We are pleased to be honoring two people who were chiefly responsible for making our dream of rebuilding Shwayder Camp a reality—Michael Staenberg and David Foster, the leaders of our capital campaign.

David Foster is well-known to Temple Emanuel families as an active part of our congregation for his entire life. David is a co-managing partner of Foster, Graham Milstein & Calisher, LLP. David is experienced in the complexities of all areas of land use law and real estate development. All these skills have led him to be an effective leader of the Shwayder Camp Capital Campaign team, offering expertise in the construction at camp, working with the county on legal land issues and raising almost $5 million for the construction.

Michael Staenberg, Founder and President of The Staenberg Group, has achieved unprecedented success in the commercial real estate sector and has helped to create quality communities nationwide. As a philanthropist, Michael and the family foundation have contributed over $100 million to hundreds of nonprofit organizations throughout the United States and Israel. In addition to financial support, Michael takes a hands-on approach to help improve the overall effectiveness of nonprofits through pro bono services, industry expertise and in-kind resources. Without this expertise, the renovation of Shwayder Camp would not have been as successful as it is; and, as the largest donor to the campaign, he has ensured our success.

Marc Cohn in Concert

After winning a Grammy for his soulful ballad “Walking in Memphis,” Marc Cohn solidified his place as one of this generation’s most compelling singer-songwriters, combining the precision of a brilliant tunesmith with the passion of a great soul man. Rooted in the rich ground of American rhythm and blues, soul and gospel and possessed of a deft storyteller’s pen, he weaves vivid, detailed, often drawn-from-life tales that evoke some of our most universal human feelings: love, hope, faith, joy, heartbreak. I sometimes struggle to find an appropriate topic about which to write for the January/February Bulletin. There are no major Jewish holidays during this time. Hanukkah has passed. Purim will be coming soon—but not just yet. At Temple, while we are actively planning for our upcoming holidays, there is nothing on the immediate horizon. And yet, in our secular calendar, we welcome in a new year.

2019 will be an especially important year for me. In May, I will be turning 60—one month after Sue and I will be celebrating our 30th wedding anniversary. Next year I will also be celebrating 10 years as your Rabbi. I know it sounds cliché, but it’s hard to conceptualize the significance of these milestones. 60 seems so…old. And yet, I feel more energetic and enthusiastic about life, about my rabbinate, and about my marriage, family and community than I have ever felt before.

The past 30 years with my beloved wife, Sue has been filled with joy, excitement, occasional challenges, and, most importantly a constant sense of love that matures every day. We have raised our children together and watched as they have grown into amazing adults whose values, relationships, and passions fill us with pride. There is no doubt in my mind whatsoever that any successes I have personally experienced have been spurred on by Sue’s counsel, support, cajoling, and partnership. I am blessed to call her my life-partner, support and best friend.

Turning 60, however, is quite another matter. While a successful marriage requires constant attention, tweaking and care, approaching my 6th decade of life is dependent only upon daily living. Yes, attention to physical, mental, and spiritual health is an essential part of the aging process, but the truth is that most of us are not all that conscious of the passage of time—until we are confronted with the reality of “significant” birthdays that jar us into awareness.

When I was younger, the number 60 seemed monumental. Now, I don’t see it that way at all. I approach my “senior” status with intensity and gratitude. Despite the new aches and pains that increasingly confront me when I wake up in the morning; or the wrinkles, gray hairs, and other consequences of middle-age, I have as much, if not more energy and focus now than I have ever had throughout my life. I love my Rabbinate. I have dear friends and I am especially grateful for the lay and professional partners with whom I can dream—and this incredible congregation that helps brings these dreams to reality.

The Psalmist wrote: Teach us, O God, to number our days that we might acquire a heart of wisdom (Psalm 90). The older I get, the more I understand the importance of these words—and the milestones in our lives that help to experience and savor the passage of time.

May 2019 bring you all an increasing awareness of the blessings in your lives, and may each birthday and anniversary bring you joy.
INSIDE TEMPLE

“She Seeks” Women’s Learning Series
By Rabbi Emily Hyatt • hyatt@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 311

Temple Emanuel is excited to be offering a Women’s Learning Series called “She Seeks,” which will occur the second Tuesday of each month January-May from 12:00-1:00 p.m. More information will follow.

We are often lost in the hustle and routine of daily life, rarely slowing down enough to notice moments of meaning in our lives. There is beauty in that speed, power in the persistence of time passing and the deadlines, appointments, dates and dinners that pass with it. And, with that beauty is an opportunity to pause—to hold back the passage of the next pressing need—and to find meaning in the chaos.

There is something special that happens when women gather together to learn—a magic in the air that comes from a shared understanding of the world. Generations melt away and family structures or roles fade into the background while jobs and responsibilities and inbox alerts momentarily and voluntarily pause themselves.

Join me for an hour a month of learning with the ladies, come once or keep coming back, and discover what life looks like when you see it through the eyes of Jewish learning.

Goals for the New Year

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

In celebrating the secular new year, this second “beginning” gives us a chance to reset, reflect, and plan in a different way that our spiritual new year. Our resolutions often focus on self-improvement, career plans, relationships, and more. I know that including Temple Emanuel as a part of these goals might help you along on your path. With a supportive community and staff, programming at Temple provides plenty of opportunity to help others and make personal connections. I know that you will feel good about engaging in programs that are familiar and comfortable; and I hope that you extend yourself and jump in to something new that brings personal satisfaction and a sense of accomplishment!

Professionally, as always, my goal is to continue an unwavering dedication to the mission of Temple. This year, I will work diligently to make our Congregation a welcoming place where each of you can explore your Jewish identity and actively participate in our community.

It is my hope that our efforts at Temple Emanuel inspire you to engage in worship, lifelong learning, and the celebration of holidays, rites of passage and social justice programs. Truly, my goal is that the passionate work of our entire staff, board of directors, and volunteers allows you to experience a sense of great fulfillment and personal growth.

At Temple, we offer meaningful learning opportunities for both adults and children. We provide social programming through our youth groups, Hineini Project for young adults, the Free Birds, Kavod on the Road, concerts, and other special events. Temple is also committed to social action and community-building, making Temple, the Denver community, and the world a better place. All of this helps us to make Temple Emanuel a warm and welcoming community by bringing us together.

We always like to see you here! Please read the weekly e-notes, the bulletin, our website and other forms of communication, so that you can actively participate in these opportunities!

Together, let’s start the year by making sure that we have your current contact information, in order that you continue to receive our information. You can check your information by going to www.EmanuelDenver.org where you can access the secure Membership Database by logging in. Or call Sura or Frances in the office to provide us updated information.

May we all accomplish the goals and resolutions we set for ourselves in the new year. Wishing each of you a happy, healthy and prosperous 2019!
Michael Schatz Memorial Lecture Series Fund

By Francie Miran • miran@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 335

We are very grateful to Arnie and Gwen Schatz who have established Michael Schatz Memorial Lecture Series Fund in memory of their son who passed away in 2014. This fund will be used to provide lectures on a variety of topics annually beginning next year.

Michael is remembered very fondly by many members and staff of Temple. Executive Director Steve Stark remembers Michael as someone who had a zest for life, adored his wife and children, and was strongly committed to his parents. Steve said Michael always took care of everyone around him and he is greatly missed in our community.

This fund will accept additional donations from the community if you would like to remember Michael or remember or honor someone else with a gift.

This fund is a wonderful way to keep Michael's memory alive at Temple Emanuel and we greatly appreciate this very generous gift from the Schatz family.

Shabbat Shira: The Shabbat of Song

By Cantor Elizabeth Sacks • sacks@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 309

Friday, January 18 • 5:30 p.m. • Guest Artists: Michael Friedman, Ken Mervine, and Chris Stongle

Join us for Shabbat Shira - a special Shabbat service celebrating the power of music and song. The name of this Shabbat comes from the connection to the Torah portion for the weekend - the moment when we read that the Israelites cross through the Red Sea to freedom and in doing so, sing a great song to God.

This year we are honored to feature our own Shabbat Unplugged Band musicians – Michael Friedman, Ken Mervine, and Chris Stongle - in a sermon-in-song/mini-concert in the middle of the service. Michael, Ken, and Chris will each introduce themselves officially to the congregation and then share a piece of music that is personally meaningful.

Michael, Ken, and Chris have become a part of the Temple Emanuel musical family, and we are excited to pay tribute to them in this way.

One hundred and seven years ago, Congregation Emanuel purchased fifteen acres in Historic Fairmount Cemetery and named it Emanuel Cemetery. It was a wise, far-sighted purchase; today we are the only Denver Metro area congregation that owns its own cemetery.

Our cemetery not only is one of our Congregation’s greatest assets; it also is a vital part of our Jewish and Western pioneer heritage. Visitors to Emanuel Cemetery are often surprised that some of the grave monuments pre-date Congregation Emanuel’s 1911 purchase of Fairmount Cemetery land. Some of those monuments bear 1870’s and earlier dates.

After Congregation Emanuel established Emanuel Cemetery, arrangements were made to move pioneer remains and monuments from old and disused Jewish cemeteries located in what is now Cheeseman Park and the Denver Botanical Gardens, as well as Riverside Cemetery.

Today, our Congregation has a new challenge. We need to restore, update, and modernize our historic cemetery in many ways, including but not limited to water delivery and availability, accessibility, maintenance, conservation, thoughtful and environmentally sensitive landscaping, and monument preservation.

Many of you have expressed concerns to us over the past spring and summer about the state of our cemetery. The main cause of the decline in our cemetery’s appearance is the lack of available water (more below). In response, we have formed an Emanuel Cemetery Committee. The committee is charged with developing and maintaining a visionary plan to meet both the short and the long term needs of our cemetery. We are dedicated to restoring and updating our cemetery not only for our families, Congregation, and the community, but also for the benefit of the generations that will succeed us. Our work, we hope, will become their heritage well into the twenty-second century and beyond.

In the short term, we are happy to inform our members that arrangements have been made or will be made both with Fairmount Cemetery and with outside contractors to improve cemetery maintenance, including tree pruning, removal of plant overgrowth, landscaping and mowing, trash and snow removal. We also are exploring available ways, if any, to obtain additional water for the summer months temporarily until we are able to modernize and upgrade our water delivery system.

In the long term, our task is more intense and will take time to implement. We are consulting with legal, engineering, real estate and infrastructure experts to determine the best upgrade and modernization options for our cemetery. We need to find optimal solutions to deal with water shortages that now occur more and more often, not only because of frequent droughts but also because of population growth in the Metro Denver area which puts an ever increasing strain on the previously ample Highline Canal and well water supply. We also need to replace aged and obsolete water delivery pipes and associated machinery that break and necessitate costly repairs. Additionally with modernizing our water access systems, we need to evaluate and renovate our landscaping and plantings in accordance with xeriscaping, water conservation and environmental needs and principles.

In connection with this challenge, our congregation in 2015 purchased an additional three acres of new land within Fairmount Cemetery for future use. We will develop this land in accordance with the same principles discussed above. Truly, it is our hope that our original fifteen acres also will benefit from all that we learn and apply in designing and building out our new cemetery portion.

Finally, we need your help! When you visit the graves of your loved ones in Emanuel Cemetery, please observe and let us know if you see trash, fallen monuments, loose or dead branches, or anything else of concern. We welcome your feedback as the renovation and modernization of our cemetery unfolds in the next several years.

Meet the Author — Jewboy of the South by Don Koplen,
Tuesday, Jan. 8, 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. in partnership with Kavod on the Road

A Jewish boy, Donny Cohen, tries to save his black carpenter hero who is falsely jailed for arson and murder for burning down the local temple. But the crime was actually perpetrated by a Klanner, witnessed by Donny. This novel is relevant in today’s climate of racial hate, assumed guilt and violence by police against black men. Jewboy of the South is a dark yet redemptive story of the boy’s harrowing and often hilarious coming-of-age.

Book Chat: What’s a Book Chat?
A Book Chat is when the author skypes in to review his or her book after we have read it. Books are available in the library and on Amazon for you to read ahead of time. One book chat left!

Dirty Wars and Polished Silver by Lynda Schuster, Tuesday, January 29, 6:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Dirty Wars and Polished Silver is Schuster’s story of her life abroad as a foreign correspondent in war-torn countries, and, later, as the wife of a U.S. Ambassador. It chronicles her time working on a kibbutz in Israel, reporting on uprisings in Central America and a financial crisis in Mexico, dodging rocket fire in Lebanon, and grieving the loss of her first husband, a fellow reporter, who was killed only ten months after their wedding.

Equal parts gripping and charming, Dirty Wars and Polished Silver is a story about one woman’s quest for self-discovery — only to find herself, unexpectedly, more or less back where she started: wiser, saner, more resolved.

Family Promise

Time flies—Temple Emanuel is already beginning our third year as a Family Promise host congregation. Since our first host week in February 2017, we have sheltered over 30 families—nearly 100 people!

Family Promise has become part of our congregational life and a joyful mitzvah for our volunteers. Over the course of eight host weeks, our volunteers have contributed more than 2,500 hours of their time. They’ve shopped, cooked, cleaned, served, played, driven, laundered, knit, slept, and listened—and, through their commitment and ruach, transformed our building into a warm and welcoming home for our guests.

We continue to welcome new volunteers and need donations throughout the year. To volunteer, donate, or simply learn more about Family Promise at Temple Emanuel, visit our webpage at www.emanueldenver.org/social-justice/family-promise

We’re looking forward to four more host weeks in 2019.

We are excited to be jumping into the second year of our new Chugim (Choice) Unit for our Religious School students on Sundays during the months of January and February. This opt-in program, spanning over 6 weeks, provides our students the opportunity to choose a topic that they feel most connected to and dive in to experience some deep learning.

Chugim choices for this year including, but not limited to, Jewish Cooking, Adventure Leadership, Maccabi Games, Hebrew Games, and the Great Jewish Debates, our students will be learning in ways that are active, creative, and memorable!

Please reach out to me directly and let me know if you are interested in helping us think through how we might be able to implement an interest-based learning model throughout the whole school year, rather than just during the Chugim Unit.

In the ELC, we will celebrate Tu B’Shevat by investigating trees and the abundance of gifts they provide as well as looking at the holiday that has become a tree-planting festival in Israel, in which Israelis and Jews around the world plant trees in honor or memory of loved ones and friends. Through our study of trees, we will explore the natural world and reflect upon the Jewish Lens of Tikkun Olam—Repair of the World.

We also have a year-round outdoor studio that involves our nature scape playground, greenhouse, and gardens. These spaces are used intentionally to provide meaningful provocations and explorations for children to experience in the natural world. We have seen amazing results! Not only does it help calm their central nervous systems but we’ve seen an expansion of creativity in their play. So no matter the weather (snow, rain, or sunshine), you’ll see children out amongst nature at the Rabbi Steven Foster ELC.
Happy 2019! Sisterhood continues to be busy as we enjoy our programs. We shared wine and cheese at the Sisterhood Judaica Shop sale, followed a week later with an evening with Rabbi Emily Hyatt. Brotherhood had a terrific 2018, and is looking forward to 2019. A few of our notable successes were:

- running two huge barbecues for the Temple, making the playoffs in our softball league, designating an outstanding confirmation student, awarding our volunteer of the year prize to Doug Velick, granting over $6,000 in college scholarships to deserving Jewish students, holding a successful blood drive, and much, much more.

Thank you to all of the men out there who made 2018 a great success for the Brotherhood. We couldn’t have done it without your support. Thank you to all of the partners and spouses who supported our members!

In 2019 Brotherhood will be back, and bigger than ever!

Brotherhood wishes you and your family a season of celebration and peace. If you’re interested in joining, contact Will Trachman at wtrachman@gmail.com.
