Social Justice Fund

One of the core values of Judaism that guides Rabbi Black's rabbinate is Gemilut Chasidim (acts of loving kindness). To honor this commitment and celebrate Rabbi Black's 10 years at Temple Emanuel, our social justice fund will be renamed the Rabbi Joseph R. Black Social Justice Fund. At Rabbi Black's request, a portion of the funds raised at the Annual Fundraising Concert on Saturday, January 25 will go to this fund to expand Temple Emanuel's ability to do Tikkun Olam programming that will 'repair the world.' Additional donations can be made to the fund at www.emanueldenver.org/annual-fundraiser-concert.

Dear Friends,

As part of my agreement with Temple Emanuel I am eligible to receive 3 months of sabbatical, to be taken no more than one month a year for three years. Due to a variety of factors, I have been unable to take advantage of this opportunity until this fiscal year. As such, during the month of February 2020, I will be away from Temple.

The origins of the term “Sabbatical” come from the Bible. Linguistically, it comes from “Shabbat”—God resting on the 7th day (“Sabbathi” → “Sabbatical”). The idea of an extended period of rest can be found in the books of Exodus, Leviticus and Deuteronomy. The Torah teaches that land should lie fallow every 7 years in order that it might be given a rest from over-cultivation. This was called Shnat Shmitah—or Sabbatical year. This became the basis of academic and professional time off every 7 years.

14 years ago, I was able to take a 3-month Sabbatical in my former congregation in Albuquerque—during which I recorded a CD (entitled “Sabbatical”) and wrote and performed my music extensively around the country. This next installment is long overdue.

During this first portion of my Sabbatical, I will be engaged in several activities including:

• Traveling to Israel on a mission with the Central Conference of American Rabbis (CCAR).
• Serving on the faculty of “Songleader Boot Camp”—a nationally recognized program out of St. Louis designed to create immersive, inspirational, and strategic Jewish leadership programs for Jewish worship leaders, educators, and song leaders.
• Writing and recording new original music.
• Visiting other congregations in Denver and around the country and learning about best practices in the areas of worship, study and pastoral care.
• Catching up on some long-postponed reading.
• Spending quality time with Sue and our children.

I know that this is an ambitious agenda, and I may not be able to accomplish everything during these first of 3 months. Nonetheless, after ten years of serving as your Senior Rabbi, the opportunity to engage in four weeks of spiritual, intellectual and physical renewal is an incredible gift for which I am eternally grateful. I want to thank the leadership of Temple Emanuel—especially our president, Mark Idelberg—for their insight, and understanding in granting me this opportunity. I know that I will have a great deal to share with all of you when I return in March.

I am looking forward to recognizing my 10th Anniversary with the congregation on Saturday, January 25 at our annual fundraiser featuring world-renowned artists Noam Pikelny and Nefesh Mountain. Comparative Religions: Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism with Rabbi Eliot J. Baskin

By Rabbi Eliot J. Baskin • baskin@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 302

Travel around the globe with me to explore the world's four major religions and their relationship to Judaism. We'll visit New Zealand and Indonesia where I spent a week in each place immersed in Christianity with Rev Raz and in Islam with Imam Ozy as part of 1000 Abrahamic Circles this past August, and then head off to Bali, the land of 300 million Hindu gods, where I founded a Reform congregation three years ago, and finally to Burma and Taiwan, lands of Theravada and Mahayana Buddhism, where I volunteered the last two years for the High Holy Days.

As Rabbi Jonathan Sacks notes: “For though my faith is not yours and your faith is not mine, if we each are free to light our own flame, together we can banish some of the darkness of the world!”

Come enlighten yourselves for one or all sessions about the great religions of the world.

Goals for the New Year

By Steve Stark • stark@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 303

I want to wish all of you a healthy and happy secular New Year! In celebrating the secular New Year, this second “beginning” gives us a chance to reset, reflect, and plan in a different way that our spiritual new year.

This year, my goal is to continue to make Temple a welcoming place for our community. It is also my goal that the efforts of our entire staff, board of directors, and volunteers allow you to experience a sense of great fulfillment and personal growth. As we begin 2020, Temple Emanuel will continue to create opportunities for engaging in worship, lifelong learning, the celebration of holidays, rites of passage, and social justice programs.

With that, 2020 is sure to be full of avenues to create community. My hope is that each one of us will commit to exploring and engaging in something this year at Temple. It can be giving back through one of our programs such as Family Promise or A Little Help. Maybe one of our different groups will speak to you such as our Freebirds Group, the Hineini Project, Kavod on the Road, one of our spiritual bereavement groups, or one of our Rabbi Steven Foster Early Learning Center's parent groups.

Most importantly, your presence and active participation makes Temple Emanuel a warm and welcoming community; and we look forward to seeing you often throughout the year!

Please read the weekly e-notes, the bulletin, our website and other forms of communication for details on the many programs that bring us together.

May 2020 be a year of connection and personal growth. Wishing each of you a healthy, happy, and prosperous 2020!

Special Incentive for Shwayder Camp Life & Legacy Gifts

Shwayder Camp has been working with the Rose Community Foundation and the Harold Grinspoon Foundation to develop a legacy program to ensure the future of Shwayder Camp. We are very grateful for the 22 families that have already made a commitment. Now in the second year of the program, we still need to get 14 additional commitments to meet our Life & Legacy program goals.

Will you make a commitment to include Shwayder Camp in your legacy plan? You can put Shwayder in your will or trust or it can be as simple as changing a beneficiary on a retirement plan or insurance policy. While we need to get the 14 commitments by the end of February, the gift does not need to be formalized in your plans for one year.

Perhaps you have already included Shwayder Camp in you plans and not told us? We would like to have you help us make our goal. We would also very much like to have an opportunity to thank you.

If you can help us reach our goal, contact Francie Miran, Development Director, 303.388.4013, ext. 335, miran@EmanuelDenver.org.

For five generations, Shwayder Camp has provided a place where Jewish values and traditions can flourish and grow, and we now ask for your assistance to continue the Shwayder Magic. It’s not just time to provide “A Summer to Build Your Life On” but to use your legacy to provide “A Lifetime of Summers.”

Join us in ensuring the future of Shwayder Magic by including Shwayder Camp in your legacy plans.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

By Ben Cohen • cohen@EmanuelDenver.org • ext. 348

Hi! My name is Ben Cohen and I am so excited to join the Temple Emanuel Team as Youth Advisor! I have worked at Temple in the Religious School and the Temple Office for the past two years. I grew up outside St. Louis and was active in my Temple Youth Group and in NFTY. I will graduate from the University of Denver this June with a Bachelor’s in History with minors in Judaic Studies and Psychology.

I am excited for the upcoming semester for Youth Programming. Whether we are having a lounge night for our High School Friedman Club, a trip to Spider Monkey with our EmanuKids and Jewniors elementary school groups or going to the arcade with our Frankel Club JYG for middle schoolers, there are always opportunities at Temple Emanuel. You can see what and when programs are in the near future on our website: emanueldenver.org/youth.

Sunday, February 9 – 3:00 – 5:30 p.m.

The Jazz Singer, 1927

The original classic film about generational conflict that ushered in the sound era stars Al Jolson as Jakie Rabinowitz a talented singer who defies his family’s tradition of being a cantor and becomes The Jazz Singer. Although Jakie’s mother is sympathetic to his ambitions, his father is extremely upset that he will not follow in the male tradition of being a cantor. Changing his name from Jake Rabinowitz to Jack Robin adds further insult to the injury of turning his back on a multi-generational tradition of being a cantor and becomes The Jazz Singer. Although Jakie’s mother is sympathetic to his ambitions, his father is extremely upset that he will not follow in the male tradition of being a cantor.
