

North Ayrshire Young People's Participatory Budgeting

Are you aged 8 – 25 years old and believe you could use funding to make a difference in your community or school?

Submit a bid and let North Ayrshire's young people decide!

Young people from across North Ayrshire are invited to bid for up to £800 per Locality [Arran, Garnock Valley, Irvine, Kilwinning, North Coast and Three Towns] to help make a difference in their community or school.

Applications can be submitted by individuals, clubs or groups and should fit with at least one of the following Year of the Young People legacy themes:

- Health and Well-being
- Poverty and Inequality
- Participation and Young People's Voice

Applications should be submitted by 12noon, Friday 26 October and are available from:

-  www.young.scot/napb
-  youthpb@north-ayrshire.gov.uk
-  01294 475900

Learn more online at www.young.scot/napb

Even if you're not bidding for funds, you can play an important role by voting for the projects that you believe will best use the funding!

Voting is open to 8 – 25 year olds that live in North Ayrshire and will be live on the Young Scot website from 9am, Friday 9 November - 12noon, Tuesday 20 November. Email youthpb@north-ayrshire.gov.uk for a voting number.

YOUR MONEY,
YOU DECIDE

