Celebrate Shabbat in the Summer!

On select evenings throughout the summer, we will hold music and learning events (during our picnic dinners), after our Shabbat Worship. See below for descriptions of all of our exciting special guests and events.

Friday, June 3
Sacred Stories for Shabbat: One Generation to Another; An Evening with Peninnah Schram
BBQ Dinner Served

Shabbat is a special time to share stories and songs. To hear all the fascinating Jewish stories would take more than 1001 nights – and days. Join us as master story-teller Peninnah Schram interweaves folktales of various genres from the Sephardic (Middle Eastern) and Ashkenazic (Eastern European) oral traditions. Some are filled with intrigue and clever wit, but all focus on wisdom and values that have been treasured by the Jewish people throughout the generations.

Peninnah Schram, internationally known storyteller, teacher, author, and recording artist, is Professor Emerita of Speech and Drama at Stern College of Yeshiva University. She is a recipient of the Covenant Award for Outstanding Jewish Educator (1995), The Circle of Excellence Award (1999) from the National Storytelling Network, and the National Storytellers Network 2003 Lifetime Achievement Award.

Friday, June 17
Creating Israeli Culture: Pop Music in Israel
A Study Session with Cantor Sacks

What is Israeli music? How does the music of Israel tell the story of her people and her culture? Through examples of lyrics and music, we will consider how the music of Israel plays a role in forming the country’s identity.

Friday, June 25
Shabbat Hike
Explore the outdoors through a “walking service” – hiking, singing, praying, and of course, some Shabbat snacking.

Saturday, June 25
Shabbat Hike

Friday, July 1
Independence Day Shabbat
BBQ Dinner Served

Kick-off a patriotic weekend with a spirited Shabbat service and some music from the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Friday, July 8
And God Laughed: The Pathway to Understanding our Relationship to the Divine
A Study Session with Rabbi Black

Friday, July 15
Billy Jonas in Concert

Throw out the rules when the Billy Jonas Band hits the stage! It’s a musical conversation… a sonic celebration… a splendidorous gathering of old and young, because at a Billy Jonas show, the ensemble is… everyone! Originally from Chicago, Billy has lived in Asheville for 21 years. His first ensemble, the Oberlin Big Bang Theory, was the testing ground for his brand of recyclable, homemade instruments, and neo-tribal hootenanny-ism.

Friday, August 5
(Volunteer Appreciation Shabbat)
Joanie Leeds Concert
BBQ Dinner Served

You could say that Joanie found (as in “discovered”) herself managing a Manhattan Gymboree location and singing with and for kids all day long. Life clicked into place when Joanie realized that when she was with children, they transformed themselves into amazing creatures of joy, forgetting how to hold back.

Joanie's songs reflect the sense that life is a joyful adventure. She has produced five full length CDs: City Kid, Challah, I'm A Rock Star, What A Zoo and Joanie's new release, Bandwagon! Joanie has also released a full length DVD, City Kid Live.

Friday, August 12
Ritualizing the Regular: A Study Session with Rabbi Immerman

Come learn how Reform Jews can incorporate traditional Jewish daily rituals into our current routine.

Friday, July 29 • Kumsitz Campfire

JOIN THE TEMPLE CLERGY for a joyous, energetic sing-along around the campfire! Your favorite Shabbat songs, folk songs, Israeli songs, and classic campfire songs will all be part of the mix. Bring your blankets, lawn chairs, and of course your voice as we sing our way through a summer Shabbat evening under the stars. Acoustic instruments are welcome too!
Summer at Temple

By Rabbi Joseph R. Black • black@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 308

In Song of Songs 2:10-12 we find:

“Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.
For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.”

Summer is a time to recharge, to appreciate the warmth of the sun, and savor sweet moments of bliss and renewal. Summer is also a time to dream and plan for the future.

Here at Temple, we are dreaming big. There are many changes taking place in staff, program, and personnel. We are excited to welcome our new Director of Learning and Engagement, Zach Rolf who will begin his tenure on July 1. Zach will be creating a new position that focuses on integrating all aspects of congregational engagement. He will be leading a team that consists of the heads of our Early Childhood Center, Religious School, Shwayder Camp, Youth and Adult Engagement. Our goal is to integrate all of the diverse ways that learning and engagement impacts members of our congregation and community.

In addition, Steve Brodsky will be joining our Clergy team full time as he transitions into the position of Cantorial Soloist on July 1. Although Steve has a long-time connection to Temple, the opportunity to work closely with Cantor Sacks and help to forge a new vision for our music is exciting.

We are busy planning for the introduction of our new High Holy Day Machzor (prayer book), Mishkan HaNefesh. Excitement is building about this wonderful addition to our movement. This new book replaces the Gates of Repentance and brings a modern perspective to ancient texts. It combines non-gender specific English, inspirational readings, opportunities for personal and communal reflection, and new liturgical options that reflect the spiritual life of Reform Judaism in the 21st Century. There will be many opportunities to learn more about Mishkan HaNefesh as the summer progresses.

We also want to encourage you to take advantage of the many programs we will be offering this summer. We look forward to worshipping, celebrating, learning, and growing together.

Have a great summer!
B’shalom V’yididut (In peace and friendship)!

My First Year as Executive Director

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

As of June 1, 2015 I will have been the Executive Director of Temple Emanuel and what a year it has been! I have learned, worked, emailed, met, spoken, planned with our wonderful staff and congregants. I have experienced new things I could not even imagine a year ago. This summer at Temple is going to be a great one. As you can see in our Summer Bulletin, Temple has so much lined up; learning opportunities with our clergy, Shabbat concerts, Shwayder Camp, ECC camp, hikes, and other activities. Before you know it, the High Holy Days will be upon us. I hope to engage with more of you this summer and I look forward to new summer experiences with our Temple kehillah! Thank you for being so warm and welcoming to me and family. We are truly grateful!

Our New Communications Director

Matt Baline is an anthropologist, a strategist, a user experience designer, and a technologist. He has a B.A. in rhetoric from Bates College and an M.S. in applied anthropology from the University of North Texas.

In his last position, as Strategy Director at a digital marketing agency, he managed the team responsible for research, strategy, and user experience work across global accounts.

As Communications Director at Temple Emanuel, Matt plans to focus on improving how the Temple uses all channels of communication, especially digital ones. He would love to hear your thoughts on the best ways for the Temple to reach (and listen!) to you! He can be contacted at baline@EmanuelDenver.org.
Beginning this year, Temple Emanuel will use the new High Holy Days prayer book, Mishkan HaNefesh (“The Sanctuary of the Soul). The new book has incorporated many of the innovations that have become central to our worship – including gender sensitive language, transliteration of the Hebrew, opportunities for personal reflection and meditation.

Switching from one prayer book to another is an expensive proposition. Fortunately, we have received two generous gifts from congregants that will cover two thirds of the cost. To purchase the remaining prayer books, we are giving individuals an opportunity to commemorate a life-cycle event or to honor or memorialize a loved one. The cost to dedicate a prayer book set (Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur) is $75. To order and dedicate a set either go to www.EmanuelDenver.org/prayerbooks and complete the online form or complete this order form and return to Temple. (For additional names, attach a separate sheet.)

Celebrate Shavuot!

Finding Your Place in the Torah: It Could be Verse

Saturday, June 11, 6:00 p.m.-11:30 p.m.

EAT, 6:00 p.m.

Join us for a dairy meal, $10/person. Reserve your spot by Wednesday, June 8, by emailing veta@EmanuelDenver.org or calling Sura at 303.388.4013. Or, you can bring your own dairy meal.

WORSHIP, 7:00 p.m.

An inspired, creative worship experience crossing traditions.

TALK, 8:00 p.m.

Whose Verse Is It Anyway? A Community-Inspired Panel Presentation led by Rabbi Joe Black

INDULGE, 9:00 p.m.

Cheesecake tasting and judging – bring your favorite cheesecake to share!

LEARN, 9:30 p.m.

Decode, compare, reflect, engage with multiple study options.

HARMONIZE, 10:30 p.m.

End the evening with spirited song.

Habitat Interfaith Alliance

Habitat Interfaith Alliance next fundraiser is our golf tournament. This event will be Monday, June 13 at Inverness Golf Course and Resort. Online registration address is: birdeasepro.com/habitatgolfclassic

There is additional information on this site for sponsorships and donations. This will be a fabulous event for such a worthy cause.

Temple's build day will be Sunday, July 24. The new hours for the build are 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We will partner with Temple Sinai again this year. HIA will build a townhouse at I-70 and Chambers Road, the Sable Ridge development. This will be a home for a single mom and three children.

We will post the signup info in the weekly enotes as soon as it's available.

The Modern Life of an Israeli

JEWISHcolorado's Schlichah, Osnat Fox, serves as Colorado's Israeli Emissary and will present everything you want to know about modern Israel, culture, life and politics. Followed by Q&A.

Tuesday, June 21st - 1 pm at Temple Emanuel
RSVP: Sara, 720.382.7842 or KOTR@kavodseniorlife.org
For other dates on the Road programs and events, or for general questions, please call 720.382.7842 or email KOTR@kavodseniorlife.org

The Music of the Torah: Learning to Chant

5 Wednesdays, June 8, 15, 22, July 6, & 13
6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. · Cantor Sacks

Interested in learning to chant Torah for our congregation? Curious about the musical system of the Torah, known as Torah Trope or Cantillation? Join Cantor Sacks for a synagogue skills workshop on learning the system behind reading from the Torah. No experience is necessary.
Youth Engagement
By Robyn Kaplan • kaplan@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 348

We had a great year this year with Emanukids and Jewniors to Frankel Club and FCTYG. Interested in having your child get involved in Temple's youth groups? Contact me. Have a great summer!

The following is from graduating senior, Randi Velick, reflecting on her time in NFTY and FCTYG.

My Time in NFTY & FCTYG
By Randi Velick

After graduating high school, I can now reflect on my time in NFTY and FCTYG, the youth group here at Temple Emanuel.

“Kehillah Kidosha.” This is the title of my favorite NFTY song. The words translate to “Holy Community,” and over the years, I have found my own holy community while singing this song. Coming into such a big community can be intimidating—especially as a socially awkward 15-year-old. There were new songs I hadn’t learned, faces I’d never seen before, and a new language I’d never even heard of. When I began in FCTYG as a freshman, I never imagined I could become so attached to a place. I heard of this magical connection with NFTY, but I didn’t understand it. While it was fun, it was more of something I did. That all changed March of my junior year when after months of planning, the Junior Youth Group event that I had been planning came together. After that, my whole world shifted. I found my people and my place to call home. I started hanging out with my NFTY friends more than school friends. I picked prom with them over my own. Being a part of FCTYG and NFTY has changed my life because of the people it has brought me: My friends, my youth group. Together, they all make up an amazing community I have loved being a part of for the last 4 years. I don’t know where I would be without them. And I am proud to say, I am now officially fluent in the NFTY language.

NFTY stands for North American Federation of Temple Youth, and it is the umbrella organization for which Friedman Club Temple Youth Group, or FCTYG, belongs.

SHWAYDER CAMP

Shwayder Mishlachat
By Jodie Abrams • abrams@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 314

A couple months ago I had the privilege of traveling to Israel to meet and help train our 2016 Israeli Staff at the Jewish Agency for Israel’s annual Summer Sh’lichim program training seminar at Kibbutz Shefayim. Our mishlachat (delegation) is made up of seven Israelis who will be working at Shwayder this summer as either counselors or wranglers. They spent four days learning what it means to work at Jewish summer camp in America as well as getting to know each other. The most special piece of the seminar is celebrating a camp style Shabbat together along with all of the Israeli staff who will be working at the URJ (Union for Reform Judaism) and Reform Synagogue owned camps, about 400 people in all. It was incredible!

Important Visitors’ Day Information – Sunday, June 12 at Temple Emanuel

As you may know, we have been making some incredible improvements to our facility. We started last year with installing our new state-of-the-art athletic field and are in the process of replacing two new camper cabins, a new cabin for our Staff-In-Training, and a new barn. In our effort to ensure that we are ready to welcome our campers this summer and provide an opportunity for our camp families to meet the 2016 staff, we will be hosting Visitors’ Day, Sunday, June 12 at Temple Emanuel instead of up at camp. Visitors’ Day this year will be a BBQ from 12:30 p.m. -2:30 p.m. at Temple Emanuel with fun camp games, song session, lunch by our very talented chef, and all of the staff present to meet and greet. We will have an opportunity at the end of the summer, Saturday, August 13, to see camp, the new buildings, and experience more Shwayder Magic for “Shabbat @ Shwayder.”
Summertime at the ECC
By Susan Wartchow • wartchow@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 319

Summer is a magical time in the life of a child. What is even better is watching children enjoy the simple moments of summer. Whether they are sifting sand in the sandbox or watching butterflies break free of a chrysalis; the awe and sheer joy in a child’s face is enough to make you realize the beauty of our world. At our Early Childhood Center, we are focusing on the natural world, Tikkun Olam, and enjoying life’s simple moments!

Summer Calendar:
Monday, June 6 – Friday, June 24: Summer Session 1
Friday, June 10 – 6:00 p.m. Young Family Shabbat Experience (YFSE)
Saturday, June 18 – 9:00 a.m. Young Family Shabbat Experience (YFSE)

Friday, August 5 – 6:00 p.m. Young Family Shabbat Experience (YFSE)
Friday, August 20 – 9:00 a.m. Young Family Shabbat Experience (YFSE)

The 2016-2017 school year begins on Monday, August 22.

Come On In – It’s Your Library!
By Rita Dahlke • dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

Celebrating the end of another year! Around 100 people participated in the book clubs, classic movies, classic cuisine, library havurah activities, and meet the author programs! I look forward to having you join us next year as the library programs continue to grow. Are you part of a havurah who needs suggestions for movies or topics to discuss? Do you have an idea for a library program? Stop by the library and explore some options. Join the library planning committee to help organize upcoming fall programs & schedule. Contact me at 303.388.4013 or dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org.

Don’t forget the library for your summer enjoyment! Enjoy reading a good mystery, romance, or historical fiction. Listen to some Jewish music, practice a new recipe for the High Holy Days or Sukkot, practice your Hebrew, or watch a movie on a stormy night.

Welcome Summer!

By Greg Ostravich • greg.ostravich@gmail.com or brotherhood@EmanuelDenver.org

We honored Brotherhood Member Will Trachman as our outstanding Brotherhood member of the year with the Morris E. Adelstein Award. Will has taken the lead on the Rabbi Earl S. Stone and Rabbi Maurice Zigmond scholarships, the Milstein Award for outstanding male confirmand, the Mitzvah Day BBQ planning, and records the minutes at our board meetings.

The Milstein Award recipient was announced in May at Confirmation (at the time of printing the recipient had not been announced). Go to the Brotherhood page on the Temple website for details on applying for our Rabbi Earl S. Stone & Rabbi Maurice Zigmond scholarships.

As always our Brotherhood blood drive is one of our biggest successes throughout the year. This year was no different. Thank you to the Temple Congregation for donating. Thank Howard Pitler for taking over for Matthew Heit.

BBQ’s are big with Brotherhood! We fired up the grills for Mitzvah Day and will be assisting in the Religious School Back-to-School BBQ in the late summer.

Our softball team is up and running! We are hoping for another awesome season. Brandon Reichsweet is the leader for our Temple Athletics and can be reached at brandon.reichsweet@gmail.com if you are interested in joining.

Have a great summer!

Sisterhood Greetings!

By Laurie Prieve • LauriePrieve@gmail.com

Hello! My name is Laurie Prieve, and I am honored and excited to be your new Sisterhood President. My goal as your President is to get more young women involved so that our Sisterhood will continue to thrive well into the future. We have an amazing board this year including new members Lynn Cooper and Barb Schwartz—who were installed in a lovely ceremony on Wednesday, June 1. I know that all of the wonderful women on the board are going to work very hard for you to ensure that this is a great year for Sisterhood. We do not have any scheduled events over the summer, but we will have a programming planning meeting in June. If you have ideas for programming, please e-mail me at LauriePrieve@gmail.com.

We will once again be doing our "Honey from the Heart" fundraiser for the High Holy Days. Beginning in early June you can buy an 8oz. jar for $11. Shipping is free if ordered before Friday, July 29 (shipping is $4 after that). Contact Pamm Gross at 303.771.0362 or pammgr@comcast.net for questions. Look for more details in the Temple enotes.

This year we will continue to send packages to college students around the holidays. If you have a college-aged student, please send their name and address to Jamie Idelberg at jamie.idelberg@childrenscolorado.org. The students love to get these packages in the mail. I still have some of the goodies that I received when I was a college student.

Be sure to watch for your Sisterhood membership invitation in August. We hope that you’ll join Sisterhood this year as every woman makes a difference!

Sisterhood Giftshop

We are very excited to announce that we are now selling “Hebrew Name Necklaces” and “Hebrew Birthstone Necklaces.” They both come from Israel with your Hebrew name on them and on one of them will have your birthstone. These are wonderful bat mitzvah, birthday, or anniversary gifts. There is a four-week delivery, so please think ahead. Also in our gift shop are new, colorful, dichro glass serving pieces made by a Judaica artist. For all you Broncos lovers, we have kippot and mezuzahs for your home and car. Come in and see all our new collections of mezuzahs. If you have a child that will be bar/bat mitzvah, visit us, and create a registry! We also have registries for weddings.

HOURS
Monday – Thursday: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Friday: 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Sunday: Closed
KADDISH LIST

The names listed below are taken from the memorial plaques in the Meditation Room. Names are read at the Friday evening and Saturday morning Shabbat services following the date of death. To find out how to purchase a plaque, contact Patricia Lackner, ext. 308. To have other names read on a Friday evening, call the Temple by Friday noon.

GOT TUNA?
Jewish Family Service depends on us for tuna.
Thank you for continuing to bring in cans of tuna when you come to Temple!

Mazal Tov to the Confirmation Class of 5776

With great pride and joy, we celebrate the accomplishment of the Confirmation Class of 5776. Through weeks of thoughtful discussions and new experiences, we watched them become a community of learners. We wish them luck, strength, and continued success as they journey onward to become the next generation of Jewish learners.
