Celebrate SHAVUOT at Temple!

Saturday, June 8, 6:00 – 11:30 p.m.
Shavuot is the third major pilgrimage festival in the Jewish calendar year—a holiday honoring both the summer harvest in Israel and the giving of the Torah to the Israelites on Mount Sinai. LEARN: Study Session(s) – 9:30 p.m.
We will continue with our fascinating study session break-out options.

SING: Kirtan with Hal Aqua and Steve Brodsky – 10:30 p.m.

Shabbat Meditation • Saturday, May 4
9:45–10:30 a.m. in the Seminar Room (inside the Social Hall)

Start your Shabbat morning at Temple and access your spirituality through Jewish meditation. Dr. Eileen Yeager, Jim Sharon, and Ruth Sharon lead this ongoing opportunity. Questions? Contact Ruth Sharon at ruth@energyforlife.us.
A few weeks ago, at Shabbat services, we shared our excitement about our upcoming Purim Festivities. In addition to talking about our amazing shpiel and the unforgettable Latke Hamentashen Debate between Governor Polis and Attorney General Weiser, the following was said: “And if you want to see Rabbi Black in a dress...come to Purim!”

Immediately after services, two members of our community—who happened to be transgender—approached me with obvious pain in their faces. They wanted to know why I was going to be wearing a dress and why it was supposed to be funny.

I explained to them that it has been a custom on Purim to set aside all inhibitions. Oftentimes this is celebrated by wearing costumes—and often men will dress as women. I have worn a dress many times over the years on Purim, and I always saw it as a parody. But, as I learned in a recent follow-up conversation with one of the individuals who approached me after services, not everybody found it amusing—some people were deeply hurt, offended and even frightened.

Now I am someone who sees myself as an ally of the LBGTQ community. I have a sign on the door of my office. It also is posted several other places around our congregation. The words on the sign are: “Trans Jews Belong Here.” The idea behind the sign is to publicly state that our congregation does not discriminate against transsexuals and that we are a safe and open environment where gender is not perceived as binary. It means that we understand that our community is not only made up of men and women. There are also those who find themselves at multiple places on the spectrum of gender identity.

I was proud to put that sign on my door—as were many other members of our team.

But, as I am learning—signs are not enough. For someone who does not identify as male or female and who is looking to find acceptance in a community, signs are only a tiny piece of the puzzle of inclusivity. If we are truly welcoming, where are the gender-neutral spaces in our building—especially on our bathrooms? How is language used to perpetuate stereotypes that often leave others out of the conversation?

These are not abstract questions. We have several members of our community who are neither male nor female. Some are valued teachers in our religious school. Some are teens. When you factor in the reality that non-gender conforming children are overwhelmingly targeted and bullied on a daily basis; when you understand that, according to the Human Rights Council, the attempted suicide rate among transgender teens is as high as 42 percent*; when you realize that our children’s lives are at stake—then our lack of understanding, compassion and true acceptance can have tragic consequences.

My friends, this is not a simple topic. It’s confusing to many—myself included. But if we are to be a welcoming congregation for all of God’s children who come here in peace—searching for community—searching for acceptance—then we need to do better. We need to speak out and show that we are willing to learn, to grow and to change.

Silence can be deadly. Silence can be complicity. Silence is not acceptable.

Supporting Shwayder Camp – Do We Owe You a Thank You?

By Francie Miran • miran@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 335

Shwayder Camp is working with the Rose Community Foundation and the Harold Grinspoon Foundation to solicit commitments for legacy gifts for Shwayder Camp through the Life & Legacy program. These gifts can take the form of a bequest in a will or trust, a beneficiary of a retirement or insurance policy, or several other ways to support Shwayder Camp into the future.

Our first-year goal was to secure 18 commitments, which we accomplished thanks to individuals who feel strongly about the importance of Jewish summer camp, and Shwayder in particular. During the next year, we need to secure another 18 commitments to receive our incentive from Life and Legacy.

National statistics show that for a variety of reasons only a small percentage of bequest donors, almost never more than 25% to 30%, will ever notify a charitable recipient of an intended bequest. That means you may have already included Shwayder Camp in your estate plan, but we have no way of knowing that.

While we certainly appreciate your desire to remain anonymous, letting us know about your plans can be very helpful to us. Your story may encourage others to also include Shwayder Camp in their plans. But even more important, if you let us know your plans we will have an opportunity to thank you during your lifetime. Do we owe you a thank you?

To inform us of your planned gifts or for more information, contact Francie Miran at miran@EmanuelDenver.org or 303.388.4013, ext. 335.

Financial Strength

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

The Temple Emanuel fiscal year ends in June, so we are deep in the budgeting process for next year. The Annual Financial Commitment as part of Kehila 1874 from each of our members is vitally important. It allows us to properly continue to maintain our campus and allows us to continually create our high standard levels of worship, programming, and special events. Temple has always been managed in a fiscally responsible manner and we can only continue to be innovative and expand our offerings if everyone pays their fair share. At this time of year, please be sure your dues are current and if you feel you can give a little extra this year that would be appreciated. Thank you for being part of this vibrant community. May we go from strength to strength.

GOT TUNA?

Jewish Family Service depends on us for tuna. Thank you for continuing to bring cans of tuna when you come to Temple!
Shwayder Camp 70th Anniversary Celebration
Saturday, August 17, 2019 | 4:00 p.m. | At Shwayder Camp

Join us for a festive celebration of the 70th anniversary of Shwayder Camp. Come be part of the Shwayder Magic as we celebrate this monumental milestone.

The celebration begins with a concert by the amazing Nefesh Mountain. With “the sound of Appalachia and the soul of Judaism,” Nefesh Mountain is the place where bluegrass and old-time music meet with Jewish heritage and tradition. Husband-and-wife team Eric Lindberg and Doni Zasloff, pioneers of this new blend of spiritual American music, bring their unique knowledge and passion for these beautiful worlds to the fore with songs in English and Hebrew alike. Nefesh Mountain is one of the most sought-after acts in Jewish music today, and we are excited to welcome their soulful sound to Shwayder Camp.

Part of the celebration will be to dedicate the lodge (the first building at Shwayder) in memory of our beloved Max Frankel (z”l), our first director. Since the construction replaced the Max Frankel Hall, we have missed Uncle Max’s presence at Shwayder. Join us as we honor his memory.

A Rustic Gala Dinner with great food and fun activities will follow the concert and the evening will end with a campfire song session with s’mores.

The evening is geared for adults, but families can register to attend just the Nefesh Mountain Concert.

Price: $75 per person

Concert Only: $54 Adults / $18 Children 12 and under

Join us as we celebrate 70 years of Shwayder Camp and look forward to the next 70. If you haven't been to Shwayder Camp in a while, this is a great opportunity to see all the improvements in our facilities.

Make reservations at: www.shwayder.com. Sponsorship opportunities are available. For more information, contact Francie Miran, miran@EmanuelDenver.org, 303.388.4013, ext. 335.

Our 10th Grade Confirmation Trip to NYC

By Jeira Esserman

On our recent trip to New York City as a confirmation class, we focused largely on the Jewish immigrant experience. This trip focused on Jewish history in New York City. We had the opportunity to travel to Ellis Island where we saw the process of becoming an immigrant. Our group also visited the Tenement Museum, which exhibited how immigrants lived when they came to New York. The spaces were cramped with many families. At the museum, we also learned about the diverse neighborhoods including Greek and Hispanic tenements. Walking from the Tenement Museum to the Eldridge Synagogue we were able to see how culturally diverse the neighborhood has been.

Our group visited the Eldridge Street Synagogue and Temple Emanuel which are both architecturally designed to resemble a cathedral including high marble ceilings and pillars. Both were designed in this manner to fit the architecture and culture of New York during that time period.

Much of what we learned about Judaism in the 1940’s and prior in New York City was discrimination. There was much assimilation amongst the Jewish immigrants. They were forced to try to assimilate and be less of themselves. Today we are free to be very openly Jewish and have huge temples and congregations. A very interesting part of our trip was our visit to Borough Park which is where a large portion of New York’s Hasidic population lives. In Borough Park, the residents are orthodox. Touring the neighborhood, we saw women in long skirts and wigs and men and boys with tzitzit. It was interesting to see how the Hasidic community of Borough Park operates so differently than the modern Reform community. Signs are in all in Hebrew or Yiddish and they are a very close community. An interesting similarity regardless of practice is how close both of our communities are. Both are close knit because of how much time we spend together, praying, learning, and being together.

Throughout the entire trip, I was thinking about what it meant to be a Jew in America. After seeing each community and comparing them to our own, I realized that being a Jew in America means being part of a community that reaches across the entire nation and connects us to other Jews around the world. This was truly an amazing experience I will never forget.
Spring at the Library

By Rita Dahlke • dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

Spring is an exciting time. The energy in the air is different. The winter air is determined to wrap us in a white blanket as the budding of spring emerges. Spring in the Library is not much different. Religious School is coming to an end and teachers are determined to complete lessons and make one more connection with their students. Mitzvah Day creates an energy that creates warmth beyond words. Then like a spring storm the sky clears and the school year is over, adult library programs take a summer vacation. The breeze is warmer, the air smells sweeter and life slows down.

Now it’s time to start planning for next year. If you would like to help plan, have a suggestion or would like to do a program in the library, I would love to hear from you.

Don’t forget the library has activities to enjoy in the library while waiting for kids or parents. Make a Mitzvah card, add to the Binyan Blocks museum, play a game.

Going on a car trip vacation? Don’t forget to grab some Jewish music, book on tape or a DVD to enjoy and keep kids entertained.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Youth Group Highlights

By Megan Garrett • garrett@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 348

Juniors (K-2) Youth Group enjoyed a program with PJ Library where we read a book and followed along with a craft. Then we did a book walk—experience the book in 3D by doing interactive activities. A top favorite of the year had to be MOVIE NIGHT. We enjoyed dinner, popcorn, and pjs and a movie!

EmanuKids (3-5) is our FUN-LOVING youth group. These kiddos had the most fun at Purim Carnival—faces painted and won tons of prizes. Their top program this year was Bitz, Bites, and Robots. They programmed their own robots then battled them in the arena.

Frankel Club JYG (6, 7, 8) had a challah bake off—making their own challah and trying three different types including Nutella challah and s’mores challah. We also went to NFTY 678: JYG Chavurah which was a weekend trip to Kansas City where we met 100 other Jewish middle schoolers for a weekend of fun.

FCTYG (9-12) is our senior youth group at Temple Emanuel. Their year was incredibly successful thanks to our amazing teen leadership board. We traveled four times across the region for NFTY: a Jewish high school weekend gathering, and we even planned an entire weekend! We planned some awesome programs for our local high school teens—Escape Room: Don’t Escape Inclusion, Axe Throwing, and Seder On-the-Go.

Stop by Temple during the summer to let us know what programs you’d like to see next year. Have a great summer!
Brotherhood News

By Will Trachman • wtrachman@gmail.com, brotherhood@EmanuelDenver.org

It’s been a busy spring for the Brotherhood. First, we offer congratulations to our Volunteer of the Year, Bruce Baer, who is always there when it comes to big events like the Temple barbecues. Please wish Bruce congratulations the next time you see him.

Also, thank you to Andy Thangasamy for pulling off an amazing March 2019 blood drive event, with over 40 blood donors. It was so successful that we’re adding another drive in November 2019. Stay tuned for details.

Look out for some additional big Brotherhood items coming soon this spring and summer. We will soon be awarding our outstanding confirmation student award, offering scholarships to Jewish students going off to college, and serving lunch for Mitzvah Day. Thanks to everyone who is able to assist with these major annual Brotherhood projects. Let us know if you want to help!

Also, get your gloves and bats ready. Our softball team is ready to play this summer. The first game will be May 19. Let us know if you want to join us on the basepaths!

To join Brotherhood, please email me at wtrachman@gmail.com.

Sisterhood News

By Barb Schwartz • bjshwartz2@gmail.com

Is it going to be golf or skiing weather? Hard to tell these days. Sisterhood is finishing up a fantastic and busy year. In March we enjoyed a beautiful Shabbaton led by Rabbi Hyatt and Cantor Sacks. They made the morning extra special. Judy Altenberg spoke on the day’s Torah portion and about our friend and Board member, Carol Plotkin (z”l) who passed away in the fall. Following that, Purim arrived along with the Sisterhood bake sale. Lots of goodies were baked by our members and sold to everyone with a sweet tooth.

In April, we enjoyed a beautiful Women’s Passover Seder, catered by A Perfect Pear Catering. This is always a special evening, and this year was no exception.

We are looking forward to our installation of new members to our Board of Directors to be held on Sunday, June 2, 11:00 a.m. Please consider joining us that morning for a delicious brunch with speaker Ellyn Hutt.

The Judaica Shop has great ideas for Confirmation, Mothers’ Day, Fathers’ Day, graduations, B’nai Mitzvah, babies, and more. Come see the beautiful new jewelry and cute baby items soon!
