What?

We will train your staff to be industry leaders in working with people with learning disabilities and autism.

We provide training in:

- Understanding learning disabilities and autism
- Best practice accessible Front of House skills
- Relaxed performances and becoming an autism-friendly venue
- How to create accessible marketing
- Making workshops and casting accessible

We tailor sessions to meet your needs, using role-play, group working and resource packs in every session.

We can also support you by:

- Creating accessible marketing and signage
- Designing and delivering best practice relaxed performances
- Undertaking access audits and mystery shopper experiences
- Developing Disability Confident applications.

Why?

Equality Act 2010

Organisations must provide 'reasonable adjustment' for the benefit of disabled people.

Creative Case for Diversity

This is a key requirement of all Arts Council England supported organisations, impacting funding applications and agreements.

Purple Pound

The spending power of disabled people in the UK, estimated at £249 billion pounds per year.

Why Access All Areas?

About Access All Areas

Access All Areas makes urban, disruptive performance by learning disabled and autistic artists.

We create professional productions, represent artists, deliver the Performance Making Diploma at Royal Central School of Speech and Drama, and run innovative participatory projects for people with a broad range of learning disabilities and autism.

We won the Guardian University Award for Student Diversity and Widening Participation in 2015 and were finalists in the National Learning Disability and Autism Awards 2017.
