I write this article just after Sue and I received the wonderful news that our daughter, Elana, will be getting married to the love of her life, Greg Borofsky. We are absolutely thrilled with this news and are looking forward to their wedding some time in 2020.

As this is the November bulletin and Thanksgiving is coming soon, now is a time for giving thanks for all the blessings in our lives. Without a doubt, this year’s celebrations will be extra special in the Black and Borofsky households. Giving thanks reminds us that blessings should never be taken for granted. Having an “attitude of gratitude” allows us to appreciate the bounty that comes our way. In Deuteronomy 8:10 we find three Hebrew words:

“V’achalta, V’savata, Uve-rachta – When you have eaten your fill, give thanks to God.”

This short phrase encapsulates a simple, but profound truth: Everything in our lives comes from God. It is not enough to simply enjoy the goodness we receive, we also need to show appreciation. Thanksgiving is not only the name of a holiday created by the early Pilgrims. It is an essential aspect of spiritual living. By giving thanks for our blessings, we are also acknowledging and celebrating the fact that everything in our lives is interconnected.

For some, giving thanks to God can be difficult. When we face loss or hardship; when our suffering weighs us down; when life seems to lose its beauty, the idea of giving thanks is almost ludicrous. If we think about it, saying “Thank You” as a way of acknowledging that we are not alone—that someone cares about us. When we thank a loved one, a family member, a friend, or even someone who performs a simple act of kindness, we are recognizing their humanity and holiness—just as they have done for us.

There is a story I recently heard about a magistrate who was cruel and heartless. He came upon a man in rags (who actually was the prophet Elijah.) He didn’t like what he was. When he tried to arrest him, the prophet cried out: “I now bestow upon you the curse of blessings! If you do not give thanks and give at least one blessing a day, when the sun sets, you will die!” Elijah then vanished in a puff of smoke and the man suddenly felt the life draining out of his body. He cried out: “Blessed is the life that God has given me!” Immediately, he felt his body warming. The next day, as he awoke, he once again felt the cold presence of death. He cried out: “Blessed be each breath I take.” Again, the warmth returned. As each day, week, month, and year continued, the man found other ways to bless. He moved away from his own needs and blessed the people with whom he worked; the members of his village; the leaders of his government. He blessed the sick and infirm, the young and the old. He soon became known throughout the land as a great and righteous leader.

According to the story, the man lived a very long life. At his 120th birthday, the prophet Elijah again appeared to him and told him that it was time to die. As the man felt the life force draining from his body, he said to Elijah—“I knew this day would come and I am ready. You have taught me a great and powerful lesson and my life has been beautiful. Bless you for your precious gift.” As the warmth returned to his body, Elijah and the man laughed together. Some say that he still lives to this very day.

May we all find new ways to bless one another in this time of Thanksgiving.

Gratitude

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

With the holidays just behind us, we find ourselves once again consumed with the daily routine of our lives. I want to take this opportunity to connect back to those moments of gratitude, introspection, connectedness, and joy that our community experienced during Elul, the High Holy Days, and Sukkot…with Temple Emanuel and Shwayder filled to capacity! These first celebrations of the new year were a true reflection of our vibrant community.

It is no small task to prepare our facilities to host the many services, programs, and childcare that go on during these busy times both at Temple Emanuel and Shwayder Camp. I want to publicly extend thanks to our fabulous Clergy for leading us in meaningful and engaging prayer, to our dedicated professional staff for stepping up to handle every detail and making those who walked through our doors feel welcomed, and to our top-notch maintenance staff who keeps things running smoothly and attend to every detail of our building and grounds. I would also like to extend gratitude to our security team headed by Boss Security. Thank you; we cannot do it without you. I would also like to extend a heartfelt thank you to our Board of Trustees, our past presidents, and countless volunteers. Thank you; we could not do it without you!

It is so wonderful to see nearly everyone here for the High Holy Days as our community came together with energy and intention. While it will not be every day will we see all 2,000 or so families here, we do want Temple to be a place where you want to be throughout the year. Our goal is to help you stay connected; meet other members with similar interests or who are in the same stage of life. Our creative and talented staff creates and facilitates a wide range of services and programs designed for the varied interests of our many congregants. Most importantly, we want you to feel welcomed walking through the doors of our community’s spiritual home all year long.

We look forward to seeing you often throughout the year. If you are trying to find a way to get involved that suits you, please feel free to call me or our Director of Adult Engagement, Sarah Brown, so that we can help to make your connection to Temple Emanuel meaningful.

Tax-Wise Philanthropy

As you approach your year-end tax planning, you might want to consider making a gift of appreciated securities to Temple Emanuel or Shwayder Camp. Stocks, bonds, and mutual fund shares are excellent options to consider when making charitable gifts, offering tax advantages that might not exist when donating cash. The tax benefit is increased by donating appreciated securities instead of cash because the donor avoids paying capital gains tax on the stock’s appreciated value, but still enjoys a charitable deduction for its full fair market value. To learn more about donating appreciated assets, please contact Francie Miran at miran@EmanuelDenver.org or 303.388.4013, x335.
Another High Holy Days Home Run

By Mark Idelberg • Board President, on behalf of the Board of Trustees

In my remarks on Rosh Hashanah morning, I highlighted the hard work and dedication of our clergy, staff, and volunteers. This is, of course, especially noticeable during the High Holy Days. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I’d like to recognize some of the people who helped make our High Holy Days worship so beautiful and enriching. First, thanks to Rabbi Black, Cantor Sacks, Rabbi Hyatt, and Steve Brodsky for sharing your amazing talent, wisdom, and creativity with us. Thanks also to Rabbi Emeritus Foster and Cantor Emerita Heit for your participation in the Yom Kippur Yizkor service. And thanks to all of our professional musicians and choir for again providing the soundtrack for our services, as well as to those who provided technical support this year—Tevor Isetts, Craig Roush, and Dan Sjaastad, who handled our sound in the sanctuary, and Doug Velick, Laura Mitchell and Spectrum AV, who handled the visual tefilah.

For our younger members, Megan Garrett, our youth director, oversaw the High Holy Day Youth Project and the Yom Kippur Teen Experience. Early Learning Center Director Susan Wartchow and Stephanie Zorensky coordinated the High Holy Day Experience. Steve Brodsky, Rabbi Steven Kaye and camp director Jodie Abrams ensured that Rosh HaShanah was again a truly spiritual experience at Shwayder Camp. Meanwhile, Steve Stark and his staff handled all the details behind the scenes with their usual efficiency and grace. To all of you, a sincerely heartfelt thanks. I’d also like to express our gratitude to Dr. Eli Sacks, Ariela HaLevy, and Senator Gary Hart for enriching our Yom Kippur afternoon programming.

As always, thanks to Andy Thangasamy for coordinating our ushers, and to all of those who volunteered to serve as ushers this year. We are also indebted to the individuals providing security for all of us. A huge thank you is also in order for our building and grounds crews, led by Cairo Lopez, who work hard to make our worship spaces so beautiful and functional during the holidays and throughout the year. Last but not least, thanks to The Ruby and Michael, Erma and Nate Baum Pulpit Fund, The Carl and Richard Tucker Music Fund and Richard and Marcia Robinson and Edward and Susan Robinson for their ongoing financial support of our worship services.

As we start this new year, I hope you’ll reach out to some of these people to express your thanks as well. Shana Tovah to all of you and your families.

Shabbat is coming to a neighborhood near you! With our goal of reaching out and building community in your neighborhoods we are experimenting with Shabbat in the Hood. Our goal is to provide Shabbat experiences for people in their geographic areas. In September we had our first Shabbat in the Hood for the Highlands and it was a success. As a result, we are looking forward to celebrating Havdalah in Stapleton/Northfield in January and a Shabbat experience for people living south of Hampden and I-25 in March. These Shabbat experiences are open to everyone and you will be able to register online shortly.

Tuesday November 12 at 7:00 p.m. we will be having our second installment of “How to Jewish: Shabbat” led by Rabbi Hyatt. She will share some ideas and text about different ways to celebrate and share Shabbat with your friends and family. This program is free for everyone. Register online at www.EmanuelDenver.org.

Temple Emanuel seniors will have the opportunity to go to a wonderful exhibit Tuesday, November 19 at 1:30 p.m. at the History Colorado Center in partnership with Kavod on the Road. The exhibit is titled “A Legacy of Healing: Jewish Leadership in Colorado’s Health Care.” Guest curated by Dr. Jeanne Abrams from the DU Libraries’ Beck Archives, this exhibit is the story of the Jewish community’s role in revolutionizing our state’s health care in the late 19th and early 20th century. Learn about the leading tuberculosis treatments of the 1900’s, see rare film footage, photographs, and medical tools from Denver’s top tuberculosis sanatoriums, National Jewish Hospital and the Jewish Consumptives’ Relief Society. Our next Kavod on the Road program will be on Thursday, December 26 with a latke lunch with the Lenny K Trio. RSVP for both programs to GSanders@KavodSeniorLife.org.

Thursday, November 21 we will be hosting a training on suicide prevention and the QPR method of intervention (Question, Persuade, Refer). This program will be held in partnership with B’nai Chavurah and with Colorado Faith Communities United to End Gun Violence. RSVP brown@EmanuelDenver.org.

Thursday, December 19 we will be holding our second installment of Bubbe’s Kitchen with a chicken dish from Italy. Learn about Jewish life in Spain and try to make an international Hanukkah dish.

Family Promise

It’s hard to believe we are about to enter our 4th year as a Family Promise host congregation. Our enthusiasm and commitment continue to grow! Over 400 congregants have signed up for the volunteer email list, and well over 200 have actively participated in one or more host weeks. The families experiencing homelessness who stay with us at Temple consistently praise our warm and caring volunteers and the hospitality we offer.

The Family Promise Host Week schedule is shown here. There is still time to sign up for our Thanksgiving host week. It’s never too early to mark your calendars for next year. To volunteer, donate, sign up for training, or simply learn more about Family Promise at Temple Emanuel, visit www.emanueldenver.org/social-justice/family-promise.

DECEMBER CALENDAR
Autumn at the Library

By Rita Dahlke • dahlke@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 346

Book Club: Sunday, November 3, 11:45 a.m.

My Promised Land by Ari Shavit

- Named one of the best books of the year by the New York Times book review
- Winner of the Natan Book Award, the National Jewish Book Award, and the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award

Facing unprecedented internal and external pressures, Israel today is at a moment of existential crisis. Ari Shavit draws on interviews, historical documents, private diaries, and letters, as well as his own family’s story, illuminating the pivotal moments of the Zionist century to tell a riveting narrative. As it examines the complexities and contradictions of the Israeli condition, My Promised Land asks difficult but important questions: Why did Israel come to be? How did it come to be? Can Israel survive? Culminating with an analysis of the issues and threats that Israel is currently facing, My Promised Land uses the defining events of the past to shed new light on the present. The result is a landmark portrait of a small, vibrant country living on the edge, whose identity and presence play a crucial role in today’s global political landscape.

Book Chat: Sunday, December 15, 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

What’s a book Chat? A Book Chat is when the author skypes in to review his or her book after we have read it. Books are available in the library and on Amazon for you to read ahead of time. This year’s featured author is B.A. Shapiro. Her most recent book The Collector’s Apprentice was reported as “A clever and complex tale of art fraud, theft, scandal, murder, and revenge.” — Publishers Weekly

In this page-turner, B.A. Shapiro once again takes readers into the world of art, glamour, and mystery. Paulien is accused of helping her fiancé steal her family’s fortune and her father’s art collection. To protect herself from the law she has created a new identity. She takes a position working for an American art collector and quickly becomes caught up in the 1920’s Paris of artists and expats. From there, she sets out to recover her father’s art collection, prove her innocence, and exact revenge on her ex-fiancé. B.A. Shapiro has made the historical art thriller her own, and once again she gives us an unforgettable tale about what we see—and what we refuse to see.

Coming this Winter: American Film Series; A Century of Jewish Characters and Themes

We will be exploring images of the American Jewish experiences through a chronological examination of films and their trends.

Hello Temple Emanuel members. We’ve had an exciting 2019 and look forward to an even more active 2020. In October, we hosted our Bagels and Brotherhood event, where we noshed and learned about the Temple and Judaism.

On Sunday, November 10, the Brotherhood is hosting a blood drive at the Temple. Please make sure to sign up or e-mail me, if you are interested in giving back and doing a mitzvah for the community.

On Sunday, December 8, we’ll be doing our planning meeting in the Middle Social Hall for 2020. It would be great to hear your ideas and suggestions for the coming year. We will also be doing our officer elections for 2020. Contact me at wtrachman@gmail.com to join Brotherhood and start getting more involved.
