. SASKIA ILLUSTRATION. Saskia Schoenmaker is a self-taught portrait artist with a particular interest in graphite pencil realism and gold leaf. Her love of animals combined with her thesis research led her to create her unique pencil illustrations. Saskia is especially passionate about drawing animals with connotations of power and beauty. Visit www.saskiaillustration.com and follow @saskiaillustration on Instagram.

9. ESMÉ FERGUSSON is a young, vibrant artist, based in London. Her practice is broad yet distinctive, from unique abstract interior pieces to portraits; Esmé constantly pushes boundaries through her experimental and expressive nature, the results are exciting, yet diligently refined. Visit www.esmefineart.co.uk or view her work @esmefineart on Instagram.

10. ANN-MARIE MOUNTFORD, MFA, is a New York based, British artist. She is motivated by bio-morphic form and geometry, torqued into unexpected contours, unifying the underlying humanistic influence, from her pervasive background in fashion. Shapes inadvertently embody traits or emotions, encouraging viewers to engage in their own narrative. Visit amimountford.com follow @amimountfordcreative on Instagram or for enquiries, email amimountford7@gmail.com

11. CAROLYN M. JONES CARR is a Chicago-based artist, author and entrepreneur. She and her family have travelled and lived both overseas and in the United States. This has given her endless inspiration to paint the tranquillity and colour of beach sunrises and sunsets, to add relaxation to living and working spaces. You can find more of her work at carolynmjonescarr.com

12. LISA BUTTERS is a North American artist with a passion for translating the beauty of the natural world into expressionist paintings that evoke a sense of wonder and shared experience. Whether abstract or impressionistic, her diverse body of work employs bold, lyrical colours that please the eye and spark the imagination. To view more of Lisa's works, visit www.lisabutters.com or follow @lisa_butters on Instagram.

13. JULIA NOBLE is a London based mixed media artist. Her aim is to make unashamedly joyful, uplifting artworks that bring colour and cheer to any room. 'Guatape', 2021 was created as a response to the most recent UK lockdown. It is part of a series inspired by a group of quilt makers in the isolated community of Gee's Bend, Alabama. The creation of the geometric shapes and use of bright colours transported Julia out of grey London and confinement to another place. Julia's website can be found at www.noblejulia.com and you can follow @jujunoble on Instagram.

14. CARA COPELAND is a New Hampshire based artist inspired by the simple things in life—whether it's a beautiful scene, fresh ingredients, or a striking colour. Cara's work is an act of self-exploration and meditation. She paints to evoke a sense of calm in her viewer. Visit www.caramcopeland.com and follow @cara.paints on Instagram.

15. CORNELIA "CONNI" BARGULL is a German artist. She offers an exciting new perspective by creating a modern outlook on traditional styles like 'kintsukuroi' or 'wabi-sabi' with a unique mix of materials, which provides her art with exceptional depth. Visit www.csb-art.de and email csb-bargull@gmx.de for custom-made enquiries.

16. ANNIE BROADLEY is one of Scotland's most exciting painters. Prestigious artist Paul Martin describes her work as having "a profound and beautiful intensity". Annie's paintings have been shown in galleries in Edinburgh and Glasgow. What interests and inspires Annie usually belongs to the natural world. Her work varies in subject and size, so it's definitely worth visiting her website www.anniebroadley.com or emailing annie@anniebroadley.com to find out more.
