I have a confession to make: I am addicted to my iPhone. Inside of this incredible device, I have access to a phone, a calculator, a still and video camera, a guitar tuner, a television, a complete video library, unlimited information through the internet, games, and just about anything else that the increasingly diverse number of apps that are available can provide. It is so versatile that I can’t put it down. I know that I am not alone. Many of us crave the constant stimulation that our smart phones provide.

In a society obsessed with multi-tasking, the festival of Hanukah provides us with a powerful lesson about focus. In the Mishnah, we learn that the lights of the Hanukiah—the Hanukah menorah—cannot be used for a utilitarian purpose. We cannot read or become warmed by their light. We cannot use them for any purpose other than to appreciate their beauty and remember the miracle of the eight days that the oil in the Temple burned. In a very real sense, the Hanukiah forces us to remove all of distractions of daily life, and concentrate on appreciating the miraculous nature of the world around us.

How often do we step back from the many devices, obsessions, and worries that pull us in multiple directions? When was the last time we felt fully focused on those areas of our lives that are most important? The lights of the Hanukiah teach us to appreciate the goodness in our lives. We are forbidden from deriving any purpose other than that of taking them in, and remembering the importance of our freedom.

I recently saw an iPhone app that lights a menorah for those who don't have access to one. I suppose that this is a good thing, but it also makes me a bit sad. This year, when we light our menorahs, let us pledge to take the time to truly appreciate the wonder and beauty of our festival. In this way, we honor both the past and revel in the present.

Chag Sameach!
GRATITUDE

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

Our year has just begun; and it has started with so many blessings. We have welcomed Lulu Rolf and Maggie Immerman to our happy family. Mazel tov to the Rolfs and Immermans! With the High Holy Days just behind us, I want to acknowledge the work of our incredible team. The clergy, staff, and volunteers spent countless hours to create deeply meaningful services and elevate the High Holy Day experience for our community. And you, all of our wonderful members and families, have helped to start our year out strong by participating in Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services, followed by the celebration of Sukkot and Simchat Torah.

As you can imagine, it takes an incredible amount of thoughtful planning, preparation and energy to create the warm and meaningful experiences that we all enjoy at Temple Emanuel and Shwayder Camp. For that I would like to extend my gratitude and acknowledge our incredible clergy and our Shwayder Camp team. In addition, our youth programming was incredibly well-received, based on enthusiastic feedback from the families. Thank you to our education staff for their vision and orchestration which made this a special time for our young families. I also would like to thank our dedicated professional staff for their tireless efforts in helping make the High Holy Days run so smoothly.

I would be remiss if I did not mention specifically the work of Cairo Lopez and his custodial staff along with Nathan Deason and his security team. If you pass them in the hallways, please extend your thanks!

And finally, a heartfelt thank you to our Board of Trustees and countless volunteers.

As you can see, it is no small task to prepare for the many services and programs that go on during these busy times and throughout the year. Thank you, everyone. We could not do it without you!

I’ll close by saying that we all love the work that we do. It is our life’s purpose. It is our mission to help you make Temple a central and meaningful part of your life, as you are what brings life to Temple Emanuel.

We look forward to seeing you often throughout the year. If you are trying to find a way to get involved that suits you, please feel free to call me or our Director of Adult Engagement, Sarah Brown, so that we can help to make your connection to Temple Emanuel meaningful.

We look forward to hearing from you!

A Sincere Thank You

The Board of Trustees knows that it takes a lot of effort on behalf of many to make our High Holy Days so meaningful and enriching. We would like to thank The Ruby and Michael, Erma and Nate Baum Pulpit Fund, Carl and Richard Tucker Music Fund, and Richard and Marcia Robinson and Edward and Susan Robinson for the financial support that enhances and enriches our worship. Thank you to all who provided technical support this year. Shawn Wall, who handled our sound in the sanctuary and Doug Velick along with Spectrum AV, who assisted us with our visual tefilah, and to all of the professional musicians and the High Holy Day Choir who truly brought our worship experience to new heights. Of course, we would like to thank our clergy team, who dedicate themselves to providing us all with the opportunity for spiritual renewal, and our executive director, Steve Stark, who handled all of the action behind the scenes as well as dozens of last minute ticket requests, with grace and humor. We thank each of them individually and collectively.

Our religious education, youth, and camp team ensured that worship at Shwayder Camp and the activities for the younger members were engaging and meaningful. The High Holy Day Experience was a great success in Jewish learning under the leadership of Sheri David and dozens of volunteers. Thank you to the almost 50 individuals who served as ushers and to Andy Thangasamy for coordinating that effort. They made our building welcoming and were there to help whenever issues arose. We are also indebted to the individuals providing security for all of us. Finally, a huge thank you to our building and grounds crews who work to set things up and keep everything running smoothly during our days of prayer and throughout the year.

It takes a team to make this all happen. Steven Stark and Rabbi Black have put together a dynamic group of professionals to enrich our spiritual journey and to create a welcoming environment. Thank you to them all.

—Mark Idelberg, on behalf of the Board of Trustees

LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT

Shabbat B’Yachad

By Zachary Rolf • rolf@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 325

On Friday, November 3 (and then again on every 1st Friday of the month) we will be launching our Shabbat B’Yachad (Shabbat Together) program, geared toward our families with children in grades K–5. In previous years, our monthly Family Shabbat service existed separately from the community Shabbat worship—it was in a different space and at a different time, creating literally two different experiences within the same community. This new model aims to engage more deeply, and in a variety of ways.

Our entire congregation will begin together in the same space—adults, children, couples, individuals, “regulars,” guests, visitors, everyone! Once the service is in full swing, the children will leave, accompanied by teachers and teens, for their own unique experience. At the tail end of the service, the children will rejoin the congregation to close out the evening together again.

What types of activities will the students be doing while the parents are still in the service? I’m so glad you asked!

Since November is the month in which we celebrate Thanksgiving in our secular lives, we will be exploring how we, as Jews, also give thanks! For Shabbat B’Yachad in December, we will explore the theme of “light.” Every month will consist of a variety of activities—from camp-style prayer experiences, to break-out groups working to create skits and videos illustrating our monthly theme, to learning some Israeli dances, and so much more! We are so excited to get this new program started. We can’t wait to see you on Friday, November 3 as we kick it off!

ADULT PROGRAMS

Adult Programs for You!

By Sarah Brown • brown@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 305

Adversity pushes us beyond our limits to where we can grow the most. We can choose to be diminished by life or emboldened. Please join us to explore “The Afterglow of Adversity,” presented by Jane Barton. This the first in the Ageless Adversity program, a four-part lecture series. Jane Barton will kick off the series speaking about how we learn the most in times of trials and tribulations. Join us Tuesday, November 7 from 6:30 p.m.–8:30 p.m.

Jamie Sarche will be presenting the FRONTLINE documentary Being Mortal. Tuesday, December 5 from 7:00 p.m.–8:30 p.m., join us for the documentary and a discussion about the relationships doctors and families have with people who are terminally ill. The discussion will focus on the difficulty of these conversations and how important these conversations are.

Are you a soon-to-be or new empty-nester? Now is your time! Re-engage in the Temple Emanuel community. We are forming a new social group that will participate in Shabbat dinners together, social justice opportunities, travel, and social events. Our first event will be on Sunday, November 5 from 9:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m. We will be volunteering at Jewish Family Food Pantry, followed by brunch at the New York Deli News. Our next event will be a Hanukah Party at Elizabeth and Ron Bendalin’s home on Sunday, December 17 at 6:00 p.m. We look forward to having you join us!

Last Mitzvah Day, we engaged over 600 people in over 40 community service projects! This year, we want to expand our Mitzvah Day committee. Mitzvah Day is Sunday, April 22, and we are looking for motivated people who would be interested in helping organize and lead projects for Mitzvah Village (at Temple), offsite community projects, and Jr. Mitzvah Day. If you are looking for a way to become more involved in Temple Emanuel, this is a great opportunity. Meetings take place once a month and then more frequently as Mitzvah Day get closer.

Message from FCTYG Co-Presidents

Shalom Temple Emanuel! Our names are Hannah Presken and Ben Kastrul and we are excited to serve as the 2017–2018 Presidents for Friedman Club Temple Youth Group (better known as FCTYG). We kicked off the year with our Board Retreat doing putt-putt bonding and ended with redressing the Torahs for the High Holy Days. While each board member has their own personal goals, we as a youth group wish to become well-known at Temple and really have an impact as teen leaders.

We have awesome events coming up and hope to see many new teens! We will be kicking off autumn by having two events where we’ll visit a haunted corn maze and enjoy a Shabbat service. One of our biggest events: our annual trip to Elitch Gardens for Fright Fest! In December, we would love to see you for our Hanukkah White Elephant Party in December!

We look forward to having many new faces and cannot wait for what the second semester will hold!

Hanukah & Light
By Susan Wartchow • wartchow@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 319

Have you ever wondered how a young child sees and perceives Hanukah? We think about this at the ELC as we explore the big idea of light. Teachers create light experiences for the children to explore and play in. It becomes a place to investigate the properties of light through experimentation and discovery as well as an exploration full of amazement, wonderment and gratitude.

Children explore questions like:
- What is light?
- Where does it come from?
- Can you see through items that are lit?
- What does it mean to have a light inside you?

All powerful thoughts when you are 1–5 years old! The intent throughout is to develop a culture of inquiry, reflection, and dialogue to enhance children's learning. Magical!

Join us for our annual HANUKAH HOOPLA, Friday, December 15!
Please see the details on our front cover for all the information!!!
