What is the Volunteer Leadership Team?

The Volunteer Leadership Team (VLT) is a coalition of diverse leaders who sit on one of our four volunteer boards: Board of Directors, Inclusion, Diversity & Equity Advisory Board, Associate Board, or Program Advisory Board. They serve as our strongest ambassadors and bring their passion, time, dedication, and skills to advance our work. The level of commitment and responsibility of VLT members vary, but all are integral to the success of our chapter.

The VLT is comprised of four volunteer boards:

- Board of Directors - The governing body of the nonprofit; fiduciaries who steer the organization towards a sustainable future through strong governance, financial management, and fundraising. By invitation only.

- Associate Board - An operational board composed of young professionals and graduate students; supports staff in leading critical initiatives (e.g., recruitment, summer programs, development, mentoring sessions).

- Inclusion, Diversity, Equity Advisory Board (IDEA) - An advisory board composed of young professionals and graduate students; promotes a culture of inclusion for all members of the MMB community regardless of their unique cultural identifiers. We believe in the urgency of this work and the need for a specific focus within our organization’s leadership structure.

- Program Advisory Board - An advisory board composed of experienced educators, counselors, and nonprofit professionals; consults directly on our programming and college advising services. By invitation only.

How Can You Apply?

Recruitment for new leaders on the Associate Board for the 2022-2023 program year begins on Saturday, April 9th. The VLT Spring 2022 Recruitment Packet provides descriptions of the open roles, including position requirements, time commitments and relationships managed. UPDATE: We have every reason to believe that MMB will be back in-person next fall, which means our Volunteer Leadership Team will no longer operate remotely. All applicants should have the ability to attend in-person meetings in the Greater Boston area.
