WISMAR'S WISDOM

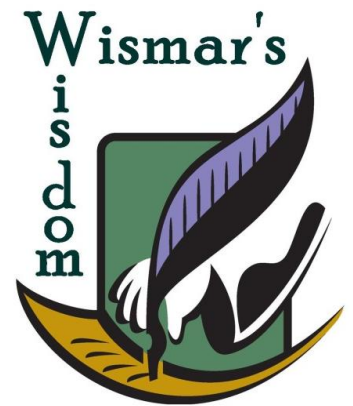

Join our journeys through key teachings of the Catechism and Bible

Dear Members and Friends of Holy Cross,

I'd like to invite you to join me on two special journeys taking place here at Holy Cross – one that has just recently begun and will be continuing throughout the summer and a second that will begin in September and continue on till mid-May 2016.

First journey first: From now until the end of August each week during Sunday worship my messages will be focusing in on the basic teachings of the Christian faith as found in Martin Luther's Small Catechism. As Christians, we are called to be disciples of Jesus Christ – to grow more and more each day in the image of our Lord and Savior and become what we have been called to be. As baptized children of God, growing as His child and understanding and living the Christian faith is especially important for us. Thankfully, God makes this kind of growing possible for us. He gives us faith and love for Him so that we want to grow in our knowledge of God and in understanding His will for our life. Thankfully, too, He has given us the means by which growth comes: the Word and the Sacraments, through which the Holy Spirit is at work in our lives. As we use these means, we grow in faith, in knowledge, and in love. The purpose for sharing this summer journey through the Catechism together is to help reacquaint you with some of the basics of your Christian faith and to help you grow as a baptized child of God and a member of His family, the church.

Journey No. 2: An eight-month walk together through the entirety of Scripture. Beginning on Sunday, September 6, and continuing on until Sunday, May 8, 2016, we will be journeying together through the incredible plan God has for the world and its people – His eternal love story. Knowledge of the Bible is often rather fragmentary, and too few people understand the exciting adventure of a complete study of the Bible from cover to cover. One of the things that deters many people from a thorough journey through the Scriptures is, first, the sheer size of the Bible. Second, people often find it difficult to relate the various parts of Scripture, and to see how this collection of books, written over a long period of time, develops one story, one unified message. Third, those who approach the Bible with very little knowledge of ancient history have difficulty in reading sections in their proper setting.

Our journey together through the Scriptures will help overcome these difficulties. Above all, its intention is to help you see that the Bible – this great library of books – is still one book in which a merciful God has revealed His gracious plan for your salvation. There are many themes running through the Bible, but the one great feature that stands out is God's control of history as He leads His people to that point where they find their hopes and their identity in JESUS CHRIST. He is the key for God's divine plan for us – the bridegroom in His eternal love story (and of course, we are the bride!).

I hope you will be able to join us for each of these two journeys in their entirety and I look forward to seeing you each Sunday for worship – the time when God comes to us and lavishes us with His precious gifts of forgiveness, life and salvation. See you in worship!

In Christ,

Pastor Wismar

Best wishes to two Holy Cross members who graduated from college in May

Cheers to Eric Boivie and Nicole Ciccica and the college class of 2015! Listed below is information they provided when we issued requests for graduates to fill out a "Graduate Information" form, detailing their degree information and future plans. Eric and Nicole, your church family is proud of your achievement and we wish good fortune, blessings and happiness with your future plans.

Eric Boivie

Son of Rick and Kathy Boivie, Eric graduated from the University of Connecticut, with a Bachelor of Science degree. He will be employed as a Computer Scientist for the U.S. Government.

Nicole Ciccica

Daughter of Joseph and Cindy Ciccica, Nicole earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Stonehill College in Easton, Mass. Nicole's future plan is to head to grad school at Mass College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences to become a Physician Assistant.

COVENANT TO CARE FOR CHILDREN

Back-to school project kicks off on the second Sunday of July

The annual collection of backpacks and school supplies for Covenant to Care for Children will get underway on July 12. The DCF social worker that Holy Cross supports, Mimose Ulysses-Laurenard, currently has 26 school-aged children in her caseload and we will provide each one with a backpack filled with enough school supplies to get them through the 2015-16 school year.

For the past few years I have noticed that many stores begin their sales for backpack and school supplies within the first two weeks of July, and continuing through August. As you look through the sale circulars for Target, Staples, Walmart,

Walgreens, etc., keep in mind that we are looking for donations of all the typical supplies – backpacks, loose-leaf notebook paper, binders, pocket folders, spiral notebooks, composition journals, 24-count crayons, colored pencils, glue sticks, black ink pens, pencil cases, markers...and this list goes on! The display board with three-by-five "shopping cards" will be in the narthex on July 12. If you wish to make a donation of a backpack and or school supplies, just take the appropriate "shopping cards" from the poster and return your donation by August 9. If you are unable to shop but would like to make a monetary donation for this project, you may make a check out to Holy Cross Lutheran, and write "Cov to Care" in the memo section. Monetary donations may be put in the Covenant to Care mailbox (bottom row, far right).

Thank you in advance for your very loving response to help our church's adopted social worker as she works with children of all ages who are unfortunately removed from their home and placed into the DCF system.

Yours in Christ,
---MARY SCHROCK

PRESIDENT'S JOURNAL

New England District Convention: Holy Cross' presence was felt

Last month I had the privilege of attending the LCMS New England District Convention alongside Pastor Wismar. Some quick background – this convention is held every three years in advance of the big triennial LCMS Convention. The purpose of the convention is to hear reports, elect officers and leaders, and decide on financial, strategic and theological matters that have been raised by congregations or other entities within the New England District. And, of course, to give thanks and worship.

It is in the spirit of worship that the convention kicked off with a communion service. We were honored to have as our preacher, LCMS President Matt Harrison, a dynamic speaker. But for me, the most inspiring part was the sound of a sanctuary full of clergy and lay leaders (granted, a mostly male congregation) belting out A Mighty Fortress. It gave me chills.

Following the service, President Harrison held a Q&A session. The discussion was at times sobering – declining memberships and giving, and assaults on LCMS stances on right-to-life and same-sex marriage. But there are also positives – fellowship agreements with Lutheran bodies in Africa and Eastern Europe, significant growth in our mission efforts, and the opening of the Wittenberg, Germany, conference center.

The “meat” of the next day-and-a-half was spent on resolutions, elections and reports. Some resolutions were a breeze; others involved amendments and debate leading to some close votes. It was a parliamentarian's dream. Two hot topics – finances (the push-pull between regional and synod-wide efforts) and communion (how to be welcoming while adhering to doctrine).

My biggest “take-away,” though, is how blessed we are in the New England District. Our leadership is exemplary in their vision, humility and compassion. We have ordained and commissioned ministers who believe in their calling. That's not to say I always agree with all of them, but I certainly do not doubt the strength of their conviction. They have been there to guide and support us in the face of traumatic events that few other districts have had to confront, dealing with their own emotions all the while providing the comfort of God's love in the face of great sorrow.

Finally, the convention would not be complete without celebration. In this vein, Holy Cross was well-represented. Our own Pastor Wismar was ratified as one of seven district Circuit Visitors. We commemorated the service anniversaries of Pastor Witschy (ordained, 30-34 years) and JoAnne Meyer (commissioned, 55-59 years!), as well as the call to glory of Judie Froehlich (commissioned). And Holy Cross “alumnus,” the Rev. Steve Bartell, was awarded the prestigious St. Martin of Tours Medal for exceptionally meritorious service in support of LCMS ministry to the Armed Forces. Don't know Rev. Bartell? Ask a “long-timer.” Holy Cross is a strong congregation because of its shepherds and its members – past, present and future. Including you!

In His Service,
---KERRY GEFFERT
Holy Cross President

COMMUNITY SUPPER

Serve the Lord by serving the needy a welcome meal at one of our next two dates, July 7 and August 4

"Beary" sat on the Community Supper table enjoying a bowl of peaches on June 2. A young boy had entered the church hall with a beanie baby named Beary on his shoulder. Then he arranged Beary to look about to devour the peaches. Earlier, meals were prepared by Lorraine Finch, Helen Harper, Gail Rice and Barbara White. Later, Anna Mae Berger arrived and poured juice, while Mary Schrock and Jim Leslie, who arrived around 4:30, carved four hams. Finally, Cindy and Nicole Ciccio, Kerry Geffert, Saviden Semon and Pastor Wismar arrived to serve the 101 meals.

Holy Cross is responsible for buying the food, preparing and serving the meal on the first Tuesday of the month at St. John's Episcopal. The next two community suppers for which Holy Cross is responsible for cooking and serving are on Tuesdays, July 7 and August 4. Sign-up sheets will be on the narthex table for each month, a few weeks prior to the cooking/serving date. If you can volunteer your time, please put your name on the sheet(s).

THRIVENT FINANCIAL

Recognizing the benefits of Holy Cross' relationship with supportive company

The relationship of Thrivent Financial for "Lutherans" (now changed to Christians) with congregations such as Holy Cross and its members has changed greatly as of July 1, 2015. The viability and comparative benefit of this change are yet to be determined, but it is appropriate on this occasion to review and acknowledge the benefits our congregation has received from Thrivent over the years.

The exact amount of funding we have received over the past 30 years or so would be difficult to know exactly, but a thoughtful estimate, including the years when Thrivent was known to us as AAL and LB, could approach if not exceed $150,000. Just to give only two noticeable examples of scores of projects funded or partially funded by Thrivent over the years would be expenses for our Tuesday Suppers in Bridgeport and construction of the quaint little "house" behind the church used by our preschool. Incidentally, construction was done single-handedly by one of our members, Carl Carlson, and materials paid for by LB. And don't forget the many volunteers who worked the Tuesday Night Suppers as well. Such should give you an idea of the value of Thrivent support over the years and how it enabled our members to be in ministry to the Glory of God.

Note it is not just our Thrivent members who have benefited from this support, but the whole congregation. So a statement of gratitude to our Thrivent members is in order, and an acknowledgement of Thrivent Corporation itself is well deserved. So thank you Thrivent for all you have done for all of us at Holy Cross over the years! May our relationship somehow prosper in the future as well.
