Dear Temple Emanuel Community,

Earlier this summer, after careful consideration and deliberation and out of an abundance of caution, we made the painful decision that we will not be gathering in person for the High Holy Days this year at Temple Emanuel. We are saddened by the necessity to do this, but excited by the challenges and opportunities to try something completely new that encapsulates the wonderful traditions of Temple Emanuel while exploring new modes of communication. This time of seclusion gives us an opportunity to contemplate, evaluate, and co-create something powerful for our kehilla kedosha, our sacred community, and we look forward to sharing it together.

Temple Emanuel is not defined by its walls or its doors - we are defined by our community. Our Clergy, professional team and lay leadership are all working hard to ensure that the spiritual connection, inspiring music and liturgy, joy, and contemplation that have always been the hallmarks of the High Holy Days will continue. We promise you services that are filled with inspiring sermons, beautiful instrumental and choral music, and meaningful and engaging study sessions. We promise you that we are going to meet the needs of every Temple member from our youngest to our oldest. And we promise to celebrate community – even though we will be in our own homes.

Please know that we are grateful for your resilience, support, and dedication to Temple Emanuel. Together we are strong, and together we rise as we welcome in a New Year full of hope, promise and renewal.

L’Shanah tovah tikateyvu – May we all be inscribed for a blessing in the Book of Life.

Sincerely,
The Clergy, Staff and Lay Leadership of Temple Emanuel
Guide to the High Holy Days at Temple Emanuel 5781 • 2020

Whether this is your first year here or your fiftieth, we are happy that you have chosen to celebrate the High Holy Days with us. We are proud that this is our 146th year as a congregation. Our Clergy Team (Rabbi Joseph Black, Cantor Elizabeth Sacks, Rabbi Emily Hyatt, and Steve Brodsky), our Executive Director Steven Stark, and the entire professional team have been working hard to offer you many meaningful High Holy Days options. This schedule of events provides all the details. All High Holy Day programming will be available via our website at emanueldenver.org/hhd. Please check there for registration links and program and service platform location.

Access and Platform Information
We know that this year will look a little different than High Holy Day observance in years past. We have been intentional and dedicated in our planning to ensure that we can provide a meaningful and moving experience for all our members, regardless of age or stage. We are excited to share these days with you! We will be offering services, classes, and study sessions on different platforms. To get the most out of your High Holy Day experience, we recommend becoming familiar with how we will deliver our offerings this year. Here is what you need to know:

Password Protection. For security purposes, we have password protected several registration forms and session links. Please use the password 5781gr8TE70 to access them. It is imperative to the security of our community that this password is not shared – it is strictly for the use of Temple Emanuel members in good standing. Keep close track of this password, as it will not be shared on our website, Facebook page, or eNotes. We thank you in advance for your discretion and effort to keep our virtual gatherings safe.

Livestream worship. All worship services will be available as live streamed content both on our website here and on our Facebook page. We’re excited to launch our new home for livestream: www.EmanuelDenver.org/Livestream. Zoom Meetings. Many sessions, including study sessions and targeted youth experiences, will be hosted over Zoom. Just like we’ve been doing for Torah Study, participation in the Zoom session will require registration. Once you have registered, you will receive a link to the Zoom meeting. If you would like to watch the session without participating, you are welcome to do so and can find it streamed on our website and Facebook Live.

What You Can Do to Prepare
Create a Zoom account. Before attending any events broadcast via Zoom, create a Zoom account. You can do so for free and this will enable you to access services and classes in a more participatory way. Some offerings will only be available via Zoom, so make sure you’re registered and ready to go. For a tutorial on using basic Zoom features and to learn how to set up an account, click here. Please make sure you use your name in your account (instead of “iPhone7” or “home office”, i.e.) so that we can easily admit you into the program.

High Holy Day Worship Services
About worship this year. Experience the majesty and beauty of our Yamim Noraim – our Days of Awe. Through classic and current liturgy, uplifting music, and inspiring sermons, our High Holy Day worship services explore the most fundamental themes of our Jewish tradition – the joy of renewal, the power of repentance, and the blessing of community. This year, we will have one unified worship experience for every service – the traditional and contemporary combined to emphasize the strength and diversity of our congregation all together as one. Each service will include a sermon and teachings by members of the clergy and prayerful music with choir and instrumentalists.

EREY ROSH HASHANAH | Welcome the New Year with familiar melodies and messages of hope for our new year. Featuring our entire High Holy Days leadership team – clergy, congregational leadership, choir, and musicians.

ROSH HASHANAH MORNING – DAY 1 | Experience the soul-reaching sound of the shofar! Celebrate the New Year with joy while also reflecting on the serious and sobering messages of our High Holy Days.

HAVDALAH | As both Shabbat and the first day of Rosh HaShanah come to a close, we mark this sacred combination with a special Havdalah service that highlights the ideas of transition and change at this time of year.

ROSH HASHANAH MORNING – DAY 2 | A more intimate and explanatory version of worship for the High Holy Days. Join the clergy for a service that explores more deeply the themes behind our most famous High Holy Day prayers.

KOL NIDREI | Tom Kippur evening worship, named for the haunting melody which begins the Day of Atonement. We enter this day of repentance and reflection with a service that emphasizes memory, tradition, introspection, and honesty.

YOM KIPPUR MORNING | We stand together as one community on this day – engaged in the holy process of confession, atonement, and promise – all intertwined with spiritual music and liturgy both creative and timeless.

YOM KIPPUR AFTERNOON – Yizkor, N’ilah and Havdalah | The dramatic conclusion to Yom Kippur – filled with repentance, remembrance, forgiveness and hope. Includes the story of Jonah, our Yizkor (memorial) service, and the sweet final moments of our Season of Awe. continued

Study Session: Why Do We Even Need Community, Anyway? | 3:00 p.m.
Led by Elias Sacks
The High Holy Days are typically a time of togetherness—of gathering with family, connecting with friends, and joining with a congregation to pray, reflect, and learn. But why, really, are these sorts of connections important? If relationships are often sites not only of togetherness, but also of conflict, why are they valuable? If the High Holidays are a time for personal repentance and personal growth, why not just focus on looking inward? Indeed, amid a once-in-a-century pandemic and rising levels of partisan rancor, are efforts to build connections and maintain relationships more trouble than they’re worth? We will explore diverse answers to such questions in ancient, medieval, and modern sources, wrestling with a long history of Jewish thinkers who ask: why do we even need community, anyway? continued
Participants will discuss the implicit biases that we can work to overcome in the Jewish community and within ourselves to actively work towards being allies in the fight against racism. As it is our custom during tashlich, we will consider how we can cast away our personal biases during a time of reflection. This experience is open to everyone in high school grades 9-12.

Led by Susan Wartchow
Join our Foster Early Learning Center Director and resident parenting expert Susan Wartchow for a fun Rosh Hashanah activity that will engage young fingers and minds!

Study Session: Every New Beginning Comes from Some Other Beginning’s End | 4:00 p.m.
Led by Rabbi Hyatt
On Rosh HaShanah we celebrate the New Year - emphasis on the word “new.” But we all know that a new year never brings a blank slate. No matter how hard we try, we still remember every minute of last year. Join Rabbi Hyatt to learn about the beauty of the new beginning built on the truth and acceptance of what came before.

This has been a year of extraordinary challenges and transformative opportunities for Temple Emanuel. While we have not been together in person, we have worshiped, studied, mourned, rejoiced, and grown as a community. Who would have thought this was possible in a virtual environment? We never wavered in the belief that we are a community and we could support each other through this time, regardless of the challenges.

Yet this time of illness, physical distancing, business closures, job loss, and other challenges has tested Temple Emanuel and our congregants. To continue to address the needs of our community during this unusual time and to keep our congregation strong, we are asking you to increase your support to Temple this year. If you can make an additional gift beyond your dues, it will ensure that no one is left behind as we weather this storm. We are not defined by the outstanding historic buildings at 51 Grape Street, by our spectacular sanctuary or other spaces that have been comforting, celebratory and truly like home to so many of us for over 100 years. We are defined by the community that we have created – strong, resilient, and holy.

We know that at this challenging time, even with budget cuts made, we will need additional funding to maintain our vital congregation. Please support this High Holy Days Appeal at emanueldenver.org/togetherhere.
