You are invited to Temple Emanuel for a first night seder conducted by Rabbi Joseph Black, Rabbi Brian Immerman, Cantor Regina Heit and Cantor Elizabeth Sacks. The dinner is a buffet meal catered by A Perfect Pear. We hope you will join us!

New this year! At 5:15 p.m. Cantor Heit will lead “Everything You Wanted to Know About Passover But Were Afraid to Ask.” From the origins of the seder to the preparation and execution, we will share memories, traditions, songs and more. There is always something new and different in our traditions! This is a nice opportunity to learn, too, if your background is from a different tradition.

You must register for the evening in advance. Register at www.EmanuelDenver.org/seder or mail in the bright pink form that you received in the mail. Call us if you have questions!

Adding Meaning and Purpose

By Rabbi Joseph R. Black • black@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 308

As I write this article, winter still has its grip on Colorado. While this has been an exceptional year for skiing, the uncertainty of freezing temperatures, snow storms, quick thaws and more snow is beginning to take its toll. And yet, I know by the time you read this article, spring will have finally arrived. That can only mean one thing: it's time to get ready for Passover. Now is the time that Jews get rid of all the chametz (leavening) from our homes.

The question of what defines chametz is not as simple as one might first assume. According to tradition, chametz is not only bread, cakes and crackers. Anything with yeast and five types of grain is considered to be leavened. But it doesn't stop there. There are multiple categories of chametz: from legumes to any grain that comes in contact with water.

This year, maybe we should think about the concept of chametz from another perspective. Since the mitzvah of ridding our house of leavening involves removing excess food that is not appropriate for the holiday, why stop with food? Why not look at all aspects of our lives that are superfluous and excessive? How much money are we spending on stuff that clutters our cabinets and closets? What about items and services that have become part of our everyday routine but really are not that important? We ask ourselves: at what point do luxuries turn into conveniences and then into necessities?

And while we are ridding ourselves of our physical and spiritual chametz, this is also a perfect time to look at ways that we can add meaning and purpose to our lives. Your clergy and staff are always looking for ways to improve our congregation. One of our main goals at Temple Emanuel is creating a spiritual community where we share our lives with others. We study, pray, celebrate simchas and console one another in times of sorrow. We need to stay in touch with what is going on in our congregation.

For this reason, we have decided to add a new column in our eNotes that shares important events within our community. If there is something that you want to share with us, please do. We want to keep our community connected. Susie Sigman’s article on page 5 details how to do this.

May this Pesach time of rebirth and renewal help us to rethink our priorities and find new ways of strengthening ourselves, our families and our community.

May you all have a kosher and fulfilling Passover.

Audacious Hospitality

Ellen Abrams, President • Board of Trustees • President@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 326

“Audacious Hospitality.” This was the theme of Rabbi Rick Jacobs’s keynote speech at last year’s URJ Biennial. Rabbi Jacobs challenged each of us to not only welcome people of all ages and backgrounds into our synagogues, but to make them feel comfortable, connected and appreciated. “Audacious Hospitality” has become a popular buzzword in our Reform Jewish movement and for good reason! I believe practicing Audacious Hospitality will help inject new life and vigor into the Temple Emanuel community while still preserving the best of what Emanuel has always offered.

The power of practicing Audacious Hospitality means greater inclusiveness and outreach at every level. A strong Temple Emanuel requires a tent that is big, open and welcoming. We need to reach out and greet those who are looking for community at Temple Emanuel. We need to ensure the voices of our members are heard and their needs are met while we continue to attract new people who may have previously felt disenfranchised, whether that means individuals in interfaith marriages or partnerships, the LGBTQ community, Jews with disabilities, or tentative and curious prospective congregants walking through our doors for the first time. At the same time, we need to make a strong call for Audacious Hospitality to our families with young children, our youth and our young adults in the hope that they will remain engaged and connected throughout their Jewish journey.

Audacious Hospitality will be unique for each of us. To one family it may mean their child had a great time on the recent Confirmation trip to New York City. To someone else it may mean she took satisfaction from a Mitzvah Day project. Another may have been comforted by Rabbi Black and our clergy during a time of grief or need. We can each benefit from and contribute to Temple Emanuel’s Audacious Hospitality.

Just as it means something significant to me, I hope the term Audacious Hospitality comes to mean something to you. I hope you experience Emanuel’s Audacious Hospitality and share that experience with other members and visitors as an ongoing invitation to be part of our community. I look forward to serving you and the Temple Emanuel community with Audacious Hospitality in the years ahead.
A New Chapter

By Janet Bronitsky • bronitsky@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

In keeping with the request of the Board of Trustees for an 18-month lead time and planning for my personal future, I have decided to retire from my position, effective June 30, 2015. I look forward to continuing to work over the next year plus. Temple Emanuel is a wonderful place to be a part of and I look forward to being an active member of the community following my retirement.

Speaking of staff changes, I express my sincere thanks to Cindy Wolfe and her dedicated efforts on behalf of our ECC upon her retirement. Under her tutelage we have made great strides in retaining the cutting edge ECC program we have come to expect from Temple Emanuel. Her final day at the ECC will be late May. We had the opportunity to honor her in absentia at the Annual Meeting and there will be more recognition with the close of school. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to work with her, be a colleague, and celebrate our life riches as we have both become grandparents of eight little ones. May this life change be the start of a new beginning for her and her husband, Mike.

Our Fiscal Year Ends June 30!

We are closing in on the end of the current fiscal year. All dues balances should be paid by Monday, June 30. If it is not possible for you to have the balance paid, please let me know and I will make the necessary adjustment to Temple’s records. I know many are still facing financial difficulties. Dues comprise almost 80% of the Temple’s operating budget so each member’s contribution matters. Communication with me is vital so Temple’s finances can be accurately maintained. Thank you for your support: it sustains our community.

Recognizing Simchas and Losses

By Susie Sigman • sigman@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 325

In Rabbi Black’s article he talked about how we are striving to be a more connected community. Starting soon in the eNotes, our weekly email with news of what is coming up at Temple and in the community, we will add a section where you can click through to find out what is going on in our members’ families: their simchas (celebrations) as well as losses. If you or someone in your family has celebrated a major milestone like a special anniversary or birthday, received an award or honor, had a baby or grandchild or the like; or if you have suffered the loss of a family member, please let us know. Email or call me.

If you are not already receiving our eNotes, or if you have a new email address, please let me know. You will receive the most current information and connect to your Temple community on an ongoing basis this way.

On Philanthropy

By Francie Miran • miran@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 335

A fascinating new study, Connected to Give: Synagogues and Movements, is making waves with some interesting facts, which may not surprise you: Most American Jews are charitable givers and engagement with Jewish community is a paramount driver of Jewish charitable giving.

It also provides interesting information about Jews and legacy giving, which demonstrates that this could be key to the future of Jewish organizations. 23% of American Jews have provided for charities in their wills, nearly twice as many as people who don’t follow that faith.

The Talmud itself makes the case statement for why donors may wish to leave Temple a legacy gift. “I did not find the world desolate when I entered it, and as my ancestors planted for me, so I plant for my children.” The sacred bond linking generation to generation is strengthened through bequests that represent investments in the future of Temple Emanuel.

Temple Emanuel has partnered with Rose Community Foundation in their “Live On” initiative for a number of years to build permanent endowments through bequests and planned gifts. Temple is proud that our Live On Society, families who have included Temple in their estate plans, has 96 members. Since 2006 we have received gifts from 35 families totaling over $618,000.

Making a legacy gift is a clear statement about the values and beliefs that have shaped your life, as well as the vision of Temple for future generations. We invite you to join our Live On Society by including Temple in your estate plans via simple bequests in a will or trust, life insurance policy or a retirement or pension plan. Rose is now providing incentive dollars for new legacy gifts, making this a perfect time to act. Information is available at http://EmanuelDenver.org/live-on or contact me at miran@EmanuelDenver.org or 303.388.4013 ext. 335.

Have you already remembered Temple in your will? Please let me know so that I have the opportunity to acknowledge you.

“Etz Chayim Hee …”
PROVERBS 3:18
Torah is our Tree of Life – water it with curiosity, fertilize it with passion. Transform the landscape of your life.

Am Yisrael Chai – Israel and World Jewish Communities
Anat Hoffman: Celebrating Freedom in Israel

Thank you to everyone who helped to make Fighting to Pray: A Weekend with Anat Hoffman a huge success. We celebrated with Anat on Friday night with a joyous Shabbat service, learned with Anat on Saturday morning with an engaging Torah Study and broadened our perspective on Sunday morning with a captivating Israel program. This exciting program would not have been possible without the Marjorie Hornbein Adult Education Fund and the generous support of the Sisterhood.

After this inspirational weekend, the question is – What’s next? How can we all become part of the wave of change initiated by Israel Religious Action Center and the Women of the Wall?

You can:
- Sign up for "The Pluralist" – the weekly newsletter from the Israel Religious Action Center.
- Purchase a Women of the Wall Tallit – show your financial support for this important cause and receive a beautiful symbol of equality in return.
- Donate to the Israel Religious Action Center.

The Israel Religious Action Center also encourages you to:
- Read - At least once a week read something about Israel that is not about security.
- Use your financial support to create an Israel that reflects your values.
- Visit Israel, and make your visits count. Make time for the Israel Religious Action Center. (Less Roman ruins and more freedom rides.)
- Refuse. Refuse to choose between your liberal values and your commitment to Israel. Let your frustration motivate you to action. Action is our middle name.

Together, we can make our voices heard to support Israel – our homeland.

Current Events

Let’s Talk About It: Faith and Reproductive Justice
Tuesday, April 22 and Tuesday, April 29, 7:00 p.m. – 8:15 p.m.
Cantor Heit and Rabbi Black

It’s time for people from liberal faith communities to reclaim the reproductive justice conversation. In this two-part series, we will explore Jewish and Christian texts related to the issues of reproductive choice and sexuality education. How can we use our understanding of our faith to advocate for the choices we believe in? This series will culminate on Thursday, May 8 with “It’s Time to Talk about Reproductive Justice.” Details on page 7.

Torah Lishmah – Deepening Our Knowledge
Talmud Study: Two Jews, Three Opinions
Thursdays, 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.
Led by Cantor Sacks

A weekly course on our seminal Jewish legal text. Explore the world of the Talmud, the fundamental issues with which this text wrestles and the significance of the Talmud for Reform Jews today.

SAVE THE DATE

Save the Date for a Tikkun Leil Shavuot: an evening to celebrate Shavuot, on Tuesday, June 3. Watch for details!

HESED Healing, Empowering, Serving at Emanuel Denver

Our HESED Committee has completed its fall listening campaign. We heard from many people that the thoughts and threats of persistent violence, both in schools and other public areas, are keeping our Temple community awake at night. Our next step will be engaging with leaders in our community and organizations to learn how we can make a sustainable difference in reducing violence. If this is an issue about which you feel passionate, we invite you to join us as we embark on the research and eventually to an action. Contact Rabbi Immerman at immerman@EmanuelDenver.org to join the HESED team.
ADULT PROGRAMS

ADL’s 33rd Annual Governor’s Holocaust Remembrance Program
Thursday, May 1, 6:00 p.m.-7:30 p.m. at Temple Emanuel

The 2014 featured speaker will be Thomas Buergenthal, a Holocaust survivor who went on to serve as the American Judge on the International Court of Justice and as a Judge and President of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights. Judge Buergenthal has held a number of other distinguished posts in the legal world and is the author of A Lucky Child: A Memoir of Surviving Auschwitz as a Young Boy.

The program will include a candlelighting ceremony memorializing Holocaust victims and honoring Holocaust survivors, and features a special “Message to Colorado,” by Governor John Hickenlooper.

Please contact ADL at 303.830.7177 for free tickets and for more information, or register online at www.2014ghrp.eventbrite.com.

Habitat Interfaith Alliance Golf Tournament
Monday, June 2
Habitat Interfaith Alliance’s next fundraiser will be our annual golf tournament. Registration is easy. Visit www.blacktie-colorado.com, go to event registration and scroll down to June 2. If you have a business and are interested in sponsorship please contact Steve or Susie Wilensky at susanwilensky@msn.com.

We thank everyone who participated in our “Books for Bricks” sale. It was a big success. HIA is on the way to providing a deserving family a safe affordable home. HIA has a redesigned website: hiadenver.org. Find out about all of our activities throughout the year.

We Remember Them
Tuesday, April 8 – Tuesday, May 20

Facilitator Barb Kamlet is a licensed grief counselor and therapist. The group is open to those in our community who have experienced the loss of a loved one. Contact Cantor Heit for more information: heit@EmanuelDenver.org.

It’s Time to Talk about Reproductive Justice
Thursday, May 8, 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. at Temple Emanuel
A program of the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Rights (RCRC)

Featuring members from the faith community:
- Rabbi Joe Black, Senior Rabbi of Temple Emanuel, Denver
- Rev. Harry Knox, President and CEO of the national RCRC, Washington, DC
- Rev. Dr. Miguel De La Torre, Professor of Social Ethics and Latino/a Studies at the Iliff School of Theology, Denver
- Rev. Valerie Jackson, Senior Pastor at First United Methodist Church of Aurora
- Sen. Irene Aguilar, Colorado, 32nd District, which includes the city of Denver
- Fred Abrams, MD, Director of the Clinical Ethics Consultation Group, Center for Bioethics and Humanities, University of Colorado, Anschutz Medical Campus

Join the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice of Colorado for a special evening which will kick off our campaign to oppose another ballot amendment this fall that would severely limit a woman’s reproductive freedom. It’s time for people of faith, like the majority of Americans overall, to tell the truth: We want families and individuals to have access to contraception, sexuality education and reproductive health care including abortion.

Hanging of Memorial Plaques
For the first time this year, and after each of the four Yizkor services during the year (Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Passover and Shavuot), we will hang newly arrived memorial plaques in the Meditation Room. As a community we will support each other as we remember our loved ones. If you have recently ordered a plaque, you will be notified if it has arrived in time for hanging at our next Yizkor service at Passover. For information about memorial plaques, contact the assistant to the clergy, Shannon Luedke: luedke@EmanuelDenver.org or ext. 308.
Passover Memories

By Ron Leff • leff@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 327

My preparations for Passover have changed considerably since becoming a parent. I used to worry about preparing my home, cleaning out the chametz (leavened products) and purchasing the Kosher for Passover foods. I’d decide whether or not to make the trip back to Michigan for the sedarim or stay here. Now, as a parent, my focus is on making Passover memories.

When I think back to my childhood there are so many different memories I have connected to the celebration of Passover. I remember being at my grandparents’ house with aunts, uncles and cousins. I remember asking the Four Questions (yeah, I was always the youngest). I remember stealing and hiding the afikomen. I remember my Grandpa Harry, of blessed memory, lead the seder, of course, the amazing food Grandma Sonia, of blessed memory, served. I searched the house for gym shoes, because that was always what my grandparents gave us as the afikomen gift.

Now it’s my responsibility to make Passover memories for my children. I hope that I can help you create memories for yours. Please take a look at Jewish Family page of the Temple website – www.EmanuelDenver.org/learning/jewishshome. I have shared many different resources that I hope will help you in the task of making memories. If I can be of assistance, please be sure to contact me.

Final Days of Religious / Hebrew School
The final session of Religious School and Sunday Hebrew classes will be held on Sunday, May 4. The final session of Wednesday Hebrew classes will be held on Wednesday, May 7.

My Jewish Discovery Zone

The School Year Draws to a Close
By Cindy Wolfe • Wolfe@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 319

As the school year draws to a close, it is with much excitement and, of course, a tinge of sadness that I retire in my position as Director of Temple Emanuel ECC. I have worked here for almost 12 years: the first 4 years as the Assistant Director and the last 7 1/2 years as the ECC Director. I have grown both intellectually and emotionally. Not only have I learned a lot about early childhood education through advancing my own professional development, I have learned how to be a leader, a mentor and a friend.

Over the last 12 years, there have been tragedies as well as triumphs. Unfortunately, a few teachers, parents and friends have passed away during my tenure, but at the same time, so many beautiful babies in the ECC have been born. I will always cherish the special relationships I have established with my fellow teachers and staff. They are the most dedicated, loving and nurturing people you will ever find. I will always keep with me the relationships I’ve built with each family. I am unspeakably grateful to have had the opportunity to be surrounded by so many beautiful, precious and loving children every single day. I will never forget their smiling faces which have brought me so much joy and happiness.

I am excited for the next chapter of my life, in whatever career path I choose. I look forward to spending more time with my children and grandchildren. I can’t wait to travel with my husband, Mike to Israel to visit our daughter and son-in-law who will be making aliyah this summer. As always, we look forward to spending more time with our two grown sons and their families, all of whom live back east. We have 8 grandchildren and hope to visit them often!

As I say goodbye, I’d like to offer a wish and a blessing: that this wonderful community will continue to thrive, and that the children here at the Temple ECC will learn, grow and realize their full potential. Let us all go n’chayil el chayil, from strength to strength, and find success in everything we strive for. I hope everyone has a wonderful summer.

Book Club with a Twist and More
By Rita Dahlke • Dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

Book Club with a Twist: Join us the last Tuesday of the month for lively and interesting discussions as we explore different themes and genres found in Jewish literature. After the group discussions we plan socials that connect to the monthly theme.

> April theme: Biography – Famous Personalities
  Tuesday, April 29, 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. in the library

> May theme: Family Disputes
  Tuesday, May 27, 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. in the library

Library Book Club Social: We will be combining February’s theme, Mystery, Suspense & Crime and April’s theme, Biography – Famous Personalities, together. Put on your detective caps and join us as we solve the mystery “Murder on the Mediterranean,” starring members of our Temple.

Library Social: Sunday, April 27, hosted at Yaffa’s Savory. For more information or to make a reservation, call me.

NEW PROGRAM! Shabbat in the Afternoon – second Saturday of the month. It’s a tradition on Shabbat afternoon to gather for a little study, a little nosh and schmooze. We will celebrate Shabbat afternoon with a shir (story) from a different country followed by traditional foods from that country. We will say good bye to Shabbat with a havdalah service and music. Stick around and have some fun playing good old-fashioned party games.

Our first event will take place Saturday, May 10, 4:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. hosted by Rita Dahlke.
RSVP to me for address & directions.

LIBRARY HOURS
Monday: 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. // Tuesday: 9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. // Wednesday: 9:00 a.m. – 8:30 p.m. // Thursday: 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
Friday, April 4 and May 2 after services – Birthday Books // Saturday: 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. // Sunday: 8:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
The 2014 Rabbi Earl Stone and Maurice Zigmond College Scholarship program is approaching. All applications and essays are submitted online at EmanuelDenver.org/programs/brotherhood. The 2014 application will open on Tuesday, April 1 and close promptly at 11:00 p.m. on Monday, June 30. Award recipients will be notified via e-mail and presented their scholarship on Friday, August 8. Updates will be provided via eNotes. For questions contact Justin Blue.

Sisterhood Schmooze

By Laurie Abelman, President • 303.378.2469 • lauriea5@msn.com

UPCOMING EVENTS:
Wine Tasting at Balistreri Vineyards (1946 E. 66th Ave.), Sunday, April 6, 11:00 a.m.
We will carpool from Temple Emanuel and Temple Sinai, leaving both sites at 11:00 a.m. The cost is $12 and checks must be mailed in advance to Temple Emanuel, 51 Grape St., Denver, CO 80220, Attn: Fredi Novin. RSVP to Fredi, 303.690.2622 or fnntoteach@yahoo.com.

Women’s Passover Seder
Wednesday, April 17
We are returning to Temple Emanuel for our beautiful and intimate Passover seder for women of all ages. Dinner is provided and we will use our own women’s haggadah. Cost and time will be announced in emails and Temple eNotes. For information and reservations contact Dianne Green, 303.721.6486 or greend365@gmail.com.

Temple Emanuel Sisterhood Installation and Dinner
Thursday, May 29, 6:00 p.m.– 8:00 p.m.
Sisterhood will be installing our new president, Carol Ann Warren and other officers. Our guest speaker is Jamie Sarché from Feldman Mortuary, who will speak about ritual and why it is so important in building family and community connection. Sisterhood is very excited to honor our Volunteer of the Year, Deb Mayworm. Deb has dedicated herself not only to us, but the WRJ and the District. She will be installed as the District President in October of this year. She sets a wonderful example for all of us. We will also be honoring Lois Rich, who after 30 years as our Flower Fund Chairwoman, is retiring. There are no words to express our great appreciation.
Thank you to all the bakers who helped with the Purim Bake Sale. We cannot do it without you and are so grateful. A special thank you goes to Cathy Scott who organized this great fundraising event.
Thanks to Dianne Green for her great (not klutzy, as she calls herself) cooking skills. We came away with some great recipes for Passover.
Join Sisterhood so you can find out about our upcoming events. Remember without you we are one woman short.

Rabbi Earl Stone and Maurice Zigmond Scholarships

By Justin Blue • justinblue@gmail.com or brotherhood@EmanuelDenver.org

Sunday, June 1 is Mitzvah Day! After our Temple Families Day of Service please join the Brotherhood for a barbecue for Mitzvah Day participants. No RSVP required, just show up hungry! Hamburgers, hotdogs and a vegetarian option will be available.
On behalf of Brotherhood I’d like to congratulate Matthew Heit on yet another successful Brotherhood Blood Drive. At the time of publishing Matthew was on pace to fill all spots at our Blood Drive. This is a special event for the Brotherhood that serves not only our Temple family but our surrounding community. Matthew has gone above the call of duty every year on behalf of the Brotherhood.

Sisterhood Gift Shop

Spring is just around the corner and so is Passover! Please shop for all your needs with us. Come see all our exciting new items for the holiday. Don’t forget haggadahs. We also have great gifts for children!

We are looking for a volunteer for Monday mornings starting in May. It’s a great way to meet people and is a wonderful mitzvah.

Congratulations to the Confirmands of 2014

Send a special congratulation to Temple Emanuel’s confirmands with a Sisterhood Uniongram or Goldengram which will be given to the confirmands at their Confirmation Dinner, Friday, May 16.

For $5 each, your name will be included on a group Goldengram with a standard greeting.
For $10 each, a personal message of your choice will be written in a separate Uniongram.

Uniongrams and Goldengrams support the Sisterhood Y.E.S. Fund (Youth, Education and Special Projects) which benefit many worthwhile causes in the Reform movement such as NFTY (National Federation for Temple Youth), the RAC (Religious Action Center), and financial assistance for rabbinical and cantorial student.

Send this form and a check payable to “Sisterhood of Congregation Emanuel” to the Sisterhood Youth Committee chair: Jamie Idelberg, 4072 S. Wabash St., Denver, CO 80237 by Thursday, May 1, or drop it off at the Temple.
