6:00 p.m. – Sukkot Family Worship/Consecration
7:30 p.m. – Sukkot/Consecration Dinner

Celebrate Sukkot with us at our Sukkot Family Worship service! All new students in Temple Emanuel Religious School will be honored at a Consecration Service. The children will be called to the bimah and greeted by our clergy. They will each receive a miniature Torah decorated with a cover created by their parent(s). Consecration at Temple Emanuel traditionally marks the official start of a students’ formal Jewish education. It is a special time set aside to wish students success and fulfillment in their years to come. All are invited to join us in the Sukkah following the service for donuts!

Simchat Torah
Sunday, September 30
5:30 p.m. – Pre-Oneg with Donuts
6:00 p.m. – Worship & Dancing
8:00 p.m. – Dinner & Donuts in the Sukkah!

Celebrate with us as we dance and sing in honor of the Torah! We begin with a short, spirited worship service and transition into rejoicing with Torah—with a full band, many rounds of dancing and the unrolling of an entire scroll around our Sanctuary. Families are welcome and encouraged to attend!

5:00 p.m. Lay-Led Shabbat Service

By Rabbi Joseph R. Black • black@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 308

As we begin a New Year of programming at Temple, we take the time to look back at the past year and measure our successes and reevaluate choices that we have made. This coming year will be filled with many new opportunities for learning, prayer, social justice, and connecting with others in a myriad of different ways. Last year, we introduced new paradigms of worship for Shabbat and holidays. On Friday nights, we begin at 5:30 p.m. with a “Pre-Oneg” and continue with a Kabbalat Shabbat service from 6:00–7:15 p.m. By almost all accounts, this service has been very successful. We have seen a substantial rise in attendance on Friday nights and most people appreciate the opportunity to come to Temple, welcome Shabbat, and then either stay on at Temple for dinner and programs that take place on a regular basis or go home for a leisurely Shabbat dinner without the necessity to rushing their meals in order to get to Temple on time for a later service.

In instituting the 6:00 p.m. service and “Pre-Oneg,” we had to make the difficult choice of eliminating the lay-led, early Kabbalat Shabbat services on Friday night. Over the course of the year, we have heard from a significant number of people that they miss this special service. I want you to know that we have heard you and, starting Friday, October 5 we will be once again offering this lay-led service from 5:00–5:30 p.m. The reason for the earlier time is to allow early service participants to join in our 5:30 p.m. “Pre-Oneg”—thereby including everyone who wishes to participate in this half hour of fellowship.

I look forward to an exciting new year. Our new Clergy partners, Rabbis Eliot Baskin and Emily Hyatt will add tremendous energy to our team. I want to encourage all of you to look for new ways to become involved at Temple. Come to Shabbat and holiday services, join a chavurah, participate in Torah or Talmud Study, find a class that speaks to you, volunteer in Family Promise, Mitzvah Day, or other social justice programming that we will be offering. The more involved you get, the more you will find just how amazing our Kehilla Kedosha—our sacred congregation—truly is.

L’Shalom,
Rabbi Joseph R. Black

Shanah Tovah!

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

It is hard to believe that 5779 and the High Holy Days are already upon us. The High Holy Days (and you may already know this about me) are one of my favorite times of year at Temple Emanuel. After our spiritual preparation and the “getting ready” of our facilities, the halls, and sacred spaces are filled with family and friends. It warms my heart to see heartfelt connections between longstanding congregants. It brings me great joy to both welcome many new members into the Temple Emanuel family and watch as our current members extend friendship and hospitality.

On the completion of the High Holy Days, we face new beginnings both personally and as a community. Below is a quick look back at some important things we accomplished together as a community this past year. These successes lay the groundwork for many new and exciting ways to make Temple Emanuel a part of your life in the coming year:

- Our adult programming in 5778 was robust and included well received programs included: Ageless Adversity—a lecture series focusing on later-in-life issues and Bubbie’s Kitchen—an innovative cooking series. We look forward to introducing more compelling programming in the year ahead.

- Adult Education spaces are undergoing a makeover, thanks to the generous gift of Fred and Lundy Reynolds. The spaces are almost complete, and we know already that it will be bright and cheery with a huge boost to technology. We are so thankful to the Reynolds for their tremendous generosity!

- Speaking of spaces—we relished the opportunity to hold services outside, enjoying the beautiful Colorado summer nights and coming together as a community for summer worship that has been chock-full of learning, music, food, and fun.

- This year we launched a new adult group called the “Freebirds.” This group meets both socially and educationally. It is for adults that are entering or almost entering that “empty nester” stage of life, and offers new and different ways to connect to our Temple community.

- The Max Frankel Religious School implemented major changes to the structure of our educational programming. The curriculum focuses on Literacy, Community, and Identity and the program now provides increased flexibility for families with innovations such as Wednesday evening classes, and an optional winter session.

- While the above impacts our member families, we continue to change the lives of families beyond our immediate community with Family Promise when we open our home to our community’s most vulnerable. We provide a safe, welcoming, and supportive space through the tireless efforts of our volunteers, lay leaders, and staff.

It was a busy year at Temple Emanuel with many wonderful things going on. We can look back on 5778 with a great sense of satisfaction. But it is important we continue to evolve. The year ahead is full of promise and new opportunities.

As always, if I can help to make your experience at Temple Emanuel more meaningful, please reach out to me directly. I am happy to speak with you and put you in touch with the director of any particular program. Together we welcome 5779! Shanah Tovah Umitukah—May it be a good and sweet year for all!

Water Shortage

Fairmount Cemetery and Emanuel Cemetery are experiencing severe water-shortage issues because of this year’s low spring run-off, and the maximum volume permitted for sprinkling, based on water-rights. As a result of the water issues, grass-maintenance, and weed-retardation, is not as we would like. Thank you for your understanding. Steve Stark and Frances Goodfriend 303.388.4013
On Philanthropy

By Francie Miran • miran@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 335

When we think of making a charitable gift, our checkbook is often the first thing that comes to mind. But, that is not always an option for everyone. There are other possibilities to consider. If you’ve reached age 70.5 or older, your IRA might be an interesting new source for your philanthropy.

By using a “Qualified Charitable Distribution,” you can make a gift directly from your IRA to Temple Emanuel. A simple letter of instruction is all that’s needed—and as an added benefit—a ‘QCD’ can also fulfill your Required Minimum Distribution for the year.

And with the new tax law, fewer people are expected to itemize their deductions (including those for charitable donations). The QCD option can be a tax-savvy way to make your charitable gifts.

Instead of reaching for the checkbook, consider whether a Qualified Charitable Distribution might make more sense. This is a perfect time of year to discuss this option with your tax advisor. For more information about these gifts or the Live On Society, please contact Francie Miran at miran@EmanuelDenver.org or 303.388.4013, x335.

You Are Cordially Invited

A message from Danny and Becky Foster & David and Allison Foster:

With great pride and joy we invite the Temple community to share a special moment in our lives as our sons Ozzie and Bo, grandsons of Rabbi Steven Foster and Senator Joyce Foster, become a B’nai Mitzvah on Saturday, September 22, 2018. Please join us at 10:30 a.m. for the service and a light Kiddush luncheon to follow. We look forward to celebrating with you!

RSVP to BOandOZZIE@gmail.com

Ushers Requested!

Do you see those smiling, friendly faces greeting you each Friday night for Shabbat services? Even if you don’t regularly attend services, it’s a great way to get involved, help Temple out, and enjoy the service afterwards. We are always in need of more ushers! Please consider volunteering for this important and easy position! It is very enjoyable and easy. Please contact Fredi at fnrteach@yahoo.com and she will be glad to work you into the calendar.
Adult Programs

By Sarah Brown • brown@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 305

We have many exciting programs to offer you this fall. First, we have a film group titled Keeping it Reel with Robyn. We will show films at 6:30 p.m. which inspire conversation about a wide variety of Jewish issues including identity, stereotypes, the Holocaust, and more. The movies are: Waltz with Bashir, Thursday, September 6, The Last Laugh, Thursday, October 4, A Serious Man, Thursday, November 1 and, Ida, Thursday December 6. No RSVP, just show up!

Free Birds Weekend at Shwayder Camp! Do you want to experience the thrill of Shwayder Camp with other adults? We have a special weekend planned for adults with adult children or soon to be adult children looking to reconnect to Temple Emanuel and meet others in the same situation. This special weekend will be Friday, September 28-Sunday, September 30. We will celebrate Shabbat, offer camp activities including hiking, ropes course, and more. Register online at www.EmanuelDenver.org. Cost for the weekend is $125 per person (includes housing, food, and activities). If you have any questions feel free to reach out to me at brown@EmanuelDenver.org.

Kavod on the Road programs are up and running at Temple Emanuel. We will have a movie matinee with Rita in the library on Tuesday, October 16, at 1:00 p.m. with a discussion to follow. Upcoming Kavod programs include The History of Coffee with tasting, latke lunch, and book chats.

Pink Shabbat will be held on Friday, October 19. We will have a guest speaker share her personal survival story and doctors from Rose Medical Center will discuss the importance of genetic testing. Please join us for this moving evening. Make reservations for Shabbat dinner at www.EmanuelDenver.org.

Family Promise will be back at Temple Emanuel from Sunday, October 21-Sunday, October 28. We will be offering a volunteer training session on Sunday, September 30, at 1:30 p.m. Register to volunteer or train at www.EmanuelDenver.org.

Spiritual Support Group for the loss of a loved one will be beginning again on October 30. Laurie Picus, therapist and social worker will be partnering with Rabbi Baskin to offer this group to anyone who has experienced the death of a loved one. This group will focus on coping strategies and spirituality. Our Spiritual Support Group will meet Tuesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. from October 30–December 12. To sign up, contact me at brown@EmanuelDenver.org.

FAMILY PROMISE

By Family Promise Co-Chairs • Lori Kalata, Deb Mayworm, Susie Moss & Sherry Stark

Five years ago we had a dream to engage a diverse group of Temple Emanuel congregants in an impactful Mitzvah Project. Family Promise has fulfilled that dream! Family Promise at Temple Emanuel has completed our 6th host week and we’re heading into weeks 7 & 8 this fall (October 21–28 and Christmas Week—December 23–30).

Each Family Promise host week has over 150 volunteer opportunities, and most of them are about 2 hours. If you’d like to do a mitzvah, several hours with Family Promise at Temple will make a huge difference! You can make a meal, help set up bedrooms in the Temple classrooms, or even do a few loads of laundry. With a little training, you can spend time with these hard working, motivated families and help them get back on their feet.

Volunteer opportunities that provide interaction with families require a 2-hour initial training. Consider holding a newborn so that a mom can eat dinner and take a shower, making crafts with the children in the evening so parents can take a class, or go swimming at the JCC on a Saturday with families that don’t get a chance to go to a pool. Create memories for these families and for yourself! There are many ways to get involved.

We will be holding training sessions for new volunteers this fall. Training, volunteer signup, and other updated information is on our webpage www.emanueldenver.org/social-justice/family-promise.

Please consider joining us on this journey. It’s extremely fun and rewarding!

Anshei Mitzvah: Adult B’nai Mitzvah Program

October 2018-October 2019

Beginning in October 2018, Temple Emanuel will reestablish the Adult B’nai Mitzvah program. With goals of spiritual exploration and growth, deepened Jewish learning, and meaningful community connections, we are so excited to welcome a new cohort of learners into this process.

The Anshei Mitzvah program will be comprised of Torah (study), worship (avodah), and social action (g’milut chasadim). Together we will attend worship and learn Hebrew, participate in community service projects, and engage in meaningful and informative conversations. The Anshei Mitzvah ceremony will take place on October 14, 2019 (First Day of Sukkot).

Components

Youth Engagement News

By Megan Garrett • garrett@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 348

Guess What?! The Youth Lounge is MOVING! Temple Emanuel has a YOUTH LOUNGE? YES WE DO! Before this year, it was tucked away in a corner. Now we have come out to play! Any kid and teenager in K–12th grade may hang out in the youth lounge at ANY TIME. The new location will be in the old computer lab, on the opposite end of the hall from the old youth lounge. You’ll see signs. There are couches and bean bag chairs, snacks, and games. Swing by, bring a friend, and chill!

Guess Who?! FCTYG—Temple Emanuel’s senior youth group—has appointed a new board. Anna Freed is our incoming President. She has been involved with FCTYG for many years and loves NFTY with a passion. Samantha Bohrer is our energetic, smiley Programming Vice President and she will be bringing awesome programs to FCTYG and NFTY. Max Tucker has been attending Temple Emanuel and FCTYG a very long time, and he’s ready to combine his love for FCTYG and his personal initiatives to action being our Social Action VP. Who loves Judaism and wants to provide a spiritual connection to all teens in FCTYG? That would be our very own Jeira Esserman! Maybe you’ve seen Mia Felsen dancing through the halls in Temple? Mia is our new Membership Vice President and she would love to talk to you about getting involved. We’re lucky to have Rachel Colson returning to a board position this time as our Communications VP. Keep an eye out for all her fancy flyers on Facebook and around Temple. Lastly, we have a very special person serving as our Special Projects VP, Samantha Adamson! She has loved NFTY for years and wants to find ways for our group to give back in a tangible way.

Did You Know?! Temple Emanuel has four youth groups for all ages! Every Temple member is automatically a member of their respective youth groups, and we welcome any Jewish person into our groups regardless of Temple affiliation. Jewniors (K–2), EmanuKids (3–5), Frankel Club JYG (6–8), and FCTYG (9–12) all host events and programs at least once a month, typically after Religious School. Youth Group is a wonderful way for kids and teens to feel connected to their Jewish community, build meaningful friendships, and play in a safe and happy place. If you’re not on the email lists, please email me to get signed up.
ELC News

By Susan Wartchow • wartchow@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 319

Temple Emanuel ECC is inspired by the Reggio Emilia philosophy. What makes this approach in line with best practices in Early Childhood Education is how it enhances children's learning, problem solving, social/emotional intelligence and creativity as well as how well it relates seamlessly to Judaic values. This approach is based on a belief that children should have ample access to experiences that develop and increase their love of the process of learning.

Teachers intentionally observe children and provide them with unique, individual learning experiences that enable them to explore their world, make meaning of it and delve into ideas that inspire them. This coupled with specific Judaic values that were added to our school community through our past work and relationship with JECEI (www.jecei.org), help to create a central foundation for our school.

Masa: Journey (Reflection, Return and Renewal)
Brit: Covenant (Belonging and Commitment)
Tzelem Elohim: Divine Image (Dignity and Potential)
K’dusha: Holiness (Intentionality and Presence)
Hit’orerut: Awakening (Amazement and Gratitude)
D’rash: Interpretation (Inquiry, Dialogue, and Transmission)
Tikkun Olam: Repair of the World (Responsibility)

These lenses and our Reggio-inspired approach inform how we interact with children and the environments we create for them. Because of this, we look forward to another amazing Fall here at Temple Emanuel ELC!

Library—Your Activity Center

By Rita Dahlke • dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

What do you do when you are waiting for the kids to get out of school? What can you do while you wait for mom or dad to finish with their meeting? Come hang out in the library. Do you like crafts? Learn about the Mitzvah card project and make a card for someone special or color in one of the many fad adult coloring books. Like LEGO’S? Add to the LEGO museum. Want to take home a family activity? Ask about the Shabbat Basket, Mitzvah Suitcase, or God Backpack. Do you have a pile of puzzles you don’t know what to do with? Swap them out and trade your puzzle for a new one. You may also visit the kids selection of Hebrew DVDs and trade away. Naturally, reading a book is always an option.

Watch for details for the schedule of programs starting in November. Daytime programs include Movie Matinee, Meet the Author, and the ongoing writers group. Classic Cuisine returns with the History of Chocolate. Book chats with authors, a movie discussion series, Judaism and art knitting circle, and more.

Have ideas for programs? I’m always looking for volunteers and fresh ideas. Email me or give me a call!

Sisterhood News
By Barb Schwartz • bjschwartz2@gmail.com

We’ve been busy this summer planning a wonderful year. We are happy to be accepting online/credit card memberships this year at www.tinyurl.com/sisterhoodmembership2018. Sisterhood has something to offer to all women at Temple Emanuel. Even if you cannot participate in events, your dues support many of the things we do for our Temple, ELC, Religious School, Shwayder, our youth, and our community. We appreciate all who become members. It is your support that keeps us going!

September & October Events:

Gary Rosenthal Judaica Fundraiser, Temple Sunday, September 23, 8:30 a.m.–2:00 p.m.
Create your own Gary Rosenthal work of art! Create your own, unique mosaic (glue stained glass pieces to a base), which is fired and attached to the Rosenthal piece you chose. Items will be displayed in the Judaica Shop. Finished artwork can be picked up at Temple after Tuesday, October 16. No RSVP. Items start at about $30. Contact LauriePrieve@gmail.com or 720.771.4744 with questions.

Easy Hike at Mt. Falcon Park, Sunday, September 30
This hike is timed to enjoy the fall colors and beautiful Colorado scenery. Lunch will follow in Morrison. We will carpool Sunday morning from Temple and possibly a West Denver location. No cost. For details or to RSVP, contact Judy Rothman at 303.329.6063 or jrothman11@gmail.com.

Theatre Or and MACC present The Divine Comedy “Oh My God” Saturday, October 6, 8:00 p.m., Newman Center for the Performing Arts, DU
A conflicted and depressed God, who is distraught about what has happened to his creation, seeks out an earthly therapist. Eilla has but one therapy session to convince God not to give up on his creation. This poignant, witty, and brilliant play asks some intriguing questions about the nature of the Deity. Stay for discussion to follow. Prime tickets will sell out fast. Indicate if you want to meet for dinner when you RSVP, https://tinyurl.com/play2018 or Ellen at ellen.lemberg@comcast.net or 303.915.8857.

“Me Time” Mah Jongg Tournament, Thursday, October 11, 11:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m., Temple
Calling all Mah Jongg players! Come try your skills and luck. Cash prizes for top winners, gifts, and lunch. Cost: $36. For more information and to RSVP, contact Judy at jrothman11@gmail.com or 303.329.6063.

Membership Appreciation Dinner, Tuesday, October 30, 7:00-8:30 p.m., Temple FREE for all current Sisterhood members. Dinner provided by Sisterhood Board of Directors. If you haven’t joined or renewed, do so at the dinner. Alon Shaya, award-winning chef of Denver’s new Israeli restaurant, Safta, will join us to talk about modern Israeli cuisine, his new cookbook Shaya, and demonstrate his signature hummus and pita. RSVP by Friday, October 26 to or Ellen at ellen.lemberg@comcast.com or 303.905.8857.

Sisterhood Gift Shop
Happy and healthy New Year from The Gift Shop! We have shofars, apple and honey dishes, pomegranates, and other items to bring in a sweet new year. Colorful Shabbat candles from Safed will cheer up any event. PLAN AHEAD— Hanukkah starts the evening of Sunday December 2 this year. Many items will be available sooner, but Hanukkah will kick-off Monday, October 15 with all your holiday needs and sparkle. Hours may vary as new volunteers join, but we expect to be open:
Monday: 10:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.
Tuesday–Thursday: 9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.
Friday: 9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
Sunday (during Religious School): 9:00 a.m.–1:30 p.m.
By Will Trachman • wtrachman@gmail.com • brotherhood@EmanuelDenver.org

Brotherhood hasn’t slowed down this summer and now its fall! Our softball team was swinging for the fences, and won several games in dramatic fashion. Our ace pitcher, Adolpho Regalado, threw two shutouts! If you're interested in joining our team next year, please reach out to us. Our scholarship essay contest for young Jewish college students finished up, and we awarded several thousand dollars to college students who are furthering their relationship to the Jewish community while in school. Look out for next year’s competition if you have a student going to college. Finally, we'll be looking for grill masters to help us welcome the new year of Religious School in September (the first day of school is Sunday, September 16). We need you to help us feed the hundreds of students who are hungry for another year of learning and for lunch! Email me with any questions at wtrachman@gmail.com. Shanah Tovah!
