

AUGUST 2022 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

11. KONSTANTIN SOTNIKOV has spent most of his life living and working in Germany. At times bright and colourful and others dark and pensive, his art explores an illusory world rendered through a rigorous dedication to composition and technique. Pictured: Untitled, 2021, 240 x 200 cm. Explore and enquire at www.marievonpapen.com

12. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of

Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

13. MARY CATHERINE SOLBERG incorporates aspects of religious iconography, classical realism and her own unique style to create large scale mixed media paintings she refers to as "Everyday Icons". These Icon portraits focus on a single character to capture fleeting moments of triumph, transition, struggle and enlightenment. Pictured is 'Richard Icon' 60"x 48". Discover more at www.marycatherinesolberg.com and follow @driftlessicons on Instagram.

14. JOY GOSNEY is a UK based artist, in whose paintings you glimpse evocations of place and meditations on nature. Both her landscape and abstract work are infused with fresh colour and dynamic mark-making and capture a beautiful feeling of serenity and calm. Visit www.joygosney.co.uk and follow @joygosney on Instagram.

15. Australian artist, MEGAN STANLEY from Brisbane, Queensland, has a passion for expressing the local iconic natural landscape, and garden scenes through a vibrant energetic brushstroke and colour technique, her style inspired by the fauvism art movement. See more at beyondthebrushstroke.com, or follow @beyondthebrushstroke.com on Instagram.

16. PIA KINTRUP is an award winning German artist who graduated from the Folkwang University of Arts with a Bachelor of Arts Degree, specifically in photography and an M.A. in Photography studies. She was awarded the 2019 13th International Arte Laguna Prize, featured at the "Photolux Festival" in Venice, Italy, and won the 2019 Excellence Award, International Artist Award at Art Next Expo in Hong Kong. She has held countless exhibitions around Europe, and also a few in Asia, Canada, and the USA. Pictured is 'the gloom'. She is represented by Galerie Ricarda Fox, based in Germany. Visit www.piakintrup.com and follow @piakintrup on Instagram.

17. RORY PRINSLOO's art is created as a result of wanting to express his thoughts about life and existence. This theme is present in all the work he creates with his projects ranging from sculpture, drawing, painting and prints. Discover more at www.roryprinsloo.co.za and follow @roryprinsloo on Instagram.

18. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

19. LILLIAN LANGFORD is a self-taught artist who discovered a love for drawing while working as fashion designer launching her first collection. Turning to art for healing after a family crisis, Lillian finds that line art is a depiction of the minimalistic within her. Discover more of her work at www.facebook.com/LLArtLove follow @shedrawsit on Instagram or email lililang34@gmail.com

20. In this series titled 'Fafa' artist CHARLES CHAU utilises vibrant and versatile vocabularies of colours along with sensational brushstrokes to portray the beauty of nature. The repetitive syllables of 'fa' – the Cantonese pronunciation of 'flowers' – emphasizes purity and joy. For more information about Charles and his work, contact Allison Thompson of AT Art and Interiors. Visit www.allisonthompsonstudio.com and follow @atartinteriors on Instagram.