Chava Mirel is a Seattle-based singer, composer and multi-instrumentalist who combines rich, luxurious vocals with jazz-influenced rhythms to bring a new energy and spirit to Jewish music.

These wonderful musicians will be backed by the Shabbat Unplugged Band and joined by Rabbi Joe Black, Cantor Elizabeth Sacks, and Steve Brodsky for an unforgettable night of music under the stars.

We Care

Our Clergy team is committed to being present for all of our members who are ill – especially when a hospitalization occurs. The only way that we know when you are in the hospital is when you call and tell us. Privacy laws prohibit care facilities from sharing personal information without authorization. Please remember to call Temple if you or someone you know is in need of a visit. Thank you in advance.
Kudos to You!

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

We all recognize that change does not come easy. But kudos to you, the members of our congregation! Since we have introduced our new membership model, you have embraced change! You have demonstrated an understanding of what it takes to continue the great tradition of our beautiful and holy community by stepping up and opting-in to a minimum level of membership at $1,874 annually. An incredible 25% of our member families have already made the commitment. And now, as we begin our new fiscal year, we need you to join them!

▲ As you know, the reason for us initiating Kehillah 1874 is that it establishes a baseline level of giving which is considered a “sustaining level” (it costs roughly this amount per household to operate Temple Emanuel).

▲ The time is now to make this commitment which allows Temple Emanuel to continue to operate on a foundation of financial strength. It is necessary for our operations today; and it is critical to maintain financial solvency for decades and generations to come.

If you have questions, Francie Miran and I are only a phone call or email away. Please reach out so that I can help you make a significant impact with your increase in annual membership dues to Kehila 1874.
Adult Programs this Summer

By Sarah Brown
brown@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 305

Thank you so much to everyone who participated in Mitzvah Day! We were able to complete more than 40 community service projects and make a difference in our community. Mitzvah Day would not have been possible without the hard work of our Co-Chairs: Larry Goldman, Felicia Greher, Tracy Levy, Laura Mitchell, Gerri Persin, Trina Reisch, and Sara Seba. I would also like to thank everyone who sponsored a Mitzvah Day project this year.

Temple Emanuel will be hosting this year's L’Chaim Conference on Sunday, June 23, 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. This free conference is open to baby boomers and beyond who would like to learn about resources that are available as life continues. If you would like to register please reach out to Gabriel Sanders at gsanders@kavodseniorlife.org.

Volunteer Appreciation Shabbat will be Friday, August 9 starting with Pre-Oneg at 5:30 p.m., worship at 6:00 p.m., and BBQ dinner at 7:00 p.m. We are so excited to celebrate all our amazing volunteers at Temple Emanuel. Without you, Temple Emanuel would not be the same.

Saturdays at Family Promise

All week long, our Family Promise guests are in a rush. Monday through Friday, they’re up at 6:00 a.m. and on the Family Promise van or in their cars by 7:00 a.m. Sunday mornings are even harder, because our guests AND their belongings must be out of their rooms by 7:00 a.m., as they prepare to move to the next host congregation.

But Saturdays are different. As is fitting for Shabbat, the pace is slower and more relaxed. Guests can sleep in for an hour or so, then enjoy a hot breakfast prepared by our volunteers. At 9:00 a.m., everybody’s out the door, but this time the van’s destination is the JCC swimming pool, not the Family Promise day site, followed by a luncheon feast at our favorite Chinese buffet. Guests return to Temple around 2:00 p.m. and spend the rest of the day playing in the youth lounge or the playground, making crafts or watching movies, or just napping and hanging out – and, for parents, catching up on laundry.

We make Saturdays special for our guests. To do this, we need volunteers – and swimsuits! For the next Family Promise host week, consider signing up for a Saturday volunteer spot. If you’ve got gently used swimsuits that your kids (or you!) have outgrown, please drop them off at the front desk, marked for Family Promise.

To volunteer, donate, sign up for training, or simply learn more about Family Promise at Temple Emanuel, visit www.emanueldenver.org/social-justice/family-promise.
LEARNING & ENGAGEMENT

Summertime at Emanuel

By Zach Rolf • rolf@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 325

While the summer is generally thought to be “down time” in congregational life, with a toned-down offering of programs, we at Temple Emanuel look forward to these few months each year to do a lot of the heavy lifting to prepare for a new year filled with opportunities for families to be engaged in Jewish life together.

The summer is a time when Shwayder Camp is providing campers and staff an opportunity to live Jewishly while creating life-long bonds at 10,200 feet.

The summer is a time when we start planning another Religious School year—one filled with exploration and discovery.

Summer is when we take time to listen to our community and craft opportunities that will bring people closer—to connect them even more to their community and their faith.

As much as we look to increase how engaged our families are with Temple, we also seek out ways for Temple to be increasingly engaged with our families.

So, in the coming year, I present a challenge to you: Become involved in at least one aspect of Temple life that you have previously not sought out. It can be a learning opportunity, a social action project, a healing service, a holiday celebration, or one of the many other choices that we offer.

Call a friend and invite them to attend Shabbat services with you on our lawn over the summer. Bring a picnic dinner to enjoy together afterwards while listening to one of the many concerts we will be hosting. Email the family of one of your child(ren)’s classmates and go on a hike together. If you don’t know what you might find interesting or fulfilling, reach out to us. That’s why we’re here. Without all of you, we’re simply a synagogue building. With you, we are so much more.

Through social outings, holiday gatherings, and various fun events, we strive to create lasting friendships and meaningful, Jewish connections. Summer feels like it was made for Temple Emanuel’s Hineini Project because we have a full summer schedule – come hang with us!

🌟 Jews & Brews: every second Tuesday of the month we hop between local breweries from 6:00-8:00 p.m.
🌟 Hiking with Hineini: check our websites to see which Sundays we’ll be heading to the foothills!
🌟 Colorado Beach Day: Sunday, June 2
🌟 Shabbat in the Park: Friday, July 19

More summer events can be found at facebook.com/HineiniProject or meetup.com/Hineini-Young-Professionals

Summer at the Library
By Rita Dahlke • dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

What does the librarian do in the summer time? She plans programs for the upcoming year! Would you like to help? Is there an author you would like to meet through a book chat? Is there a film series that interest you? A book you would like to discuss? Is there a type of food that intrigues you? I am interested in hearing what kind of programs you would like to help plan and participate in this upcoming year.

During the summer read the book The Lemon Tree by Sandy Tolan. Join us this fall for a new book club: Understanding Israeli Issues through the Works of Israeli Authors. The purpose of the book club is to better understand not only the issues facing Israel but how these issues are perceived by Israelis themselves. Add your name to the list!

Greetings from Cologne, Germany where I am enjoying a memorable, but cold river cruise down the Rhine and the Danube. Sisterhood is having its installation brunch on Sunday, June 2 with Ellen Hutt speaking to us on women’s issues. New members to the board are Cynthia Gensheimer, Karyn Levin, and Joanna Moldov. I am looking forward to working with these talented and dedicated women. We had a great year of wonderful and educational experiences and activities in the Sisterhood. Our planning meeting will be held in June to develop fun events and learning experiences for all of you for the coming year. Look for information later this summer about a family picnic in August. Enjoy your summer!

Summer is here, along with Father’s Day, graduations, weddings, new homes, and other gift-giving occasions. Don’t know what to get? Gift certificates always fit. Remember that the gift shop is open Monday-Friday during the summer.

HOURS:
- Monday – Thursday: 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
- Friday: 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
- Saturday: Closed
- Sunday: Closed

Keep an eye out for Brotherhood’s big events this season. We will be awarding our scholarships for students going into their freshman or sophomore years of college, and making sure that students start out the year with our annual barbecue. In the fall, we’ll be doing a second blood drive for 2019. We want you to help us make it the most successful blood drive yet. Brotherhood’s continued success depends on the engagement of Temple members. If you haven’t been to an event yet, consider attending something soon to become a part of our crew. We provide service work to the Temple, but also relax and enjoy bowling nights and other events to increase fun and positive spirit at the Temple. We hope to see you at the next event!

To join Brotherhood, please contact Will Trachman at wtrachman@gmail.com.
The names listed below are taken from the memorial plaques in the Meditation Room. Names are read at the Friday evening and Saturday morning Shabbat services following the date of death. To find out how to purchase a plaque, contact Patricia Lackner, ext. 308. To have other names read on a Friday evening, call the Temple by Friday noon.
