With great pride and joy, we celebrate the accomplishment of the Confirmation Class of 5778. Through weeks of thoughtful discussions and new experiences, we watched them become a community of learners. We wish them luck, strength, and continued success as they journey onward to become the next generation of Jewish learners. Copyright David Faingold Photography.

Celebrate Shabbat at Temple Emanuel!

Join us for these exciting summer worship special events! Each of these guest artists will perform during the 7:00 p.m. picnic dinner following our 6:00 p.m. summer worship service.

Friday, June 8
Rabbi Naomi Levy

Rabbi Naomi Levy is a best-selling author and nationally noted speaker on revitalizing faith, spirituality, healing and prayer. The founder and leader of Nashuva, a groundbreaking Jewish spiritual outreach movement based in Los Angeles, Rabbi Levy was named one of the “Top 50 Rabbis in America” by Newsweek and has appeared on NBC’s Today Show, The Oprah Winfrey Show, and NPR. She was in the first class of women to enter the Jewish Theological Seminary’s rabbinical school, and the first woman in the Conservative movement to head a congregation on the West Coast. Rabbi Levy will be the keynote speaker at Kavod Senior Life’s L’Chaim Conference, and will speak following Shabbat services.

Friday, June 15
Young Family Shabbat Experience with Magician Keir Royale

Following our usual Young Family Shabbat Experience service, stay for a bring-your-own-picnic dinner and be entertained by award-winning Denver magician Keir Royale, whose amazing feats of magic, mentalism, and humor are sure to amuse and delight children and adults alike.

Friday, July 13
Nefesh Mountain in Concert

With “the sound of Appalachia and the soul of Judaism,” Nefesh Mountain is the place where bluegrass and old-time music meet with Jewish heritage and tradition. Husband-and-wife team Eric Lindberg and Doni Zasloff, pioneers of this new blend of spiritual American music, bring their unique knowledge and passion for these beautiful worlds to the fore with songs in English and Hebrew alike. Their new album Beneath the Open Sky, recorded in Nashville with some of bluegrass music’s top players, has been called “a soulful, euphoric, folk-flavored outpouring of hope and joy.” Nefesh Mountain is one of the most sought-after acts in Jewish music today, and we are excited to welcome their soulful sound for a post-services outdoor concert at Temple Emanuel.

Friday, August 3
Kumsitz Campfire with Steve Brodsky

Join the Temple clergy for a joyous, energetic sing-along around the campfire! Your favorite Shabbat songs, folk songs, Israeli songs, and classic campfire songs will all be part of the mix. Bring your blankets, lawn chairs, and of course your voice as we sing our way through a summer Shabbat evening under the stars. Acoustic instruments are welcome too!

Friday, August 10
Volunteer Appreciation Shabbat with Elana Arian

We are thrilled to welcome multi-instrumentalist, composer, and recording artist Elana Arian to join us for a special Shabbat service recognizing our many volunteers, followed by a concert performance. Elana studied conducting and violin, jazz guitar, and songwriting at Yale and has performed at some of the most celebrated concert halls in the country, including Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Tanglewood, and the White House. Elana inspires communities across the country with her soulful music, and has collaborated with some of the leading voices in contemporary Jewish music, including Dan Nichols, Josh Nelson, Noah Aronson, and Debbie Friedman.
Israel

By Rabbi Joseph R. Black • black@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 308

I write this article on the eve of leaving for Israel. Sue and I will be spending a week by ourselves and then we will be joined by 14 Temple Emanuel members for what will certainly be a memorable “Food, Wine and Culture” trip. I look forward to sharing our experience at Shabbat services on Friday, June 29.

Any time I go to Israel my thoughts revolve around multiple levels of awareness. I look forward to reconnecting with the land and people who have shaped my Judaism, my Zionism and my character. My first exposure to Israel was in 1975. I was part of a 6-month exchange program called the Eisendrath Israel Exchange (EIE). Now called Heller High School in Israel, this program has been part of the Reform Movement for over 55 years and is still going strong. While I was on EIE, I lived with an Israeli family, went to an Israeli High School, learned to speak Hebrew and immersed myself in Israeli culture. The love that I have for this amazing country was forged during my teen-age years and continues to this day.

One cannot only experience Israel on a personal level. As Jews, walking on Israeli soil is also a profound religious encounter during which we directly confront ancient and modern Jewish history. Jews do not experience Israel as tourists. We become pilgrims who are physically and spiritually connecting the dots of our history and identity. To walk the streets of Jerusalem, or stand on top of Masada and view the beauty of the Negev is to understand what it means to come home—one and for all. The words “Next Year in Jerusalem” that conclude the Passover Seder are never more poignant than when we know we actually can carry out this religious obligation in person.

The third level of experiencing Israel, of course, revolves around the ever-changing political dynamics of the Middle East. In her 70 years of existence as a State, Israel has gone through wars, triumph, and tragedy. As important as the Zionist Ideal is to modern Jewish self-understanding, our relationship with Israel can also be polarizing. There are those who claim that criticism of Israel is an act of treason and self-hatred. Others perceive many of Israel’s policies as unacceptable and are quick to condemn actions that do not reflect their understanding of what a Jewish State should be. I fall in neither of these camps. While I do not always agree with the decisions of the current government, and have not been hesitant to share my disagreements, I also know that there is a level of nuance, historical, and strategic complexity that underpin every aspect of the multiple conflicts that occur daily. Israel’s enemies are quick to demonize specific actions and reactions which, if taken out of context, appear to be brutal and unethical. Some are. Some are not. I firmly believe that I have a right to criticize, but with that right comes a responsibility to see beyond kneejerk reactions and dig deeply into both context and perspective.

Over the course of the summer, I have no doubts that Israel will be in the news—often for reasons that are unfortunate. I hope that each of you will take the time to go beyond the headlines and try to see what is happening in the context of your personal relationship with Israel, historical appreciation and a critical eye that takes into account multiple sources of understanding.

I look forward to seeing you upon my return.

L’Shalom.
On Philanthropy

By Francie Miran • miran@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 335

We have spent much of this past year, since the High Holy Days talking about our new annual financial commitment model, Kehila 1874. I think this is a perfect name for this new model as Kehila means community, which is so important to us here at Temple; and 1874 was the year of our founding, helping us remember the great history of this congregation.

As we have shared with you, Kehila 1874 will:

• Enable Temple Emanuel to carry out our mission with increased efficiency, intent, and scope.
• Enhance our operational excellence, programming, and services.
• Introduce a series of opportunities for members at each level.
• Establish the sustaining level per household to meet our members’ needs and desires. With a spirit of generosity and commitment to Jewish values, those who can give more will enable our congregation to experience cutting edge Jewish practice, tradition, values, culture and education without finances standing in the way. No one will ever be turned away from Temple Emanuel for financial reasons.
• Set in place a system for all levels of giving that also recognizes volunteerism and in-kind contributions.

The professional staff at Temple have had many conversations with our congregants about Kehila 1874 and the question we hear the most often is: “How will Temple look different with Kehila 1874?” We understand that we can’t ask you to make this commitment without a feeling for what the impact will be. So here are some examples of our striving for excellence.

• Increased access to pastoral care by clergy for congregants in need
• Greater general clergy access (particularly for B’nai Mitzvah families, other life moments, etc.)
• More meaningful programming and expansion in our religious school and the ability to continue to significantly subsidize religious school to educate our children
• More music, streaming and technology for worship and programming
• Expanded communications so Temple members can know what is happening here through the information channels that work for them.
• Even more targeted and robust programming
• Continued ability to provide assistance to families that cannot afford Temple dues and to create scholarships for needy families for Shwayder Camp, the Early Learning Center, and other programs.

We are so gratified that the response from the congregation has been so positive. Since we began our discussions about it, more than 100 families have already made their commitment in advance of our next fiscal year beginning July 1. And we have been particularly grateful for members who stepped up based on their capacity.

You recently received a letter from us asking you to make your Kehila 1874 commitment for the upcoming fiscal year. I hope you will put some thought into this and make your commitment to the future of our amazing congregation. For more information, visit our website www.emanueldenver.org/kehila-1874.

Steve Stark and I are always glad to talk to you about your commitment and answer any questions you may have. Please feel free to reach out to us.
Financial Strength

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

We are so excited that summer is upon us! Temple Emanuel always has an exciting schedule of events and opportunities to enjoy the summer together, as you can see in this bulletin. As we approach summer, it also reminds me that our fiscal year is coming to a close. With the fiscal year ending in June and our budget in place for next year, I want to convey how vitally important each person and family is to the continued success of Temple Emanuel.

The annual financial commitment from each of our members is critically important for the health of the congregation, in all aspects of the important work that we do from operations to facilities and programming to worship. Membership dues allow us to properly maintain our campus and create excellence in worship, programming and special events. Temple has always been managed in a fiscally responsible manner and we can only continue to be innovative and expand our offerings, if everyone pays their fair share. At this time of year, please be sure your dues are current; and if you feel you can give a little extra this year, that would be appreciated.

As you are thinking about your annual commitment to Temple Emanuel and being a contributing member of our sacred community, please remember to commit to our new Kehila 1874 annual financial commitment program, as we enter the new fiscal year in July (For more information see p. 7).

Thank you for being part of this vibrant and growing community. May we go from strength to strength.

Have you been considering updating your estate plans?

Religious School

By Zach Rolf • rolf@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 325

While you are reading this bulletin, we are busy putting the finishing touches on our 2018-2019 academic calendar. Before we know it, we’ll be welcoming back all of our respective students and our building will be abuzz with the sounds of families, adult learners, and students of all ages!

The 2017-2018 year saw some changes in our programming – most notably, we added many elements to our Religious School program that were highlighted in the last bulletin. This year we are looking forward to continuing upon our successes while focusing our efforts in other areas including:

- Teacher Training: For us to achieve our goals for how best to educate our students, we need to make sure we are offering our educators a variety of opportunities to fine-tune their planning process to include a heightened attention to creating experiential opportunities throughout the year.

- Community Building: One of our major goals is for families to find connection through their participation in our programming. While the Religious School program primarily focuses on our students, we recognize the power in connection between all members of the family and their Jewish community.

We are looking forward to continued growth in everything that we do. We have received a tremendous amount of support and feedback from our congregant families, and we urge you to continue passing that feedback along.

If you have yet to (re-)enroll your child(ren) for Religious School, please take a few minutes and head to our website to complete the registration form as soon as possible. As always, my door is open to meet and find out how our programming can be most impactful to our families.

Summer Adult Programs

By Sarah Brown • brown@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 305

Happy Summer! I hope you are enjoying our wonderful weather and outdoor activities. During summer at Temple Emanuel, I spend a lot of time working with perspective new members. It is a very simple process to become a member at Temple Emanuel. I coordinate all meetings with perspective members either in person or over the phone. During the meeting, I get to know them a little and find out what they are interested in, and what they are looking to be involved in at Temple Emanuel. We discuss Kehila 1874 and then they can fill out paperwork and are good to go. If you know of someone who might be interested in becoming a member at Temple Emanuel, please send them my way!

Are you searching for a sense of community? We are searching for people to spearhead/lead some new chavurot at Temple Emanuel. We are looking for congregants to organize and lead a New to Denver Chavurah, LGBTQ Chavurah for families, and a chavurah for people age 65 and older. If you have other ideas for chavurot that you would like to lead, please let me know.

We will be running another Grief/Loss Group during July and August. This group will focus on coping with the death of a loved one. The group meets on Tuesday evenings, July 10–August 14 from 6:30–8:00 p.m. at Temple Emanuel. Laurie Picus, licensed MSW and Temple Emanuel member will be facilitating this group. If you are interested in joining this group or any of the items above please contact me at brown@EmanuelDenver.org or 303.388.4013, ext. 305. I look forward to hearing from you!

We Are Officially Open for the 2018 Season!

By Jodie Abrams • abrams@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 314

Come be a part of our 69th season on Sunday, June 10 for Visitors’ Day from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity to meet the staff, see the facilities, and experience a little Shwayder Magic. Visitors’ Day is open to everyone with breakfast and lunch included. No RSVP necessary.

Save The Date for our “Post Summer Celebration” at Shwayder. Sunday, August 19, we will have an open house for new families interested in camp. Check out our facilities, try out our activities and spend the afternoon at 10,200 feet.

Even though we are just kicking off the 2018 season, we wanted to let you know that for 2019, we will be offering an early registration for Temple Emanuel families and returning campers. Sign up for Summer 2019 starting Monday, August 6 and lock in the 2018 prices. Don’t miss out on your chance to reserve your child’s spot for next summer. Please keep in mind registration will be open to all families starting Monday, September 3 with a price increase. Keep an eye out in the e-notes and for the 2019 brochure coming in August.

Don’t forget to follow all our summer fun on Facebook at www.facebook.com/MauriceBShwayderCamp and on Instagram at ShwayderCamp.

Youth Engagement

Young Professionals and More This Summer

By Megan Garrett • garrett@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 348

While kids and teens are on family vacations or enjoying their summer at Shwayder Camp, we are missing them at Temple Emanuel! We’re still offering occasional programs—like baseball games and movie nights! Check our website for more details.

When the kids are away, the adults play! Hineini Project is Temple Emanuel’s young professionals group, and we have a full summer calendar. Any Jewish young professional (ages 21–36) in the Denver/Boulder area is welcome to join us. We have couples communities and singles events. We also have a new-to-Denver series! We’ll be hiking every month and meeting up at the park for Shabbat too! As always, if you have questions or want to get involved, please email me at garrett@EmanuelDenver.org.

For updated dates and times, check our website or join our Facebook group, “Temple Emanuel’s Hineini Project.”

Young Professionals Group
Summer at the ELC

By Susan Wartchow • wartchow@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 319

Summer is a magical and inspiring time at the ELC. We naturally slow down and relax which creates in-depth exploration that is full of intention and discovery. Because of this, I wonder why we don’t do this year round? We often get caught up in these preconceived notions about what “has to be accomplished” and “what must be completed,” that we forget the simple beauty of… the journey of life. Children never forget this. Just spend time watching them in a sandbox. They will spend hours sifting through the fine grains or watching an ant make its way through a mound of sand piled high. The awe and sheer joy in a child’s face is enough to make you realize that slowing down and literally “taking the world in” is something we all need to do.

This summer we will focus on our natural world and Tikkun Olam. Whether it is exploring and cultivating our garden beds (check out our new greenhouse—thanks to funding from Hazon and the Staenberg Family Foundation), or enjoying the summer sun, you are sure to see smiles, laughter and lots of sand in our early learning center!

LIBRARY

A Week in the Library

By Rita Dahlke • dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

I open the door, switch on the light, and enjoy a few minutes of quiet. In a few minutes I’ll hear the little ones coming down the hall on the way to story time. It is so much fun reading them stories, and watching them grow, and seeing their language skills develop. It is a great way to start the day. My hat switches after story time to the students and teachers in the Religious School making sure everyone has materials for Sunday classes. Sunday has such high energy. The library is buzzing with students, doing research, enjoying stories, and playing in the play area. My day is not over until I turn my attention to my frequent adult visitors coordinating book clubs, movie events, guest speakers, and social events. I have had an inquiry for a day time book club. Are you interested? The writing group is looking for a few people to join them on Tuesday afternoons. Do you like leading discussions? Know anything about movies? I am interested in hearing what kind of programs you would like to help plan and participate in this upcoming year. You can reach me at dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org or give me a call, and let’s chat.

Sisterhood News

By Laurie Prieve • LauriePrieve@gmail.com

Thank you to everyone who attended our installation and brunch! Installation was lovely and interesting thanks to our special guest Cyndi Silver, the owner of Mitzvah Magic. She discussed party planning and taught us some useful things for our next events! We also installed our new board of directors including our new President Barb Schwartz! We are excited for the next year as we have a great board.

Our year of events has come to a close but we will be getting together over the summer to plan next year’s fabulous events. Please email me if you have any ideas/requests for events! Keep an eye out in your mailbox in August for our membership mailing and check the Sisterhood website for updates. We hope to see you at events starting in September!

Sisterhood’s Women’s Retreat at Shwayder Camp!
Saturday, September 15-Sunday, September 16

Join us for a wonderful time at our own Shwayder Camp! We will carpool from Temple around 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 15. We will have lunch together at camp, enjoy time getting to know each other and “play” around camp, have dinner, participate in a havdalah service, sleep in one of the beautiful new cabins, enjoy breakfast in the morning, and leave camp around 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, September 16.

We would love for you to join us for some or all of this fabulous weekend! The cost will be $50 for the whole retreat for Sisterhood members and $60 for non-members (or $15 per meal that you attend), but you will not pay until August. Please sign up to attend at www.tinyurl.com/shwayder by Friday, August 10. Email jrothman11@gmail.com if you have any questions or would like to help plan this event!

Honey from the Heart Is Currently Accepting Orders!

Buy jars of honey that will be sent to your loved ones (with a personalized greeting) for Rosh HaShanah! Each jar of 8oz. kosher honey costs $12 and if you order by Wednesday, July 11 that cost includes shipping (after Wednesday, July 11 shipping costs $5 extra). Order online at www.orthoney.com/DEN by Wednesday, August 15 for guaranteed delivery by Rosh HaShanah. Contact Pamm Gross at 303.771.0362 or pammgr@comcast.net with questions or to place a paper order. Sisterhood receives a portion of the proceeds and the jars of honey are a hit with those who receive them. Thank you in advance for your support.

Sisterhood Gift Shop

As the hot Denver summer approaches don’t forget to buy any gift needs from our Sisterhood Judaica Shop. Rosh HaShanah is very early this year (beginning Sunday evening, September 9) so check the shop for holiday items in August. On another note, I will be retiring from the gift shop in May for a new adventure. I have enjoyed managing and buying for the shop for the last four years. It has been such a pleasure helping you all find that special gift for that special someone.

—Esther Kirsch

Brotherhood in the Summer

By Will Trachman • wtrachman@gmail.com • brotherhood@EmanuelDenver.org

Thanks to all of those who helped us grill up a storm for Mitzvah Day! We had a good time cooking and bonding, while we provided food for the hungry mitzvah-makers.

Congratulations to our Milstein Award recipient and outstanding confirmation student of the year, Rex Foster!

Brotherhood has a busy summer ahead of us. Our softball team starts playing in June. Our scholarship applications for students entering either freshman or sophomore year of college will be due soon. Email President Will Trachman with any questions at wtrachman@gmail.com.
KADDLISH LIST

The names listed below are taken from the memorial plaques in the Meditation Room. Names are read at the Friday evening and Saturday morning Shabbat services following the date of death. To find out how to purchase a plaque, contact Patricia Lackner, ext. 308. To have other names read on a Friday evening, call the Temple by Friday noon.
